Styles Presented At Exhibit Held At Normal School

Gay colors and smart apparel predominated when a group of mannequins modeled spring styles at the fashion show which was the main feature of the assembly at the Eastern Oregon Normal school yesterday at the school. The purpose of the show, which was formulated by a class in art and environment under the direction of Miss Caroline Williams, was to bring about a clearer understanding of the points to be considered in the selection of clothes for men and women for various occasions.

Street wear was shown by Miss Mildred Bennett introduced the style show, for which the dresses and suits were furnished by local merchants. By means of an improved screen and a picture lantern, Miss Bennett showed the changing silhouette, from 1905 to the present slim, boyish figure which is popular now.

The models were chosen with regard to personality, build and coloring. Sports costumes were described in general by Miss Mildred Douhan, who introduced Miss Virginia McWilliams and Ellis Watkins in tennis togs. Miss

Valentine Party At Walker Home

Valentine games were the diversion of the afternoon when the So-Ne-He club met with Mrs. Gene Walker yesterday afternoon. Interesting contests had been planned by the hostesses, the winners of which were Mrs. Blanche Prouty, Mrs. Ellen Ashman, Mrs. Stella Huffman and Mrs. Mary Blake.

A two-course luncheon carrying out the valentine motif was served to 19 members by the hostesses.

Plans for a potluck dinner in the near future were started, but a definite date has not been set.

Mrs. Oneal Hostess To Helomala Club

Spring was the inspiration for the tally cards and bridge table appointments at a meeting of the Helomala club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Oneal. Guests for three tables attended with Mrs. Jack Brandt and Mrs. Art Weigel winning the highest prizes.

Mrs. Alva Crowley was a guest of the afternoon. A two-course luncheon was served late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Art Weigel will entertain the group in two weeks.

Miss Mozelle Hair Coming to City

Any phase of university work or correspondence courses will be explained to La Grander on Friday, Feb. 13, by Miss Mozelle Hair, of the University of Oregon extension division, who will be in this city tomorrow. Union county people who are taking or wish to take correspondence work will have an opportunity to confer with her. She will have a conference room at the public library and will be there from 11 in the morning to one in the afternoon, and from three to five o'clock in the afternoon. At other times during the day she may be seen at the Sacajawea Inn.

Miss Hair is making a tour of Eastern Oregon in the interests of the University of Oregon during the week from February 12 to 20, to help the students with their correspondence courses and in making further plans for their educational programs.

Miss Hair will visit in Baker, Ontario, Nyssa, Huntington and Haines after leaving La Grande and in a number of these towns she will address parent teacher meetings on the subject of adult education, a field in which she has made a particular study during the past few years.

Mrs. Bert Hoover Hostess to Choir

Mrs. Bert Hoover entertained at a social hour for the St. Peter's choir last evening following rehearsal. A short business meeting was held and the benefit dance which is being given by the choir tonight in Honan hall was discussed.

Stories were told following the business session and the hostess served refreshments assisted by Mrs. W. A. Feiser, of Union.

Prof. Johnson Is Speaker at Baker

Prof. A. Grace Johnson, head of home administration department of home economics department at the state college, went to Baker last night where she was the honored guest at a dinner given by the Baker branch of the American Association of University Women. She gave the address of the evening, reporting the International Federation of A. A. U. W.
