

Imbler High To Enter Debating; Forms 2 Teams

By Mrs. Hay Wilson (Observer Correspondent)

IMBLER (Special)—Imbler High is planning on putting two debating teams in competition with other schools in this district. Quite a large number of students are trying out for the teams, which have not yet been selected. The subject for debate this year is the chain store problem. Each school will have one negative and one affirmative team in the field.

Prof. Harry Johnson, of the high school, will give an illustrated lecture in the English room of the school house on Monday evening, Feb. 16 at 8 p. m. The slides, which are furnished by the University of Oregon, are said to be very beautiful scenes taken in various parts of Oregon. The title of the lecture is "Majestic Oregon." There is no admission charge, and the public is invited.

The Legion auxiliary met Monday evening and transacted business. Fifteen members were present.

Don Conklin left Wednesday for the Veterans hospital in Portland, where he will receive treatments for stomach trouble.

There was a city council meeting Tuesday evening. The mayor, Claude Hale, was with them again. Due to his unfortunate accident this is the first time Mr. Hale has been able to meet with them since last June.

Irwin Westenskow has purchased a home from Mrs. T. M. Buckman, the dwelling across the street from Mrs. Buckman's home. Mr. Westenskow plans on starting remodeling operations immediately.

J. A. Eisinger reports that farming operations west of the Blue mountains are almost in full swing. He returned from there the middle of the week.

Maurice Weis, teacher of the 7th and 8th grades, says he has decided not to accept a position as teacher offered him in Hawaii.

TO HONOR LINCOLN
 PORTLAND, Feb. 12 (AP)—Claude E. Ingalls, editor of the Corvallis Gazette-Times, will be the principal speaker tonight at the annual banquet held here to pay tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. The event is sponsored by the Multnomah county Republican central committee.

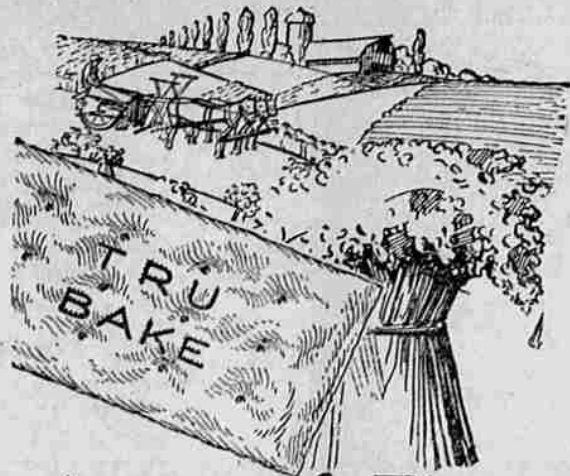

Other speakers include Mrs. Charles Carver Jr., Judge J. P. Kavanaugh, McDannell Brown and Robert Grayson.

DECISION DUE MONDAY
 PORTLAND, Feb. 12 (AP)—A decision will be given Monday on the defense motion for a change of venue to Marion county in the damage case brought by Andrew Snyder against the Willamette Valley Mortgage & Loan company and its officers. The hearing on the motion was continued yesterday.

TILLAMOOK MAN DROWNED
 TILLAMOGOW, Ore., Feb. 12 (AP)—Theodore Gerdes, 39, drowned yesterday when a wave crashed his fishing boat into a wharf here, broke it in two and hurled him into the water. Although examination of the body revealed a head bruise, the injury was not such as to have caused the man to lose consciousness. There was a small amount of water in the lungs.

DAME NELLIE MELBA ILL.
 SYDNEY, N. S. W., Feb. 12 (AP)—Dame Nellie Melba, famous Australian prima donna who has been seriously ill, suffered a slight relapse Wednesday and probably will not be able to leave the hospital for another fortnight. Her health had been improving for the last three weeks when the relapse occurred.
