

SOCIETY NEWS

Miss Bea Duke, Society Editor Telephone Main 600-Untel 959 a. m.

St. Peter's Church Parish Dinner Is Event of Weekend

George Birnie, as a French chef, and a group of business men as waiters, made the parish dinner of St. Peter's church one of the most interesting affairs of the weekend. The table was decorated in red, white and blue streamers, carrying out a valentine and patriotic motif.

Bridge Luncheon Event of Thursday

The Jolly Bridge club was delightfully entertained on Thursday at a one o'clock luncheon with Mrs. W. O. Williams as hostess.

Social Calendar

- Saturday, Feb. 7 8:00 Mohawk Bridge club, with Mr. and Mrs. James Oneal. Monday, Feb. 9 1:00 Monday Bridge club luncheon, with Mrs. Charles Playle. 2:00 Art Research club, with Mrs. Walker Pierce. 2:00 Ramblers Art club, with Mrs. Robert Eakin. 2:00 Lions auxiliary, at the home of Mrs. Max Sarvis, 1508 M avenue. 2:30 Woodmen Circle, with Mrs. Laura Oliver, 2002 Adams. 3:30 Chapter I. P. E. O. entertain for their husbands at dinner at the La Grande hotel. 7:30 Pukwana Camp Fire, in the basement of the Methodist church. 7:30 Neighborhood Literature club, at the La Grande hotel. 7:30 Division C of the Loyal Sisters of the Christian church, with Miss Gladys Edwards. 7:30 Daughters of the Veterans, Moose hall. 8:00 Valentine card party, Eastern Star Social club, at the Masonic hall. 8:00 San Kan Ta Bridge club, with Mrs. W. H. Stooling. Tuesday, Feb. 10 2:00 Neighborhood Art club, at the La Grande hotel. 2:30 Missi club, with Mrs. Geo. W. Walker. 2:00 Poppy club, with Mrs. R. V. Copesey. 2:00 M. L. C. club, with Mrs. A. Van Valkenberg. 2:30 W. C. T. U., at the dining room of Odd Fellows hall. 3:30 Riveria P. T. A. study group at the school. 7:30 Women's Benefit association, Odd Fellows hall. 7:30 Child study group of the A. A. U. W. P. T. A. at the E. O. N. 8:00 Card party given by the Altar society of the Catholic church, at the Sacajawea ball room. Wednesday, Feb. 11 2:00 Helomala club, with Mrs. James Oneal. 2:00 So-Ne-He club, with Mrs. Gene Walker, 2116 Oak street. 2:00 Division B, Loyal Sisters of Christian church, Mrs. Oona Lathrop. 7:30 Delphin chapter, Sacajawea Inn. 7:30 Bid 'Em and Lose 'Em club, with Miss Mildred Hoyt. Thursday, Feb. 12 10:00 Island City Ladies Aid, with Mrs. Nathan Perrin. 1:00 Clio club, with Mrs. A. J. Stange. 1:00 Mary Elizabeth club, with Mrs. Bert Hollister. 2:00 Lutheran Ladies Aid, with Mrs. Charles Ward. 2:00 Me-Way-A-Tum club, with Mrs. Roy Mansell. 2:00 White Rose club, with Mrs. Laura Kennedy. 2:00 Au Sait club, with Mrs. Elmer Carpenter. 2:30 Reception for patriotic organizations by the American Legion auxiliary, at the Sacajawea Inn. 7:30 Eagle auxiliary entertain the Baker group at a valentine party, at the Eagle hall. 7:30 A. A. U. W. literature group, at the home of Miss Mildred Hawksworth. 2:00 White elephant social by Division C, Loyal Sisters of Christian church, at the church. 8:00 Triangle club, with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones. 9:00 Benefit dance by the St. Peter's choir, at Honan hall. Friday, January 13 1:30 L. L. club, with Mrs. I. M. Dolan, Island City. 2:00 Presbyterian Missionary society. 2:00 Bridge club with Mrs. William Heughan. 2:00 Westway club, with Mrs. Mildred Stubbins. 2:00 Friday Bridge club, with Mrs. L. M. Hoyt. 2:00 F. S. club, with Mrs. Will Placock. 2:00 Stitch and Chatter club of the American Legion, with Mrs. Oscar Johnson, 802 Spring. 2:00 Bridge club with Mrs. Francis Grulich. 2:00 Baptist Ladies Aid, with Mrs. B. Marcus Godwin. 2:00 Greenwood Parent Teacher association, at the school. 7:30 J. H. Ackerman Training school P. T. A., at the Normal. 8:00 Sassaika club, with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nowland. 8:00 Bridge club, with Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Vedler.

