

LOCAL BRIEFS

Haines Visitor Here—Mrs. Rose Sampson, of Haines, is in this city visiting with Mrs. Myron Greenough.

Visits in Perry—Gene Greenough visited with his uncle, Lewis Greenough, in Perry over the weekend.

Go to Summerville—Mrs. R. Polson spent the weekend with friends in Summerville. She stayed until Sunday.

Elgin Youth Here—Elvin Carr, of Elgin, is visiting in this city at the R. Polson home.

Club to Meet—The Imbler Women's club will meet with Mrs. C. C. Welch Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Berry will be in charge of the program, to be devoted to health.

Marriage License—A marriage license was issued by the county clerk yesterday to Earl Surby, of Cove, and Goldie Brown, of La Grande. They were later married by L. Denham, local justice of the peace.

Leave Hospital—Mrs. E. O. Johnson left the Grande Rouge hospital yesterday, and returned to her home at Haines. J. J. Jackson and Arthur Cass also left the hospital yesterday.

Enter Hospital—Among those entering the Grande Rouge hospital were Earl H. Miller and Ted Thomas, yesterday, and Mrs. Margaret Lane today.

Colonel Sinking—The condition of Col. F. S. Ivanhoe, stricken several days ago by paralysis, continues very, very grave. His physician reports that he is sinking gradually.

Operation—Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Thornbrue, of Hilgard, underwent a major surgical operation at the wonderlick hospital this morning. Her condition is reported as good.

Baby Daughter—An eight and three-quarter pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Steve Carn, 1430 Monroe avenue, on Jan. 20. Both mother and child are doing well.

Orchestra to Meet—The Christian orchestra of the Central Church of Christ will meet for rehearsal this evening at 7:30 at the church. Rev. Paul de F. Mortimore, leader of the orchestra, says that interest is increasing with every rehearsal, and he expects to have one of the best church orchestras in the state. Rehearsals are held every Tuesday evening and each Sunday evening a short concert is given as a prelude to the 7:30 service. These are attracting considerable interest and Mr. Mortimore states he believes the evening audience is increased very considerably on account of the music.

Army Services—Brigadier A. E. Beynton, and Adjutant Ronald Eberhart, of Portland, will conduct services at the local Salvation Army hall Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Church Begins Course—Twenty-eight people, most of them teachers in the Church of Christ Bible school, met at the church last night for the first session of a teacher training course. This course is written by W. S. Athearn, a national authority in education, and is being used simultaneously by thousands of the Church of Christ schools. The course is so popular that the lessons are being printed in the weekly magazine furnished to the adult department of the Bible school, eliminating the need of special textbooks for the course. The class is open to all over 16 years of age who desire to take it. Examinations will be given upon completion of the course, and certificates awarded those who are successful in passing these examinations. Rev. Paul de F. Mortimore is teaching the class which will meet regularly on Thursday evenings.

DeMolay to Meet—The DeMolay Junior Masonic organization will have a regular business meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic hall, followed by a social hour. The committee in charge of refreshments is composed of Boyd Jackson, Billy Caldwell, Fred Nowland, and Wayne Foster.

Go to Elgin—J. D. Zurcher and R. J. Kitchen are in Elgin today trying a case at law.

Miss Hanna at Home—Miss Miriam Hanna is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hanna. She is enjoying the mid-year vacation between semesters from Whitman college, where she is a sophomore. She will return to Walla Walla to resume her studies for the next semester.

La Grande Takes Game—The La Grande volleyball team again won a victory over the Union players last night when they took the four games at the Recreational hall.

Mother Visits—Mrs. Fred Hampton, of Portland, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Letsman, in this city. She plans to remain for several weeks.

Miss Ashby to Leave—Miss Gilda Ashby, who arrived in La Grande Saturday from St. Charles, Missouri, will leave Thursday for that city to resume her studies at Lindenwood college.

Mrs. Melvin Here—Mrs. J. Thayer Melvin, of Duluth, Minn., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. N. Ashby, for a few days.

Visits Parents Here—Mrs. C. Norwood Hale arrived in La Grande Monday from San Francisco. She will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baxter, and with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hale, for about two months.

