Italy Described By Miss Hansen

Italy, which has been the inspiration of poets, artists, and religion for hundreds of years, was the subject discussed at the Neighborhood club meeting yesterday afternoon in the gold room of the La Grande hotel. Miss Enone Hansen presented in an interesting fashion the history of the Italian peninsula from the time of the early Greek civilization to the present Fascist regime.

Miss Hansen is a member of a history class at the Eastern Oregon Normal school which has been divided into sections of four or five students, with each section making a special study of one country. Miss Hansen's section, of which she is chairman, studied Italy and she was assisted in collecting her material by Miss Jennie Nielson, Lowell Fuller, and Miss Gertrude Moore.

Mrs. Lloyd Pierce had charge of the program. Mrs. A. L. Richardson, as music chairman, presented two interesting numbers. Mrs. Ray Fuller gave a resume of Donizetti's opera, "La Favorita," from which she sang "O Mio Fernando."

Miss Katharine Wissler sang "Parla," by Arditi, and "Springtime," by Reinhold Becker. Mrs. Harley Richardson was accompanist. Tea was served in the gold room following the program with Mrs. Turner Oliver pouring. Italian open-faced sandwiches were served to carry out the Italian motif. Mrs. Alfred Jensen was social chairman for the day assisted by Miss Hilda Anthony, Mrs. W. B. Pickett, Mrs. M. Anthony, Mrs. Lynne Bohnenkamp, Mrs. G. M. Curtis, Mrs. E. L. Eckley, Mrs. James Oneal, Miss Gladys Miller, Miss Ida McKeekin, Mrs. George C. Decker, Johann Vernon, Miss Eleanor Vernon, Miss Helen Moor, Miss Lena Foley, Miss Henri Herrig.

An interesting discussion on ways to improve the club and officers may improve the Neighborhood club; and the election of new members featured the business session preceding the program.

Mrs. Julius Roesch Entertains Club

Mrs. Julius Roesch entertained the Goodwill club of the Women's Relief corps at her home yesterday afternoon. A social hour followed the business meeting with refreshments served by the hostess late in the afternoon. They will meet again February 3, with the hostess to be announced later.

Cabinet Members Of League Meet

The cabinet members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church were entertained by their advisor, Miss Amanda Zabel, last night at the Sacajawea apartments. Tea were presented to discuss plans for the coming six months and a program of social events, which includes two social evenings a month, was drawn up. Refreshments were served by the hostess following the business meeting.

Group Will Meet With Miss Vernon

The group of the American Association of University Women devoted to international relations will meet Thursday evening at 7:15 at the home of Miss Eleanor Vernon. Russia is the subject of discussion at the meeting, with several reports on Russian figures being given. Miss Alice Kilpatrick is leader of the group.

Lutheran Ladies Aid To Convene

A no-hostess meeting and a potluck lunch will be an event of Thursday afternoon when the Lutheran Ladies Aid meets at the church annex. The luncheon is to start at two o'clock.

Pioneer Daughters To Meet Thursday

Thursday afternoon at two o'clock is the time scheduled for the meeting of the Pioneer Daughters at the home of Mrs. Arch Conley with Mrs. Mattie Golden as hostess. Quitting will be the diversion of the afternoon and each member is requested to bring a needle, thimble, and her quilt pieces. Mrs. Golden states.

Club Will Meet Friday Afternoon

The Country Women's club will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Beese McAllister. Mrs. Charles Spencer and Mrs. Lena Gekeler will be assistant hostesses.

Modern, Skiing, Skating, Sledding, Snatch Off Winter's Icy Beard To Reveal Happy Playboy

Winter now is the maestro of a nation-wide carnival for "Young America." Pictures show Miss Merton Gengler (with skis) and Miss Betty Horton, eastern society girls, at the Lake Placid, N. Y., resort, and a bob-sled party at Sulphur Springs, Colorado.

NEW YORK (AP)—Young moderns have yanked the icy beard off of Old Man Winter, and revealed a gay winter playboy.

Now he's the life of the party at hundreds of northern resorts, joining arms with sports enthusiasts in cutting figure eights at the skating rink, whirling down the toboggan slides at 80 miles an hour, making bird-like flights from the ski jumps, or competing in hockey games and curling matches.

Old Man Winter seems to like his new role as party man, too. He has cooperated in the last few weeks with weather ideal for snow and ice sports, and northlanders from New England to the far west are out in force.

