Tacoma Prints That Vancouver Gets Vets' Home

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 20 (AP)—The News-Tribune Thursday received word from Congressman Albert Johnson, according to his information, Vancouver, Wash., has received the choice as the location for the Pacific Northwest soldiers' home, in the recommendation of General Wood.

Spokane comes second among the recommended sites, while American lake, near Tacoma, where a large veterans' hospital is now located, is mentioned third, Roseburg, Ore., is the fourth point named in the recommendation, according to Johnson.

Congressman Johnson's message was as follows: "Previous rumors with reference to recommendations of General Wood for location of the Northwest soldiers' home are now confirmed. These are to the effect that Wood has recommended in the following order: "Vancouver, Spokane and American Lake in Washington and Roseburg in Oregon."

"A meeting of the hospitalization board will not likely be held for another week on account of General Hines' time being so occupied with bonus problems and other legislative matters. To date it has been impossible to secure unified action by the Washington state delegation on behalf of any one site. It is stated that it will be practically impossible to bring into the picture any sites offered by cities not named in the above recommendations."

soldiers' home issue, were inclined to doubt the accuracy of observations credited to Albert Johnson, congressman from Washington, in which he said General Wood has selected Vancouver, Wash., as the site of the Northwest home.

General Wood said upon his visit here the report probably would give the names of four or five acceptable sites in the various parts of the area to be served, setting forth qualifications to each but expressing no choice of personal preference, leaving way selection to the board of managers.

The News-Review here is informed by a telegram from Washington that General Wood's report was submitted sealed, and its contents are closely guarded.

It is believed it may contain a list of sites in cities named by Congressman Johnson, in the order named, but it is thought here the report is impartial regarding preference.

Roseburg was the last site visited.

Chats With Parents

TOO MANY RULES

By Alice Judson Peale

Irritability, peevishness, disobedience and temper tantrums are frequently caused by nothing more serious than the fact that the child is expected to obey entirely too many rules.

There are so many don'ts that the child feels himself to be frustrated in nearly everything he wants to do. This constant interfering with his natural desire for his own childish kind of activity inevitably breeds in him a spirit of rebellion which shows itself in many of the undesirable ways already mentioned.

Even if it were possible for a child completely to subordinate his own wishes in favor of these adult demands, he would be too confused to do so. He literally cannot remember which things are permitted and which are forbidden, for where there are many rules he can see no sense in any of them.

He cannot tell by using his reason whether he is being naughty or not. Conformity to those rules which are necessary for his health and safety and for harmony in the home, modification of his own wishes.

To force him to make sacrifices and control himself where it is not absolutely essential is a stupid mistake. It is a certain type of child it tends to develop anxiety and timidity born of a chronic worry about wrong doing with its attendant punishment and withdrawal of parental love.

It interferes with an undisturbed absorption in his play which in his early years is one of the chief avenues of mental development.

A certain type of child it tends to develop anxiety and timidity born of a chronic worry about wrong doing with its attendant punishment and withdrawal of parental love.

BUTTER, EGGS STEADY; LAMB MARKET FIRM

PORTLAND, Feb. 20 (AP)—Whole-sale butter and egg markets were steady with quotations unchanged to day. Butter receipts continued lighter than last week and dealers were able to move all fresh supplies readily at full quotations.

Dressed pork market opened 1/2 to 1 cent weaker due to light demand for accumulating supplies. Quote: 11 to 11 1/2 cents a pound; the dressed lamb market with choicest offerings topping steady at 15 cents and mutton up 1 to 2 cents at 7 to 8 cents a pound.

Best quality heavy hams moved readily enough to cause an advance of a cent to 19 cents a pound for most transactions.

Other lines of fresh fruits and vegetables traded in normal volume at steady prices.

Government market news service reported: Occasional offerings of Roseburg cauliflower are now being received at Portland, but Southern Oregon towns are taking nearly the entire production at present. Carlot movement is expected in about one week. Quality is excellent. Early yields are averaging about 200 crates per acre.

SUGAR. PORTLAND, Feb. 20 (AP)—Sugar: steady; (sacked basis) cane, fruit or berry $4.80 per cwt. Beet sugar $4.50 per cwt.

FLOUR. PORTLAND, Feb. 20 (AP)—Flour: steady; (city delivery prices) family patents, 49s $4.60; whole wheat, 49s $4.70; Graham, 49s $4.60; bakers' hard wheat, 96s $5.30; bakers' bluestem patents, 96s $5.30; pastry flour, 96s $4.50.

WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin of tomorrow will say: "The buying movement which started in wool just after the turn of the year appears to have spent itself pretty much during the last week. Prices are generally steady to firm; except on medium wools, which are in favor of the buyer."

"Foreign markets are slightly against the buyer this week, being perhaps par to five per cent up, with more general competition. The piecegoods markets evidently are healthy with demand chiefly favoring the finer wooled goods still."

"In the west, heavy rains have held up shearing and there has been little done in the way of new clip buying. Mohair is slow and hardly more than nominal at 30-35 cents in the original bags, depending on the hair."

The Bulletin will publish the following quotations: Scoured basis: Oregon—Fine and f. m. staple 60-65; fine and f. m. P. combing 60-61; fine and f. m. clothing 51-52; valley No. 1, 53-55. Mohair: Oregon—35-37. Domestic graded: first combing 40-45; good carding 25-30.