Chapter I. P. E. O. Will Have Dinner

Chapter I. P. E. O. is planning a dinner to be given for the members and their husbands at the La Grande hotel Monday evening at six-thirty o'clock. Arrangements were made at a business meeting of the chapter yesterday at the home of Mrs. Hardie Taylor. Mrs. Clyde Setz is in charge.

Entertain Bridge Club on Friday

Mrs. Bob Williamson, assisted by Mrs. Francis Grulich, entertained for members of her bridge club Friday evening at her home.

Mrs. F. G. Fritts Entertains Club

Mrs. F. G. Fritts entertained the Larky Dezen club at her home yesterday afternoon for sewing and conversation. Eleven guests were present at the meeting at the end of which Mrs. Fritts served refreshments.

Mrs. I. M. Dolan Hostess to Club

The Island City Bridge club met for an enjoyable afternoon yesterday with Mrs. I. M. Dolan at her home in Island City.

German Poet To Be Discussed

Heine, the German poet, will be the subject for an interesting program of the Neighborhood Literature club which is to be presented by Mrs. Evelyn Bennett, principal of Willow school.

Birthday Party At Mackey Home

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mackey entertained with a dinner at their home Friday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of their son, Marvin. The table bore a large birthday cake as a centerpiece.

Bridge Party At Howard Ball Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ball was the scene of a bridge party last evening when guests for three tables were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young won high prize, while Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pieper received consolation.

Supreme Forest Circle Is Honored

The Supreme Forest Woodmen circle announces that this grove has been awarded second prize for publicity, the prize being a leather bound scrap book, which will be kept as a scrap book for the coming year by the publicity reporter.

Mrs. Crews And Miss Flook Guests

Miss Blanche Flook and Mrs. W. C. Cries, both of whom are leaving La Grande soon, were the inspiration for a delightful party yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Flook's sister, Mrs. C. M. Humphreys.

Perhaps Springs Is Here

Perhaps it isn't but the housewife knows the cleaning is near. Why not this week for the bedding? Making blankets look new is one of our specialties - washed 50c; renapped $1.00. Your comforts (35c) and pillows (25) are faultlessly washed.

It's The Know How That Counts

MODERN LAUNDRY The House of Personal Service PHONE MAIN 77

Justamere Club Is Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones entertained guests for three tables of bridge at their home Friday evening, when the Justamere club met. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ruckman won the prize for highest score, while Mrs. Charles Royce and Evan Thomas received consolation.

Life of Franklin Subject of Talk

The life of Benjamin Franklin was described by Walter M. Pierce, ex-governor, at a meeting of the Willow Parent Teacher association last night at 7:30 at the school. Mr. Pierce stressed the five greatest achievements of Franklin, who was the great American of his day.

Altar Society To Give Card Party

A benefit card party is being planned by St. Mary's Altar society of the Catholic church to be given Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the Sacajawea Inn. Mrs. William Siegrist is in charge of arrangements.

Lions Auxiliary To Meet Monday

The Lions auxiliary will meet Monday at two o'clock with Mrs. Max Sarvis to make favors which will be presented to the wives of Lions who attended the state convention in La Grande in June.

Conditions In West Indies Are Studied

"The Wailing Isles," a study of conditions in the West Indies, was begun at the meeting of the Baptists Ladies Aid yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. B. Finlay. The author, Detweiler, has devoted himself to a study of the West Indies and has made a very interesting presentation, the study of which will continue next Friday when the group meets at two o'clock with Mrs. B. Marcus Godwin.

New Bridge Club Named "Au Sait"

"Au Sait," meaning well informed, was the name selected by a new bridge club which was organized recently and which met yesterday with Mrs. Grant Swalberg.