Out on the Pacific slope, Washington is preparing to set some new ski jump records January 25, when some of the leading ski jumpers of the United States and Canada will compete at the Leavenworth club on the eastern slope of the Cascade mountains.

ety. Cook slowly, stirring constantly, until onions have browned a little. Add rest of ingredients. Lightly mix with fork. Spread on meat. Mashed Sweet Potatoes, Honolulu 2 cups mashed sweet potatoes. 1 tablespoon butter. 1/2 teaspoon salt. 1 egg yolk. 1 egg white, beaten. 3 thin slices pineapple. 1/2 cup hot milk. 1/2 cup hot water. 1/2 cup hot oil. Beat well. Fold in egg white. Arrange portions on top of pineapple slices which have been placed on shallow, buttered pan. Bake 15 minutes in moderate oven. Banana Mousse, serving 6 1-3 cup sugar. 4 tablespoons flour. 2 cups milk. 2 eggs, beaten. 1/2 teaspoon salt. 1 teaspoon vanilla. 1 tablespoon lemon juice. 1 cup mashed bananas. 1 cup whipped cream. Blend sugar and flour. Add eggs and milk. Cook in a double boiler until thick and creamy. Stir frequently. Add salt and vanilla. Cool. Fold in rest of ingredients. Pour into mold, seal tightly and bury in 3 parts of chopped ice to 1 part of coarse salt. In 4 hours dessert will be frozen.

Skirts For Evening Even More Full PARIS (AP)—The skirts of evening gowns boast more and more fullness. While hip-lines cling to a fitted effect, hemlines swirl into yards upon yards of material that fall softly to the wearer's instep.

A yellow chiffon gown holds its fullness in shirred gathers to the knee, releasing it to billow around the ankles, while an ivory satin frock gains its fullness through fitted diagonal pieces which flare below the knee.

Brown And Beige In Sports Outfit WASHINGTON (AP)—Sea brown combined with beige makes a handsome sports outfit worn by Mrs. Walter Keyser Bachrach. The wool dress is trimmed with beige and seal brown chenille. With it she wears a small brown hat and a raccoon coat.

Night-Dresses Have Candy Stripes PARIS (AP)—Candy stripes are appearing in the newest night-dresses. One of the latest models of white chiffon crepe is striped with pale pink satin stripes half an inch wide. The model is finished with a tiny double frill about the V-neckline.

Wide Green Girdle Sets Off Chiffon WASHINGTON (AP)—Miss Doris Stevens, society leader, is wearing a Paris gown of black chiffon trimmed with a wide green girde with long ends hanging down the left side. A short velvet jacket is of a lighter shade of green than the girde.

Paris (AP)—Carry a bag of lace these evenings if you want to be smart and different. One of the smartest models is made in envelope design of rose, beige, mauve or green lace. The flap is softly pleated and is caught on one corner with a jeweled clasp.

PARIS FAVORS SPANGLED JACKETS PARIS (AP)—Glamorous spangled jackets for Sunday evening are a Parisian favorite now. The little jackets, straight or belted, are fashioned of glittering paillettes on chiffon or georgette crepe and are worn over a plain colored gown.

UNEMPLOYMENT RIOT NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (AP)—Disorders which grew out of a strike on city hall by unemployed workers, marshaled by communists, resulted Tuesday in the injury of several police and bystanders and a number of arrests when speakers exhorted the crowd to fight the police. The outbreak began after a dele-

Aircraft Exports Show Slight Dip

WASHINGTON (AP)—American exports of aircraft products suffered but little from depression in 1930, the aeronautics trade division of the commerce department has found. During the first 10 months of the year exports were valued at $7,288,014 as compared to what was termed the "abnormal" trade in the same period of 1929 when the value was $7,701,977.

Decreased sales of complete aircraft to Latin-American countries alone were said to have prevented surpassing the record level reached in 1929. Countries in the Far East expanded their trade 123 per cent in value, while gains of 27 per cent in value of aircraft engines and nearly 16 per cent in exports of spare parts and accessories to the area were recorded.

China and Peru were the best markets in value of sales and Germany continued to buy the largest quantity of American engines, though followed closely by Peru, Soviet Russia, and the Netherlands.

Gay Cloth Flowers Hit Novel Notes In New Mid-Season Evening Gowns

By Diana Merwin (Associated Press Fashion Editor) PARIS (AP)—Paris is decking her shimmering mid-season evening gowns with flowers that come from anywhere but hothouses or fields. Satins, velvets, pearls and crepes are used to fashion the roses, daisies and gardenias trimming the newest "after-nine-o'clock" robes.

The flowers are used in almost every conceivable design, tucked into corsages in front; looping the back of low décolletés; twisted into narrow belts; or festooning the edges of peplums. Worth outlines the pointed décolleté of a red crepe gown in the back with flat white velvet flowers having yellow centers; Callot masses pale pink and blue ragged silk daisies across the front bellows of a pale blue velvet gown while Patou tucks two big roses into the belt of one of his favorite models.