Former Resident Here—Francis Bergey, who was known as "Gus" Bergey when he worked for the railroad in La Grande, has come back to this city as the representative of a weather strip company, with headquarters at Portland. Mr. Bergey lived for a number of years in Pendleton and was transferred to this city in 1929. He is staying at the Elk's club while in La Grande.

Spends Weekend Here—W. A. Halliday, of Portland, spent the weekend in La Grande.

Portland Man Here—Francis L. Hall, of Portland, who is affiliated with the Natural Gas company, is in La Grande at present on tour of inspection. He expects to be here about two weeks.

R. H. Huron Returns—While in Portland, he heard the band contest which was staged between the 140th Artillery band from Tacoma, Wash., and the 162nd Infantry of the Oregon national guard, of Portland. The Tacoma band won the contest. He also attended a general staff meeting of the Oregon national guard.

Union Woman Here—Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, of Union, spent Tuesday in La Grande transacting business.

Mrs. Arant Returns—Mrs. Mabel Arant, who has been confined at the home of her mother in Baker due to influenza, was able to return to her home here on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Arant, who moved recently from Astoria, are staying at the Grande Ronde apartments.

Eagles to Meet—The Eagles lodge and the Ladies auxiliary will meet Tuesday evening in regular session. No special entertainment has been planned. The drill team and officers of the Eagles will go to Baker on Jan. 30 to put Woodcraft in La Grande as candidates. The local drill team is training to enter the drill team contest at the district convention to be held in Pendleton next summer, states Ray Patton, head of the lodge.

Enterprise Folk Here—Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Miller and family and Mr. and Mrs. Mollie Rogers, all of Enterprise, spent the weekend visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Doan, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Rogers, and Mrs. Doan are sisters.

Union Agent Here—Miss Georgia Baker, agent at Union Junction, was in La Grande transacting business and shopping yesterday.

N. O. W. Official Here—Mrs. Anna S. Mandell, of Portland, grand officer of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, arrived in La Grande this morning to act as installing officer at the installation of the new officers of the N. O. W. tonight at the Knights of Pythias hall. Miss Mandell will also inspect the lodge and become acquainted with the new officers and their problems. It is said.

FAMOUS SWEDISH AIRMAN INJURED (Continued from Page One)

and after that he went home to join the Swedish air force.

He is one of the foremost fliers in Sweden, but outside his own country he was little known before his rescue of General Sobiech. After that exploit he visited the United States and was received at the White House.

UNDERGOES OPERATION NEW YORK, Jan. 27 (AP)—Irene Castle McLaughlin, the former dancer and now the wife of a Chicago sportsman and coffee manufacturer, was recovering here today from an operation for varicose veins, performed last weekend at a private sanitarium on East 61st street.

KEASEY BILL IS KILLED IN HOUSE TODAY (Continued from Page One)

son, Andrews, Angell, Bronough, Bydon, Chindsgren, Chinnock, Day, DeCap, Deuel, Gouley, Hamilton, Hellberg, Hill, Johnson, Knapp, Lee, McPherson, Manning, McCourt, McGraw, Mott, Nash, Norton, Osmann, Proctor, Scott of Umatilla, Snell, Stewart, Swift, Taylor, Thornburg, Aells, Yates, Loneragan.

Those favoring the minority report: Representatives Eckley, Fisher, Keasey, Lawrence, Lewis, McAllister, McCormack, McPhillips, Nichols, Peters, Schaupp, Scott of Morrow, Smith of Hood River, Smith of Marion, Stockdale, Temple, Tompkins, Weatherford, Winslow.

Efforts to delay the issue, and lay the reports on the table until tomorrow, moved by Representative John Manning of Multnomah county, was lost by a 34 to 26 vote.

The Multnomah delegation last night by vote of 10 to 4 rejected the house bill upon which the governor earlier yesterday in a special message urged support. The measure would give the governor power to appoint the nine members of the port commission. The minority report, signed by Representatives Herbert Gordon, D. E. Keasey, John H. Lewis and R. W. Gill, urged the passage of the bill over the adoption of the minority report that the first debate in the house was started this morning.

