

NEWS of the CHURCHES

Ash Wednesday Is First Day of Lenten Season

Season is Determined by Easter and Begins 40 Days Before, Excluding the Sundays.

Ash Wednesday, February 18, begins the Lenten season which lasts until Easter Sunday, April 5. Sunday is Quinquagesima, the Sunday before Lent. From early Hebrew history ashes have been associated with humility and penance. It was the custom in the early western church to sprinkle ashes upon the heads of the penitent on the first day of Lent. It is from this custom that the term, Ash Wednesday, is derived. M. O. Tenneyson, rector of St. Peter's church, states:

The season of Lent is determined by Easter, beginning forty days before, excluding the Sundays which are not fast days, and therefore not days in Lent. Easter Sunday is always the first Sunday after the full moon following March 21. This custom comes from the practice of the Hebrews of keeping the passover, and this moon is called the Paschal Moon.

The Lenten season commemorates our Lord's forty days of temptation. In it, with him, one denies himself, Mr. Tenneyson states, and engages in the practice of self sacrifice and atonement. It is a season of spiritual discipline. The word but literally implies springtime. It really should be a season of spiritual springtime, the springing forth of new life in the spirit nature, Rev. Tenneyson adds.

"Some Lenten Uses," is the inspiration for the second of a series of sermons which will be presented by the rector of St. Peter's church Sunday at 11 o'clock at the church. Appropriate music will be furnished by the choir with Mrs. H. N. Ashby playing the service. Holy Eucharist will be observed at 8 o'clock, followed by church school at 9:45 o'clock.

Ash Wednesday services will include the Litany, the penitential office, and Holy Eucharist at 10 o'clock a. m., at the church at Fourth street and Q avenue.

Baptist Church
Spring avenue and Sixth.
Daniel Rosoff and his father, Professor Albert Rosoff, Christian Jew, will conduct services in the Baptist church during the coming week, beginning Sunday. Daniel Rosoff will tell the story of God's saving grace in his life in the theme, "From Judaism to Christianity," on Sunday evening. B. Marcus Godwin, pastor, states, and his father, who sang with Caruso, Melba and other notable will sing. Daniel Rosoff was a lawyer when converted to Christianity and he and his father have given up their chosen vocations to carry on evangelistic services, Mr. Godwin adds.

Among the other subjects which will be discussed are: The Awakening of the International Wandering Jew; The Signs of the Times Through the Jewish Telescope; Atonement, Blood and the Cross. These meetings are highly recommended, having held meetings in Tacoma, Hinson Memorial Baptist church in Portland, and many other churches in Oregon.

One evening they will demonstrate the observance of the Passover feast as carried out by the orthodox Jews everywhere.

Following the Sunday evening services, conducted by the evangelists, the ordinance of Baptism will be administered.

Daniel Rosoff will speak to the young people at the B. Y. P. U. meeting in the evening. A cordial welcome awaits all who wish to attend church services. Hours are: Sunday school, 9:45; morning preaching service, 11; B. Y. P. U., 6:30; evening preaching service, 7:30.

What puts the fluff in fluffy muffins?

It's the millions of tiny bubbles in the batter released by the cream of tartar in your Baking Powder. Unfortunately, there are cheap substitutes for cream of tartar. They make bubbles too, but not the tiny, fluffy kind. Ask any domestic science teacher, or any dietitian.

The tiny fluffy bubbles made by cream of tartar.

The big and little bubbles made by the substitutes.

Not every baking powder contains cream of tartar, for the substitutes cost a lot less. Look on your baking powder tin. See if you can find the words "cream of tartar" anywhere. It's important!