One of the smartest uses of flower trimmings is designed by Molyneux, who places one or two large white gardenias in the center of a scarf made of the same material as the gown. The scarf is tossed about the wearer's throat with the gardenias in front and the two ends hanging down the back. Supple satins, heavy crepes and chiffons, all designed to drape and fall softly no matter how voluminous the folds, are the favorite materials for Parisian evening gowns.

Off-shades of white, ivory, faint silver grey and a very pale pink-white—continue to reign as the smartest shades, with black chiffon and lace running close in point of popularity. The low décolletage, rather high waistline, and smooth hipline falling into voluminous folds in the skirt continue to mark the evening mode.

Dresden Taffeta Worn For Debut WASHINGTON (AP)—Dresden taffeta in a colorful style was worn by Miss Katherine Hall when she made her debut at a tea. The dress was trimmed in turquoise velvet, and her shoes were of turquoise blue.

ENEVELOPE OF LACE TRICKY IN EVENING PARIS (AP)—Carry a bag of lace these evenings if you want to be smart and different. One of the smartest models is made in envelope design of rose, beige, mauve or green lace. The flap is softly pleated and is caught on one corner with a jeweled clasp.

PARIS FAVORS SPANGLED JACKETS PARIS (AP)—Glamorous spangled jackets for Sunday evening are a Parisian favorite now. The little jackets, straight or belted, are fashioned of glittering paillettes on chiffon or georgette crepe and are worn over a plain colored gown.

UNEMPLOYMENT RIOT NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (AP)—Disorders which grew out of a strike on city hall by unemployed workers, marshaled by communists, resulted Tuesday in the injury of several police and bystanders and a number of arrests when speakers exhorted the crowd to fight the police. The outbreak began after a delegation of fifteen from the marchers' ranks returned from a meeting with Mayor Walker's secretary, Charles F. Kerrigan, at which they presented demands for relief of the jobless. Members of the delegation began addressing the crowd and ignored police who sought to stop them. The listeners booed the police, then resorted to fists. Two mounted officers rode through the throng trying to break it up.

WINTER SPORT MEANS GOLE TO NORTHWEST SEATTLE (AP)—While the rest of the Northern United States turn to skis and skates for winter diversion, the Pacific northwest gaily deties winter by staging golf tournaments. Sports fans on the Pacific slope of Washington and Oregon must drive to the mountains for snow and ice sports, so most of them prefer to stay home and practice their golf.

Several tournaments are scheduled for mid-winter, including the annual Empire mid-winter meet at Victoria, B. C., in February. Players from all parts of Western Canada, Washington, Oregon and Idaho are expected to compete.

Radio Records Called Electrical Transcription By C. E. Butterfield (Associated Press Radio Editor) Listeners, sometimes called "irate," are becoming more insistent in a demand for clarification of the term "electrical transcription."

To set them right, this phrase has been hit upon to describe broadcast purposes that type of program which is reproduced from a record made solely for radio transmission. Its adoption may have resulted from a hesitancy to refer to such features as "records" or the phrase may refer to the manufacturing process used. In it, records are electrically transcribed with the aid of a microphone and radio amplifier. An order of the radio commission requires an announcement of how the program was reproduced when it is presented by means other than studio entertainers. Pro And Con Numerous arguments have been put forward, both for and against the use of this type of radio program, including the statement that it permits the smaller station to broadcast features not otherwise obtainable. Another argument has been the elimination of the time element in broadcasting, in that the record or electrical transcription could be put on at a period best suited to local transmission. However that may be, the listener not objecting so strenuously at not hearing time entertainers before the microphone, seems to be most concerned about "electrical transcription," for it puzzles him considerably.

How It Happens. Then, too, there have been cases where the listener who thought he had been hearing a foreign rebroadcast, learned later that such wasn't the case at all. Not so long ago a particular editor was asked to give adequate and immediate explanation why a "rebroadcast" from Stockholm had not received more widespread attention. In a previous instance he unconsciously squelched the enthusiasm of a fan who thought that the program tuned in had come direct from Bucharest. Although made in part abroad, they were "electrical transcriptions."

Tea in Vacuum just like your coffee It is just as necessary for tea as it is for coffee. The U. S. Government Tea Examiners have urged it, and Schilling has discovered how to do it. The most delightful flavor of tea has always evaporated long before it could reach you in an ordinary tin or cardboard box. There was no way to prevent it. But now Schilling has discovered how to keep tea fresh and fragrant in vacuum just like your coffee. Fragrant flavors you never before tasted in tea. FRESH Schilling TEA
