Elks Hold Annual Ball and Banquet Here Last Night

Amid swirls of bright spring flowers and gay streamers, 250 Elks and their ladies danced Monday evening at the most successful annual ball ever held in the history of local Elkdom. A banquet preceded the dancing, beginning at 7:15 o'clock at the La Grande hotel.

Purple and white, the colors sacred to the lodge, were used in decorating the banquet tables. The lights were reflected through the purple and white streamers and cast an unusual light over the banquet table which was decorated with a centerpiece of flowers and end pieces of smaller bouquets. Streamers were spread through the entire center of the table, carrying out the purple and white color scheme. Places were laid for 250.

The program was an interesting feature of the banquet, with J. H. Peare acting as toastmaster, and introducing H. E. Coolidge, P. E. R., who gave a clever toast on the "Order of Elks," and Henry Hess, P. E. R., toasted the "Mothers' Wives and Sweethearts."

Mrs. Floyd S. Sherwood sang "The Danza," by Chadwick, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Lynn Wright; and Florence Lynch Miller, Dick Lindsay, and Erla Clarke furnished a novelty musical number, with Mrs. Miller and Mr. Lindsay playing violin duets "The Desert Song," by Romberg, and "L'-Amour, Toujours, L'Amour," by Friml, accompanied by Miss Clark. Mrs. Miller also sang a vocal refrain with Mr. Lindsay playing the obligato on the violin.

William Dolan, assisted by the La Grande hotel, decorated the banquet hall and table.

Spring was also the inspiration for the decorations at the ball room, with flowers the predominating feature. Flowers were arranged in the lights, and large boxes filled with brightly colored flowers were set in front of the windows. Streamers of purple and white were draped from the chandeliers, making a low ceiling. Lattices placed about the walls intertwined with flowers, gave the appearance of garden walls in spring.

The orchestra was seated on the stage, at the front of which was a picture of George Washington, over which two flags fluttered. The stage was also gayly decked in streamers.

Dancing was enjoyed until 1 o'clock with the Star Novelty orchestra furnishing the music.

Claude Berry and his corps of committeemen, were responsible for the success of the event.

Musicians Will Appear In Concert

Ranking with the best artists in the Northwest, Mrs. Bernice Hixon Stredder, soprano, and Glen Moffatt, pianist, of Nampa, Idaho, have gained prominence in musical circles for their fine presentations of difficult and beautiful numbers. Such a program has been promised by the artists when they appear in La Grande on March 2 under the auspices of the Rainbow Girls. They will appear in the high school auditorium which is suited for musical programs, and Mrs. Stredder and Mr. Moffatt will be aided by the fine accoustics of the auditorium.

Mrs. Stredder, who has a soprano voice, is the pupil of Mrs. Ella Fox, one of the foremost teachers of Chicago, and possibly of America. Mr. Moffatt has studied with Homer Grunn, who is now a prominent musician in Los Angeles; Maurice Rosenfeld, noted Chicago critic; Hans von Schiller, and Lewis Victor Saar. Mr. Moffatt gave a radio piano recital in Chicago and was highly praised by the critics for his art.

Tickets for the concert have been selling well, and the event promises to be one of the leading musicales of the season, according to Mrs. W. W. Nusbaum, mother advisor of the Rainbow girls. The proceeds will be used toward the fund which is being raised to entertain Rainbow girls throughout the state who will come here for the state assembly in June.

Ticket sales are in charge of the advisory board which includes Mrs. O. May Noyes, G. T. Cochran, Mrs. Charles Graham, Edith Ebell, Charles Graham, Katheryn Moran, Mrs. Violet Melville, Mrs. W. W. Melville, George Birnie, Mrs. Glennie Melville and Mrs. Nusbaum.

Byzantine Art Is Subject of Talk

Byzantine art has been the special study of the Art Research club for the past few meetings, and one of the most interesting presentations on the subject was made yesterday by Mrs. Walter Pierce when the club met with Mrs. Fred Kiddle.

The Renaissance in European cathedrals was the subject on which she talked, with special importance given to the cathedrals of St. Sophia in Constantinople, and St. Marks in Venice, which are two of the best examples of the type of art to be found in Southern Europe.

At the next meeting in two weeks at the home of Mrs. H. G. Smith the study of Byzantine art will be continued.

Guardians Meet With Miss Bishop

Twenty-one guardians and others interested in Camp Fire work met last evening at dinner in the La Grande hotel to discuss the work with Miss Doris Bishop, representative of the national Camp Fire Girls council, who is spending the fore part of this week in this vicinity.

Following dinner a conference was held at which time they discussed the crafts which make Camp Fire interesting for young girls, and Miss Bishop advised the guardians concerning their work.

Yesterday Miss Bishop spoke before the high school and the Camp Fire Girls at the Eastern Oregon Normal school on hand craft, what Camp Fire may do for them and the meaning of their symbols and names.

From 1 to 3 o'clock she will hold conferences at the Normal school during the remainder of her visit, and from 5 to 6 she will meet with the guardians at the La Grande hotel.

Savory Giblet Stuffing
3 cups bread crumbs
2 tablespoons finely chipped salt pork
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 tablespoons chopped onions
2 tablespoons chopped celery
Giblets, cooked and cut fine
4 tablespoons giblet stock
4 tablespoons butter, melted
Lightly mix ingredients with fork. Stuff fowl.