In presenting his plan for appointment by the governor, Gordon reviewed the history of the port, stating that the power of selection by the governor was taken from him 12 years ago and placed in the hands of the legislature. He declared the question of attorneyship has been the bottom of trouble within the port for many years, and asked support of his minority report in the interest of better business. He declared a bill urging the election of officials by the district was passed in the house two years ago and defeated in the senate.

Angell's Contentions. Homer D. Angell, leading the fight against appointment by the governor, in favor of election after 1932, declared the matter a local issue, not one of a line between supporters of Meier as against opponents, but one of principle, whether the people or someone else, whether in the future, should not be from Portland, should name officials to represent them in port affairs. He compared giving the power of selection of the commission to the governor the same as giving him the right to select the school boards of the various state districts.

During Angell's argument, Speaker Frank J. Loneragan called E. W. Snell, representative of Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties to take the chair, and he stepped to his desk on the floor to be prepared to speak in opposition to the minority report.

Angell presented a resolution from the East Side Commercial club of Portland, urging the defeat of the appointive bill and the passage of the second measure, providing for election of port officials by the district. Angell made a plea for the people of Multnomah county as against that of the governor, who was elected state executive so that he might administer the port business, but not to handle all business, depriving the people of voice. He declared Governor Meier declared the present port system an "antiquated" but that he wished to substitute a monarchy for an "autocracy." Ray W. Gill, urged appointive powers be given the governor because of a "principle" above party politics. He declared the people of Multnomah county voted for the governor on a business platform, and the first move of the executive for a business program was met by opposition. John H. Lewis declared an elective system would fail because of lack of experts to run for the position, which is non-remunerative.

ROAD TO BOX CANYON WINS CLUB FAVOR

(Continued from Page One)

The agriculture measure, providing for the consolidation of 14 commissions and boards as well as the duties of several other state groups under one department, will be reported out as a joint agricultural measure in the senate today. The bill has been the subject of several informal committee meetings.

The new department of agriculture, as provided in this bill, would be headed by a director, appointed by the governor. He in turn would appoint the chiefs of four divisions, including animal industry, plant industry, foods and dairying and markets and marketing.

The senate will also hear the favorable report of the joint game committee on the Rogue river bill, providing for closing the stream to commercial fishing. The committee voted the bill out with a motion to adopt, although the vote was not unanimous. Several members declared the favorable report did not prevent them from voting against the measure if they saw fit. A fight is expected when the measure is presented for final passage.

The number of bills introduced in the house this session reached an even hundred, while the senate total was up to 81. The aggregate falls far behind the total of two years ago when 107 bills were introduced in the entire session, of which 482 were passed.

After the first lengthy debate in the senate that body killed by a definite postponement Senator E. W. Miller's joint resolution calling for a special legislative committee to investigate the feasibility of adopting a 10-year state building program, including a method of financing the program. The vote was 19 to 10.

Unless the state does something to relieve congestion at its asylums and hospitals Miller declared "we are laytial institutions. They are in a ing up wrath against the day of wrath with respect to our state courts. He scored the ways and means committee for its criticism of the emergency bond in allowing $30,000 for the construction of a cell wing at the penitentiary.

The act of 1921 providing for the creation of highway improvement districts would be repealed by a bill introduced by that purpose by Senator W. E. Burke.

In explanation of his bill Burke mentioned that an effort is afoot to have the Salmon river highway, built by the creation of a district, placed on the state highway map, which would result in the state's assuming its bonded indebtedness.

Six carloads of snow were hauled 350 miles that the national ski tournament could be held at Carey, Ill., near Chicago.

Last year a toss of 44 feet 11 inches won first place for Walter Guilfoyle in an indoor track meet of New York City High Schools. An identical heave of General Sobiech. After that exploit he visited the United States and was received at the White House.

Joe Primeau, rising hockey star for Toronto, was once passed up by the New York Rangers.

Expansion in London theaters has provided 10,000 additional seats in two years.

Three islands bought by the city of Stockholm from the Swedish crown were included in the largest real estate transaction ever concluded in Sweden.

Free range, vestige of the old west, will be abolished in Hamilton county, Kansas, April 1.

An extra force of men was put at work beautifying city property in Coffeyville, Kan., in a drive against unemployment.

