Green And Gold Ball Scheduled For Friday Night

Lavish decorations and excellent music will make the annual green and gold ball dance of 1931 to be given on Friday evening at the Recreational hall one of the most interesting ever sponsored by the organization of the stake M. I. A. of the Latter Day Saints church. Mrs. Jack Blatt said today. The affair is informal, she added, with dancing beginning at nine o'clock. From five of the girls in the stake a queen will be chosen at ten-thirty o'clock to grace the throne and preside over the festivities. Candidates for the queenship are Marna Stoddard, Baker; Gladys Billings, Imbler; Ethel Harndon, La Grande First Ward; LaMoeve Salkfield, La Grande, Second Ward; Nellie Geertsen, Union. Each candidate will be attended by a young man from her own ward. These five young men will act as judges. The contest dance will follow the crowning of the queen, with contestants from each ward in the stake participating. Green and gold balloons and roses are the preeminent feature of the decorations. Mrs. Clyde Metcalf states. Candy and popcorn will be dispensed from cleverly decorated booths and punch will be served throughout the evening. Committee chairman in charge of arrangements are Mrs. Anna Black, La Grande, and Parley Thomas, Baker, general chairman; Mrs. Clyde Metcalf, decorations; Mrs. Jack Blatt, candy booth and popcorn; Elmo Clegg, advertising.

Clio Club Meets At R. J. Green Home

The Clio club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Green at a seven o'clock dinner at their home last night. Rosebuds and carnations were used for table decorations. Five tables of bridge were played following the dinner with Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Kinzel receiving high score. Mrs. Walter Reuter will entertain the women of the club next Wednesday at a one o'clock luncheon.

SUNSHINE MELLOWS Heat Purifies

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" process includes the use of the Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING"—that extra, secret process—removes harmful irritants that cause throat irritation and coughing.

The advice of your physician is: Keep out of doors, in the open air, breathe deeply, take plenty of exercise in the mellow sunshine, and have a periodic check-up on the health of your body.