P. T. A. Study Club To Meet Tuesday

The Riveria Parent Teacher association study club will meet Tuesday at 3:30 in the school building to discuss the subject, "Psychology of Other Lessons," by Hollingsworth. Mrs. R. A. Bergan will be the leader and urges all parents to attend.

Menus Of The Day

- By Mrs. Alexander George USING CHICKEN STOCK Menu for Dinner Noodles Wilmington Buttered Spinach Bread Pear Salad Fruit Jelly Orange Cream Cake Coffee Noodles Wilmington (Using leftover chicken and stock) 2 cups chicken stock 1/2 cup diced chicken 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon paprika 1 cup noodles, broken 1/2 pound fresh mushrooms 4 tablespoons flour 2 tablespoons cold water. Vegetable Mixture Mix stock, chicken, salt, paprika, noodles, mushrooms and vegetable mixture and boil gently 20 minutes. Stir frequently. Mix flour and cold water. When blended add to boiling mixture and stir and cook for 3 minutes. Vegetable Mixture 1-3 cup diced celery 1/2 cup chopped green peppers 1 teaspoon finely chopped onions 2 tablespoons chopped pimentos 1-3 teaspoon salt 1 cup water. Mix ingredients, cover and cook slowly 10 minutes. Pour into chicken mixture. Orange Cream Cake 1-3 cup fat 1 cup sugar 2 eggs 1/2 cup orange juice 2 tablespoons lemon juice 1/2 teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons grated orange rind 2 cups flour 2 teaspoons baking powder. Cream fat and sugar. Add rest of ingredients and beat three minutes. Pour into 8 small layer cake pans lined with waxed papers. Bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Cool and add orange filling. Orange Filling 1-3 cup sugar 3 tablespoons flour 1/2 cup orange juice 1/2 teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons lemon juice 1/2 teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons grated orange rind 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind 1 egg yolk 1 tablespoon butter. Blend sugar, flour and salt. Add rest of ingredients. Cook until thick in double boiler. Stir frequently. Cool and spread on one of the cake layers. Cover with other layer and spread with frosting. SALMON CURDS GOITERS WASHINGTON (AP)—The fifty-million-dollar salmon industry in the United States and Alaska plays an important role, the bureau of fisheries says, in the prevention of gold.

Colombia Natives Fight Jungle Pests With Giant Ants

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—In the southern jungle fastness of Colombia giant ants are pitted against insects pests so the misery to human life is minimized.

Riviera Marriages Aren't So Simple

NICE, France (AP)—The "want to be married but can't" colony on the Riviera is growing.

French Build Seaplane For Atlantic Mail Route

PARIS (AP)—A new all-metal monoplane with a range of nearly 2,800 miles, fully loaded, has been completed for transatlantic air mail service.

More Planes Than Pilots

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Louisiana has more airplanes than pilots. Records of the aeronautic branch of the United States department of commerce show 101 planes in the state, and only 91 pilots.

Blue Tie Preserved As First Air Freight

WASHINGTON (AP)—A blue silk necktie in the national museum keeps alive the memory of America's first commercial airplane shipment.

College Urged As Tribute To Women of Confederacy

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A co-educational institute, dedicated to the memory of the women of the Confederacy, would be established under a plan proposed by S. O. Moodle, vice-president of the Southland Memorial association.

district handed in the name of Donald. "Nothing doing," the clerk informed him brusquely. "There's no such name as Donald in the official book of names. Call him Donat if you like."

But the second name was not so easy and officially the boy will ever remain Donald Jean instead of John.

It required an official letter from the American consul to assure the clerk that Donald was a recognized name in America.

Every well regulated home in the Casaca maintains a colony of another insect called the "chinchero," which is a deadly enemy of the chinchero. The chinchero is an ant about the size of a bumble bee, but not poisonous to man.

Chincheros are captured in gourd, to which they are attracted by honey. After their entrance the gourd is corked up, and the chincheros are released in the houses to eliminate the chincheros, which they accomplish promptly.

Groups of chincheros together with 500 other insect and animal specimens. They will be used as a nucleus for a national Colombian Museum of Natural History.

Other items in the collection include stone dolls, hundreds of years old, paddles and other Indian implements carved and painted with religious symbols so old that the modern Indians do not know their meanings.

The party included 12 scientists and spent two months in the jungle.

Getting married in France may sound romantic, but much red tape is connected with the entanglement.