A new radio-beacon is to be established at Povey Rocks lighthouse, to guide ships through the straits of Florida.

A "railplane" system, consisting of dirigible-shaped cars driven by propellers fore and aft and running on a single rail, has been tested in Scotland. The cars have a rated speed of 120 miles an hour.

A projector giving depth to motion pictures displayed on a screen is claimed by a French inventor. The apparatus is suited only to one spectator.

Strange Diet When tea was first introduced into England, the people were sometimes puzzled as to the preparation of it. As an instance it is recorded that a lady of Penrith, having been sent a pound of tea, and not knowing how to use it, boiled the whole up in a bottle. She then sat down with some friends to eat the leaves with butter and salt. They wended afterwards how such a diet could appeal to any one.

No Need of Brakes Brakes on the car of Justice are out of place because its drive is mostly uphill.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Natural Resource Any city that is fortunate enough to have a waterfront should try to make it attractive.—Florida Times Union.

Toys Are Homemade About 90 per cent of toys sold in the United States are of domestic manufacture.

Encyclopedia Begun in 1768 The first edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica was published at Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1771, which appeared from 1763 to 1771. George Washington owned a set of these encyclopedias.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Short Testament The will of Chief Justice White contained but 51 words. It reads: "This is my last will. I give, bequeath and devise to my wife, Letta M. White, in complete and perfect ownership all my rights and property of every kind and nature, whether real, personal or mixed, wherever situated, appointing her executrix of my estate without bond and giving her seal thereof."

Since 1900 University of Illinois baseball teams have won the West conference championship 16 times.

Clues to Texas Buried Gold Mapped For Rainbow-Hunters

(Continued from Page One)

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Treasure hunters in the southwest usually write first to J. Frank Doble, if they don't visit his Austin home, to inquire about charts and practical leads. But no treasure hunter is Doble, but professor of English in the University of Texas.

Yet he has become a foremost authority on the legends of this big stretch of cabbler's land, shot with tales of buried gold, lost mines and pioneer plainmen.

Now his treasure lore is to be published in a book, "Coronado's Children."

Doble is the 42-year-old son of a trail driver and a school teacher, and he grew up on a ranch in the vast brush country of Live Oak county, Tex., where droves of wild turkeys used to graze in the dense thickets up close to the school house.

He learned to love poetry at Georgetown, Tex., and thought that if he could be an English teacher he'd have a chance to indulge that love. But before he started teaching, he was a newspaper reporter in San Antonio, writing about the small excitements of a city.

His professional career has been an off-and-on affair. He quit in 1920 to manage a big ranch in three counties of the brush country between Nueces river and the Rio Grande for his Uncle Jim Doble, an old-time cowman.

He has taken leaves of absence for his writing, and is on one now while he gathers lore of the ranges and folk of Texas, with support from the Laura Spelman Rockefeller foundation fund.

When he returned to the university in 1921, from ranching, he helped revive the Texas Folk-Lore society. "Never a week goes by that some party does not call personally to see or write me concerning the Lost Bowie mine, or some other hidden lode," he says.

"The ordinary man wants to run away from machinery and the plow-horse routine. He wants to be pointed to the rainbow's end."

LABOR, FARM MEN PRESENT VIEWS (Continued from Page One)

clusion of Russian timber but not all Russian products.

He said there was no doubt that Russian lumber and pulp wood was produced by "political prisoners working under the most horrible conditions."

Nelson said he believed Russian dumping in foreign markets was dictated by necessity, because of her lack of foreign credit.

"When the necessity ceases, dumping will cease," he added.

HOUSE TAKES UP SENATE'S RELIEF BILL (Continued from Page One)

tional Grain corporation of the federal farm board after February 1, M. W. Thatcher, their general manager here, said last night.

The plan was announced at the annual stockholders meeting, attended also by representatives of the

When it shines deep and full over the tall trees, the eager hounds, brought along in the trailers, are released.

There is an abundance of both red and gray foxes in this section this year and many hunting parties already have gone out. Some of the local hunters who pilot the visitors are T. J. Hamilton, Dr. J. Hicks, Miss Gray, Lockhart, S. B. Thompson, M. W. Partridge, Dr. Frederick Smith, H. B. Munday and S. J. Revelle.