Trend of Prices In Local Markets Is Lower Today

The trend of prices in market produce is lower now, local producers state. Potatoes are selling for $1.25 a sack, having dropped from $1.50. Cauliflower which was formerly selling at 18 cents a pound has gone to 15 cents.

Butter, which has been firm for some time, dropped one cent on the market today, with the retail price dropping from 33 cents to 32 cents a pound.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS CONFERENCE TO OPEN ON MONDAY

sponsors is planning for the afternoon so that mothers and others interested in Camp Fire work may meet Miss Bishop and the guardians and assistants of the various groups. Miss Bishop will speak at Cove in the evening.

During the day there will be instructional classes for guardians. Wednesday morning she will open to the Normal school students at 10 and at noon will assist in putting on a Camp Fire program at the Rotary luncheon. A Camp Fire group is to give a short program and Miss Madeline Larson, director of Camp Fire activities in La Grande, will introduce Miss Bishop.

Wednesday evening there will be a dinner given for Miss Bishop. Sponsors, guardians, mothers, are planning to attend. Any one interested in the work is invited.

confession continued. "Then I began hunting for the money, but I found only $3 in the cash register."

"I found a can with some oil in it and poured it over her. I thought she was dead or at least knocked out, but I guess she wasn't," it continued. "Some of the oil ran off her clothes and made a puddle on the floor. I touched a match to her clothing and they blazed up. She began to scream when she felt the fire and I was afraid the neighbors would hear, so I hit her again. She fell out of the chair into the puddle of burning oil."

Simpson was arrested as he stepped from municipal court where he faced robbery charges. He was free on bail under this charge when the murder was committed. Police said they suspected him of other robberies.

The youth was spirited to an outlying police station where under pressure, authorities said he confessed the murder after first denying it.

game at Monmouth last night 34 to 31, will end its conference season against Monmouth tonight. A win tonight would again put all three schools into a triple tie, with the Astor-Monmouth series, to follow later, to settle the final standings.

MONMOUTH, Ore., Feb. 20 (AP)—Oregon Normal school defeated the Eastern Oregon Normal of La Grande 34 to 31 here last night in the first of a two-game series.

The score was tied 28 to 28 up to within the last five minutes, when the Monmouth team stepped out to gain three points.

Posey of the Eastern team was high man of the game with 15 points. Carr and Holt of Monmouth tied with 10 each.

The victory put Oregon Normal temporarily in the lead in the Northwest conference. Another win tonight would put them considerably in front, while a win by the La Grande team would throw the three Normal teams back in a three-way tie.

Tigers To Play Pendleton Five On Bucks' Court

La Grande High school's basketball team is leaving today for Pendleton where the blue and white cagers will meet the Buckaroos tonight. Tomorrow night they will play at Milton-Freewater. Both Umatilla county teams defeated La Grande at La Grande earlier in the season.

Coch Irwin Woodie expects to start about the same team he has used of late. The starting team last week-end was: Shepherd and Conley, forwards; Torrence, center; Osterling and Paul, guards.

PENDLETON READY. PENDLETON, Ore., Feb. 20.—The Pendleton Buckaroos play their last home game tonight, and it will be against the La Grande Tigers. Pendleton has one victory over the invaders but they have strengthened since that engagement and are proving a tough nut to crack.

The locals will have their full length to throw into the melee which is to be played in the high school gym.

Following this clash the Pendleton squad will get in shape for what looks like the toughest game of the season, that against Mac-Hi on the Milton-Freewater maple February 27.

Pendleton took a close decision from McLoughlin here a few weeks ago, but the Tigers on their home court are hard to crowd out of first money. They have a veteran lineup playing its last season together so they will put everything into the clash and hope to take Pendleton in.

CITY EXPECTING TO PASS BOXING ORDINANCE SOON

sion, provides for a $20 license fee. At the meeting last night of the boxing commission, with the city commissioners, the city attorney and the city manager, it was agreed to reduce this license to $15; also in order to give the local promoter protection from outside promoters, it will provide that a promoter must be a resident of La Grande for a six-month period before being eligible to receive a license and conduct bouts.

Although the state law provides that boxing commissions may supervise or conduct matches in municipalities in Oregon, the city commission holds the view that the law may be interpreted to allow a city, in which there is no boxing commission, to govern boxing matches and still stay within the meaning of the state law.

The boxing commission, at the meeting last night, did not take any vote or other formal action approving the new ordinance. It was expressed the belief that when bouts are staged in a municipality in which there is a boxing commission, the city should receive a certain percentage of the proceeds, basing this belief on certain provisions of the state laws governing boxing and wrestling.

Trying to Please All. Members of the city commission, in stating their position on the ordinance, declared that they were making an effort to please all factions, and at the same time, keep the city entirely removed from any financial connection with matches.

According to the ordinance, police will have the sole power to enforce the ordinances of the city during matches. At the meeting last night it was stated that a referee would have the authority to govern the actual wrestling and that policemen would not be permitted to interfere with his decisions unless they were in conflict with some city ordinance.

All of the members of the boxing commission were present except Dr. F. L. Ralston. Other members are A. B. Cherry, city manager, William

The city commissioners were of the opinion that the ordinance is necessary primarily to get the city out of the boxing and wrestling game, although the boxing commission, according to Mr. Farnam and other members, has never actually staged a match in La Grande, always moving its operations to other cities.