Started lovers are asked for their birth certificates and, showing their passports, are told to run home and get some other document or two.

Divorced persons are politely told that the proper document sworn to by the French consul nearest their residence in America is essential.

Even the death of a former husband or wife must be officially attested.

The after-marriage situation often is complex. Attempting to register his first-born son, an American resident of a small community in the

the tie, made from a bolt of silk shipped in one of the early Wright planes, November 7, 1910, from Dayton to Columbus, O., was donated to the museum by Edwin Boyd Graham, Pittsburgh.

Graham witnessed the flight and purchased the tie as a memento after the bolt had been cut up into cravats.

He has addressed an open letter to the governors and legislators of the southern states, quoting a resolution adopted by the veterans in a reunion at Billick, Miss., to urge prompt cooperative action.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A co-educational institute, dedicated to the memory of the women of the Confederacy, would be established under a plan proposed by S. O. Moodle, vice-president of the Southland Memorial association.

He has addressed an open letter to the governors and legislators of the southern states, quoting a resolution adopted by the veterans in a reunion at Billick, Miss., to urge prompt cooperative action.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A blue silk necktie in the national museum keeps alive the memory of America's first commercial airplane shipment.

PARIS (AP)—A new all-metal monoplane with a range of nearly 2,800 miles, fully loaded, has been completed for transatlantic air mail service.

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Louisiana has more airplanes than pilots. Records of the aeronautic branch of the United States department of commerce show 101 planes in the state, and only 91 pilots.

Mrs. F. G. Fritts entertained the Larky Dezen club at her home yesterday afternoon for sewing and conversation. Eleven guests were present at the meeting at the end of which Mrs. Fritts served refreshments.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ball was the scene of a bridge party last evening when guests for three tables were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young won high prize, while Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pieper received consolation.

The Supreme Forest Woodmen circle announces that this grove has been awarded second prize for publicity, the prize being a leather bound scrap book, which will be kept as a scrap book for the coming year by the publicity reporter.

February 9 is the day of the next regular meeting for Blue Mt. grove, No. 21, and all members are requested to be present at this meeting at 2:30 at the home of the guardian, Laura Oliver, on Adams avenue.

The Riveria Parent Teacher association study club will meet Tuesday at 3:30 in the school building to discuss the subject, "Psychology of Other Lessons," by Hollingsworth. Mrs. R. A. Bergan will be the leader and urges all parents to attend.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The fifty-million-dollar salmon industry in the United States and Alaska plays an important role, the bureau of fisheries says, in the prevention of gold.

NICE, France (AP)—The "want to be married but can't" colony on the Riviera is growing.

Started lovers are asked for their birth certificates and, showing their passports, are told to run home and get some other document or two.

Divorced persons are politely told that the proper document sworn to by the French consul nearest their residence in America is essential.

Even the death of a former husband or wife must be officially attested.

The after-marriage situation often is complex. Attempting to register his first-born son, an American resident of a small community in the

the tie, made from a bolt of silk shipped in one of the early Wright planes, November 7, 1910, from Dayton to Columbus, O., was donated to the museum by Edwin Boyd Graham, Pittsburgh.

Graham witnessed the flight and purchased the tie as a memento after the bolt had been cut up into cravats.

He has addressed an open letter to the governors and legislators of the southern states, quoting a resolution adopted by the veterans in a reunion at Billick, Miss., to urge prompt cooperative action.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A blue silk necktie in the national museum keeps alive the memory of America's first commercial airplane shipment.

PARIS (AP)—A new all-metal monoplane with a range of nearly 2,800 miles, fully loaded, has been completed for transatlantic air mail service.

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Louisiana has more airplanes than pilots. Records of the aeronautic branch of the United States department of commerce show 101 planes in the state, and only 91 pilots.

Mrs. F. G. Fritts entertained the Larky Dezen club at her home yesterday afternoon for sewing and conversation. Eleven guests were present at the meeting at the end of which Mrs. Fritts served refreshments.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ball was the scene of a bridge party last evening when guests for three tables were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young won high prize, while Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pieper received consolation.

The Supreme Forest Woodmen circle announces that this grove has been awarded second prize for publicity, the prize being a leather bound scrap book, which will be kept as a scrap book for the coming year by the publicity reporter.