A pack of about 20 dogs usually accompanies the party. The fun of northerners who set the pace in Wall street and high society have discovered a new and highly diverting thrill in the old south.

They hunt foxes in automobiles. Members of the fashionable winter colony in Augusta in company with the sportsmen here are enjoying a revival in ultra-modern manliness or the venerable sport.

The sportsmen usually drive to a table-land, completely surrounded by swamp, park their cars, turn the lights out and wait for the moon to come up.

GANDHI HONORED BY HUGE CROWDS (Continued from Page One)

ance beginning the multitude to disperse.

Leaving the prison at Poona last night Gandhi told prison officials that he would be back within two months. On the train from Chinnichwad, to Bombay, passengers shouted "Long live Gandhi our king."

GIRL REPORTER SEES MAT MATCH (Continued from Page One)

look swell with a red velvet formal. "Are they hurting each other?" Why, the old lady, standing there slapping each other.

"What's the matter, are they mad out. I didn't think he did anything wrong."

The disgusted portion of the audience on the left shouts back, "He didn't do anything wrong, but he did do anything wrong why did Hansen kick him in the eye? I hope Hansen doesn't hurt him, he's so cute, but I wish I could remember which one is champion of Australia."

"Why does he rub Hansen's head with his knuckles all the time? Does Hansen have a headache? Is Muir trying to break his head? Gee, those Australian babies surely are rough, aren't they? Why does Muir wear stockings?"

"I don't really think that Hansen was very polite, picking Muir up and then dropping him. He'll make Muir lose faith. Why doesn't Muir get up? He's out cold and Hansen gets the fall? Well, how does Hansen get the fall if it was Muir that fell. Oh heck, this is all mixed up in my mind, so let's go home and you can explain it to me on the way home."

"Say, by the way, who won? Hansen did? That's too bad because Muir's so cute, but then I surely do like Hansen's shorts."

"Now tell me just once more, which one is champion of Australia."

ROBBER SHOT BY SEATTLE POLICE (Continued from Page One)

in the struggle, but no one was injured.

Stone was almost subdued when he shouted "Help, I'm being held up, help!" He renewed the struggle when a uniformed patrolman came to his aid. The five men were in a heap on the sidewalk. It was then Detective V. L. Webb fired a bullet into Stone's shoulder.

The Rogers woman, who had watched the fight from her apartment window, was arrested and held on an open charge.

Police said Stone was one of a gang which terrorized Seattle eight years ago and recently was released from a British Columbia prison after having served time for a bank robbery. Postal authorities have posted a $2,000 reward for him in the belief he was connected with the Nobel, Cal., train robbery. He was identified as a participant of the Everett robbery when $44,000 was taken. Police considered him a desperate character and were holding him as a murder suspect.

NELSON OPPOSITE POST OFFICE

Dry Cleaned Clothing Protects Your Health

MAIN 56 STANDARD LAUNDRY CO.

Dixie Fox Hunters Quit Horses; Loll In Autos and Dogs Do Rest

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Prominent

When it shines deep and full over the tall trees, the eager hounds, brought along in the trailers, are released.

There is an abundance of both red and gray foxes in this section this year and many hunting parties already have gone out. Some of the local hunters who pilot the visitors are T. J. Hamilton, Dr. J. Hicks, Miss Gray, Lockhart, S. B. Thompson, M. W. Partridge, Dr. Frederick Smith, H. B. Munday and S. J. Revelle.

A pack of about 20 dogs usually accompanies the party. The fun of northerners who set the pace in Wall street and high society have discovered a new and highly diverting thrill in the old south.

They hunt foxes in automobiles. Members of the fashionable winter colony in Augusta in company with the sportsmen here are enjoying a revival in ultra-modern manliness or the venerable sport.

The sportsmen usually drive to a table-land, completely surrounded by swamp, park their cars, turn the lights out and wait for the moon to come up.

SUNSHINE MELLOWS Heat Purifies

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" process includes the use of the Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING"—that extra, secret process—removes harmful irritants that cause throat irritation and coughing.

TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.

"It's toasted" Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough © 1931, The American Tobacco Co., Mfrs.

