Subpoenas For 23 Bowles Witnesses

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 27 (AP)—Subpoenas for 23 witnesses, including several whose connection with the case is held in secrecy by the district attorney's office, were issued yesterday in preparation for the murder trial of Nelson C. Bowles, capitalist, and Irma Loucks, his former secretary. They go on trial in Hillsboro, March 2, charged with the murder of Bowles' wife.

The state is expected to summon between 50 and 75 witnesses.

In Washington

By Herbert Plummer
WASHINGTON—Familiar to every officer and doughboy of the 26th (Yankee) division in the world war is the name "Stubby."

There's not one of them who won't take time off to tell you of the day "Stubby" in the Toul sector in 1918 stopped a piece of shrapnel.

There's not one who can't tell you of the time "Stubby" aroused a sleeping sergeant just in time to save his life before a gas attack. "Stubby" was a stray dog that drifted into the Yale bowl on that summer day of 1917 when the 102nd infantry of Connecticut was being mobilized. Bob Conroy, now secretary to Representative Penn of that state, saw him and decided that "Stubby" should go to France with the outfit.

SAVED HER LIFE!

Portland, Ore.—"A few years ago Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery saved my life. I caught a severe cold which settled in the bronchial tubes. I had a cough which got so bad that for six weeks I could not lie down. I was 'all in' physically, and began myself to think there was no help for me, when I was advised by one of my doctors to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine so completely relieved me of my trouble that I have never had any return of it."—Mrs. Audrey Savin, 5516 39th Ave., S. E. Druggists. Fluid or tablets.

Write Dr. Pierce's Clinic in Buffalo, N. Y., enclosing wrapper from medicine and receive free medical advice.

SCORCHY SMITH

"BULL CRAVEN AND STEVE ARE BOTH MISSING—TOGETHER, BETTY!—DOESN'T THAT MEAN SOMETHING ASSURING TO YOU?"

YES, IT MIGHT—BUT IN ALL THIS EXCITEMENT WE CAN'T VERIFY THAT THEY ARE TOGETHER!—IF NOT, AND BULL CRAVEN HAS SEEN YOU ON THE GROUND HE KNOWS YOUR PLANE IS CLOSE BY SOMEWHERE—AND HE MAY SEARCH FOR IT—AND FIND IT! THEN WHAT?"

NOW, I'LL SPREAD THE ALARM—AND ALSO SEE THAT THESE PRISONERS ARE QUIZZED—WHILE YOU MAKE SURE! REMEMBER, TOO, SCORCHY, THAT HE HAS AT LEAST TWENTY MINUTES START—AND WATCH OUT FOR AN AMBUSH!

THAT IS GOOD REASONING!—O.K.!—I'LL DETOUR TO THE EAST AND COME AROUND THE LITTLE PLATEAU ON A LINE WITH DEEP CANYON TO THE ROCKET! HOW IS THAT?"

THAT IS PERFECT, SCORCHY—BUT WATCH SHARP!—DON'T GET CARELESS!

SO LONG, MEN! MR. BROWN WILL BE IN FULL CHARGE NOW!

The dog was adopted as a mascot, and later was so honored by the whole division. For 18 months "Stubby" with the Yankee division, saw some of the stiffest fighting of the war and at the close was mustered out a hero in his own right and acclaimed one of the most famous war dogs.

POSTHUMOUS HONORS

One of "Stubby's" greatest admirers is Representative William P. Connery Jr., of Massachusetts, who was a member of the Yankee division. The other day Connery learned that an oil painting of this famous dog had been found. Promptly he introduced a bill in congress calling for an appropriation of $1000 with which to buy it and present it to the Red Cross.

"Stubby" died in Washington in 1926, at the age of 10, but he may be seen any day in the museum at Red Cross headquarters. Taxidermists have preserved his body in a glass case, with "his book"—a diary of writings and photographs of his war record—and all his medals he stands in a life-like posture. Within the plaster cast, in a sealed container, are his ashes.

If congress agrees to buy the oil painting, it, too, will be placed near by.

PROMINENT CLUBMAN

After the war "Stubby" was a prominent figure wherever his buddies gathered. He led all the American Legion parades his legs could carry him to, but in his later years he had to slow down.

He was made a life member of the Red Cross, of the Y. M. C. A. and the American Legion. President Wilson shook his paw on Christmas day of 1918. President Harding received him officially at the White House, as did also President Coolidge.

General Pershing personally pinned a wound stripe on him as the result of that shrapnel incident in the Toul sector. In addition to his wound stripe, he wore three service stripes.

The chamolli coat that now covers him was made by the women at Chateau-Thierry, who embroidered thereon the flags of the allies. This coat carries his score or more decorations.

"Stubby" won himself an iron cross during the war, and that, too, is listed among his decorations.

Five Millions for Road Construction

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27 (AP)—The senate yesterday added $5,000,000 to the second deficiency appropriation bill to carry out the Odell-Cotton bill for the construction of roads in unreserved public domains and Indian reservations.