February 9 is the day of the next regular meeting for Blue Mt. grove, No. 21, and all members are requested to be present at this meeting at 2:30 at the home of the guardian, Laura Oliver, on Adams avenue.

The Riveria Parent Teacher association study club will meet Tuesday at 3:30 in the school building to discuss the subject, "Psychology of Other Lessons," by Hollingsworth. Mrs. R. A. Bergan will be the leader and urges all parents to attend.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The fifty-million-dollar salmon industry in the United States and Alaska plays an important role, the bureau of fisheries says, in the prevention of gold.

NICE, France (AP)—The "want to be married but can't" colony on the Riviera is growing.

Started lovers are asked for their birth certificates and, showing their passports, are told to run home and get some other document or two.

Divorced persons are politely told that the proper document sworn to by the French consul nearest their residence in America is essential.

Even the death of a former husband or wife must be officially attested.

The after-marriage situation often is complex. Attempting to register his first-born son, an American resident of a small community in the

the tie, made from a bolt of silk shipped in one of the early Wright planes, November 7, 1910, from Dayton to Columbus, O., was donated to the museum by Edwin Boyd Graham, Pittsburgh.

Graham witnessed the flight and purchased the tie as a memento after the bolt had been cut up into cravats.

He has addressed an open letter to the governors and legislators of the southern states, quoting a resolution adopted by the veterans in a reunion at Billick, Miss., to urge prompt cooperative action.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A blue silk necktie in the national museum keeps alive the memory of America's first commercial airplane shipment.

PARIS (AP)—A new all-metal monoplane with a range of nearly 2,800 miles, fully loaded, has been completed for transatlantic air mail service.

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Louisiana has more airplanes than pilots. Records of the aeronautic branch of the United States department of commerce show 101 planes in the state, and only 91 pilots.

Mrs. F. G. Fritts entertained the Larky Dezen club at her home yesterday afternoon for sewing and conversation. Eleven guests were present at the meeting at the end of which Mrs. Fritts served refreshments.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ball was the scene of a bridge party last evening when guests for three tables were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young won high prize, while Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pieper received consolation.

The Supreme Forest Woodmen circle announces that this grove has been awarded second prize for publicity, the prize being a leather bound scrap book, which will be kept as a scrap book for the coming year by the publicity reporter.

February 9 is the day of the next regular meeting for Blue Mt. grove, No. 21, and all members are requested to be present at this meeting at 2:30 at the home of the guardian, Laura Oliver, on Adams avenue.

The Riveria Parent Teacher association study club will meet Tuesday at 3:30 in the school building to discuss the subject, "Psychology of Other Lessons," by Hollingsworth. Mrs. R. A. Bergan will be the leader and urges all parents to attend.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The fifty-million-dollar salmon industry in the United States and Alaska plays an important role, the bureau of fisheries says, in the prevention of gold.

NICE, France (AP)—The "want to be married but can't" colony on the Riviera is growing.

Started lovers are asked for their birth certificates and, showing their passports, are told to run home and get some other document or two.

Divorced persons are politely told that the proper document sworn to by the French consul nearest their residence in America is essential.

Even the death of a former husband or wife must be officially attested.

The after-marriage situation often is complex. Attempting to register his first-born son, an American resident of a small community in the

the tie, made from a bolt of silk shipped in one of the early Wright planes, November 7, 1910, from Dayton to Columbus, O., was donated to the museum by Edwin Boyd Graham, Pittsburgh.

Graham witnessed the flight and purchased the tie as a memento after the bolt had been cut up into cravats.

He has addressed an open letter to the governors and legislators of the southern states, quoting a resolution adopted by the veterans in a reunion at Billick, Miss., to urge prompt cooperative action.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A blue silk necktie in the national museum keeps alive the memory of America's first commercial airplane shipment.

PARIS (AP)—A new all-metal monoplane with a range of nearly 2,800 miles, fully loaded, has been completed for transatlantic air mail service.

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Louisiana has more airplanes than pilots. Records of the aeronautic branch of the United States department of commerce show 101 planes in the state, and only 91 pilots.