LABOR, FARM MEN PRESENT VIEWS

LABOR, FARM MEN PRESENT VIEWS (Continued from Page One)

clusion of Russian timber but not all Russian products.

He said there was no doubt that Russian lumber and pulp wood was produced by "political prisoners working under the most horrible conditions."

Nelson said he believed Russian dumping in foreign markets was dictated by necessity, because of her lack of foreign credit.

"When the necessity ceases, dumping will cease," he added.

HOUSE TAKES UP SENATE'S RELIEF BILL (Continued from Page One)

tional Grain corporation of the federal farm board after February 1, M. W. Thatcher, their general manager here, said last night.

The plan was announced at the annual stockholders meeting, attended also by representatives of the

When it shines deep and full over the tall trees, the eager hounds, brought along in the trailers, are released.

There is an abundance of both red and gray foxes in this section this year and many hunting parties already have gone out. Some of the local hunters who pilot the visitors are T. J. Hamilton, Dr. J. Hicks, Miss Gray, Lockhart, S. B. Thompson, M. W. Partridge, Dr. Frederick Smith, H. B. Munday and S. J. Revelle.

A pack of about 20 dogs usually accompanies the party. The fun of northerners who set the pace in Wall street and high society have discovered a new and highly diverting thrill in the old south.

They hunt foxes in automobiles. Members of the fashionable winter colony in Augusta in company with the sportsmen here are enjoying a revival in ultra-modern manliness or the venerable sport.

The sportsmen usually drive to a table-land, completely surrounded by swamp, park their cars, turn the lights out and wait for the moon to come up.

GANDHI HONORED BY HUGE CROWDS (Continued from Page One)

ance beginning the multitude to disperse.

Leaving the prison at Poona last night Gandhi told prison officials that he would be back within two months. On the train from Chinnichwad, to Bombay, passengers shouted "Long live Gandhi our king."

GIRL REPORTER SEES MAT MATCH (Continued from Page One)

look swell with a red velvet formal. "Are they hurting each other?" Why, the old lady, standing there slapping each other.

"What's the matter, are they mad out. I didn't think he did anything wrong."

The disgusted portion of the audience on the left shouts back, "He didn't do anything wrong, but he did do anything wrong why did Hansen kick him in the eye? I hope Hansen doesn't hurt him, he's so cute, but I wish I could remember which one is champion of Australia."

"Why does he rub Hansen's head with his knuckles all the time? Does Hansen have a headache? Is Muir trying to break his head? Gee, those Australian babies surely are rough, aren't they? Why does Muir wear stockings?"

"I don't really think that Hansen was very polite, picking Muir up and then dropping him. He'll make Muir lose faith. Why doesn't Muir get up? He's out cold and Hansen gets the fall? Well, how does Hansen get the fall if it was Muir that fell. Oh heck, this is all mixed up in my mind, so let's go home and you can explain it to me on the way home."

"Say, by the way, who won? Hansen did? That's too bad because Muir's so cute, but then I surely do like Hansen's shorts."

"Now tell me just once more, which one is champion of Australia."

ROBBER SHOT BY SEATTLE POLICE (Continued from Page One)

in the struggle, but no one was injured.

Stone was almost subdued when he shouted "Help, I'm being held up, help!" He renewed the struggle when a uniformed patrolman came to his aid. The five men were in a heap on the sidewalk. It was then Detective V. L. Webb fired a bullet into Stone's shoulder.

The Rogers woman, who had watched the fight from her apartment window, was arrested and held on an open charge.

Police said Stone was one of a gang which terrorized Seattle eight years ago and recently was released from a British Columbia prison after having served time for a bank robbery. Postal authorities have posted a $2,000 reward for him in the belief he was connected with the Nobel, Cal., train robbery. He was identified as a participant of the Everett robbery when $44,000 was taken. Police considered him a desperate character and were holding him as a murder suspect.

NELSON OPPOSITE POST OFFICE

Dry Cleaned Clothing Protects Your Health

MAIN 56 STANDARD LAUNDRY CO.

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" process includes the use of the Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING"—that extra, secret process—removes harmful irritants that cause throat irritation and coughing.

TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.