Ice Box Rolls
1 cake compressed yeast
½ cup water, lukewarm
1 cup boiling water
½ cup fat
3 eggs
½ cup sugar
1½ teaspoons salt
1 cup cold water
9 cups flour

Break yeast into small pieces, add add lukewarm water, stir until blended. Mix boiling water and fat, when lukewarm add to yeast mixture and add eggs (beaten), sugar, salt, cold water and two cups of flour. Beat 3 minutes. Add rest of ingredients. Mix well. Place in greased bowl. Cover tightly and store in ice box. When rolls are desired break off bits of dough and shape as desired. Spread with little butter and place on greased pan. Let rise in moderately warm place until rolls have doubled in size. Bake 20 minutes in moderate oven.

Cinnamon Rolls
4 inch ball of dough
3 tablespoons soft butter
½ cup dark brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup raisins

Pat or roll out dough until 1-3 inch thick. Spread with butter and sprinkle with rest of ingredients. Roll up tightly. Use sharp knife and cut off slices 2-3 inch thick. Place flat, sides up in greased pan. Let rise until double in bulk, bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Pecans, dates or figs can be used in place of the raisins.

MUSHROOM AND MACARONI
Mushroom and Macaroni Escallop
Baked Sweet Potatoes
Buttered Beets
Graham Gems Peach Conserve
Head lettuce and French Dressing
Gingerbread Supreme Coffee

Mushroom and Macaroni Escallop, Serving 6
2 cups fresh or canned mushrooms
4 tablespoons butter.
6 tablespoons flour.
3 cups milk.
1 teaspoon salt.
¼ teaspoon paprika.
½ cup diced celery, cooked.
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, cooked.
2 cups macaroni, cooked.
½ cup cheese, cut fine.

Melt butter and add flour. When blended add milk and cook until creamy sauce forms. Add rest of ingredients and pour into buttered baking dish. Bake 25 minutes in moderate oven. If canned mushrooms are used they will not need to be cooked before they are added to the creamed mixture. If fresh mushrooms are used, scrub them with stiff brush. If large cut into dice, and if small leave whole. Place in upper part of double boiler and cook 10 minutes, then add to the creamed mixture.

Gives Recipe For Roast Leg of Lamb

In connection with local observance of lamb week, a number of special recipes have been prepared by the Union county auxiliary to the Woolgrowers' association.

Following is a recipe for roast leg of lamb:

Select a leg of lamb of the desired size. Wipe the meat with a damp cloth, sprinkle with salt and pepper and rub well with flour. Lay the roast, skin side down, and cut flesh side up, on a rack in an open pan without water. If the fat covering the meat is very thin, you may lay several pieces of bacon over the top. Sear for about 30 minutes in a hot oven, about 480 degrees Fahrenheit, or if bacon has been added for a shorter time to avoid browning too much. When the roast is nicely browned, reduce the oven temperature to 300 degrees and continue cooking without cover and without water. By this method it is not usually necessary to baste. If these oven temperatures are used it will require from two to two and a half hours to roast a five-pound leg or about 30 minutes to the pound.

TWINS NAMED AFTER GEORGE AND MARTHA

CHICAGO, Feb. 24 (AP) — A boy was born to Mrs. Nicholas Bushman a few minutes before midnight Sunday, George Washington's birthday anniversary.

He was named George Washington Bushman.

A few minutes after midnight the boy's twin sister was born.

She got the name of Martha Washington Bushman.

"That," said one of the nurses on duty today when the facts were learned, "was the only patriotic thing to do. The little girl couldn't help it because she was not born a few minutes earlier."

The twins' father who is out of work had a bit of an argument with their mother about the names but he finally convinced her George and Martha were o. k.

"That's because I love America," he said. "I love this country even when times are bad."

UNION PERSONALS

By Louene Hutchinson
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special)—Red Letter day was observed at the Women's club Thursday afternoon with an unusually interesting program. A large crowd was present and several dollars were added to the scholarship loan fund. The program was arranged by Mrs. Viola Parker who took as her theme the life, poems, and music of Tennyson and Longfellow. The program follows: songs, "Crossing the Bar" and "Too Late" sung by the sextet, Mesdames Orvel Jensen, N. L. Ward, Walter Cock, Sidney Vaden, Louisa Burwell and Mrs. E. P. Coburn; "Life of Tennyson," given by Mrs. Irene Baxter; solo, "The Bridge," Mrs. Edith Phy; interpretative reading of "The Princess" and other well known poems by Mrs. Cecil Griggs; song, "Sweet and Low," sextet; solo, Longfellow's "Ships that Pass in the Night," Miss Helen Hulac; dramatization of Lady Claire with Mrs. Edith Phy as the musician; Mrs. Viola Coburn, Princess Lady Claire; Mrs. Cecil Griggs as the prince, and Mrs. Orvel Jensen, the nurse; "Longfellow's Life," given by Mrs. Walter Cock; poems of Longfellow, read by Mrs. Violet Parker; dramatic reading, "The Children's Hour," Mrs. P. M. Littles, with little Nadine Tucker and Jean Decker taking the parts of two of the children inn the poem. The hostesses for the afternoon served a lovely lunch at the close of the program.

A. L. Doyle, aged father of Mrs. E. Draper, passed away at the Draper home in High Valley Thursday. He had a stroke of paralysis a week ago and relatives were called to his bedside.

The Bridge club was entertained by Dr. and Mrs. George Hoffman Wednesday evening in their home. Honors for the evening were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Fox and the consolation to Mrs. Leonard Knight. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

D. F. French, of Baker, was in Union Thursday and Friday on business.

Mrs. H. C. Ficklin came down Wednesday from Huntington to visit Mrs. Tom Ficklin, who has been very ill for the last three weeks.