Mrs. F. G. Fritts entertained the Larky Dezen club at her home yesterday afternoon for sewing and conversation. Eleven guests were present at the meeting at the end of which Mrs. Fritts served refreshments.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ball was the scene of a bridge party last evening when guests for three tables were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young won high prize, while Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pieper received consolation.

The Supreme Forest Woodmen circle announces that this grove has been awarded second prize for publicity, the prize being a leather bound scrap book, which will be kept as a scrap book for the coming year by the publicity reporter.

February 9 is the day of the next regular meeting for Blue Mt. grove, No. 21, and all members are requested to be present at this meeting at 2:30 at the home of the guardian, Laura Oliver, on Adams avenue.

The Riveria Parent Teacher association study club will meet Tuesday at 3:30 in the school building to discuss the subject, "Psychology of Other Lessons," by Hollingsworth. Mrs. R. A. Bergan will be the leader and urges all parents to attend.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The fifty-million-dollar salmon industry in the United States and Alaska plays an important role, the bureau of fisheries says, in the prevention of gold.

NICE, France (AP)—The "want to be married but can't" colony on the Riviera is growing.

Started lovers are asked for their birth certificates and, showing their passports, are told to run home and get some other document or two.

Divorced persons are politely told that the proper document sworn to by the French consul nearest their residence in America is essential.

Even the death of a former husband or wife must be officially attested.

The after-marriage situation often is complex. Attempting to register his first-born son, an American resident of a small community in the

the tie, made from a bolt of silk shipped in one of the early Wright planes, November 7, 1910, from Dayton to Columbus, O., was donated to the museum by Edwin Boyd Graham, Pittsburgh.

Graham witnessed the flight and purchased the tie as a memento after the bolt had been cut up into cravats.

He has addressed an open letter to the governors and legislators of the southern states, quoting a resolution adopted by the veterans in a reunion at Billick, Miss., to urge prompt cooperative action.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A blue silk necktie in the national museum keeps alive the memory of America's first commercial airplane shipment.

PARIS (AP)—A new all-metal monoplane with a range of nearly 2,800 miles, fully loaded, has been completed for transatlantic air mail service.

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Louisiana has more airplanes than pilots. Records of the aeronautic branch of the United States department of commerce show 101 planes in the state, and only 91 pilots.

Mrs. F. G. Fritts entertained the Larky Dezen club at her home yesterday afternoon for sewing and conversation. Eleven guests were present at the meeting at the end of which Mrs. Fritts served refreshments.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ball was the scene of a bridge party last evening when guests for three tables were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young won high prize, while Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pieper received consolation.

The Supreme Forest Woodmen circle announces that this grove has been awarded second prize for publicity, the prize being a leather bound scrap book, which will be kept as a scrap book for the coming year by the publicity reporter.

February 9 is the day of the next regular meeting for Blue Mt. grove, No. 21, and all members are requested to be present at this meeting at 2:30 at the home of the guardian, Laura Oliver, on Adams avenue.

The Riveria Parent Teacher association study club will meet Tuesday at 3:30 in the school building to discuss the subject, "Psychology of Other Lessons," by Hollingsworth. Mrs. R. A. Bergan will be the leader and urges all parents to attend.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The fifty-million-dollar salmon industry in the United States and Alaska plays an important role, the bureau of fisheries says, in the prevention of gold.

NICE, France (AP)—The "want to be married but can't" colony on the Riviera is growing.

Started lovers are asked for their birth certificates and, showing their passports, are told to run home and get some other document or two.

Divorced persons are politely told that the proper document sworn to by the French consul nearest their residence in America is essential.

Even the death of a former husband or wife must be officially attested.

The after-marriage situation often is complex. Attempting to register his first-born son, an American resident of a small community in the

the tie, made from a bolt of silk shipped in one of the early Wright planes, November 7, 1910, from Dayton to Columbus, O., was donated to the museum by Edwin Boyd Graham, Pittsburgh.

Graham witnessed the flight and purchased the tie as a memento after the bolt had been cut up into cravats.

He has addressed an open letter to the governors and legislators of the southern states, quoting a resolution adopted by the veterans in a reunion at Billick, Miss., to urge prompt cooperative action.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A blue silk necktie in the national museum keeps alive the memory of America's first commercial airplane shipment.

PARIS (AP)—A new all-metal monoplane with a range of nearly 2,8