SIX TEAMS NAMED FOR UNION PLAY

Seventh Either Richland or Nyssa—Eighty From Harney-Grant Area.

With three teams selected from this sub-district—Wallows, Joseph and La Grande—all but two of the entries to the Union tournament were known here this morning Saturday Baker and Ontario qualified in the South-eastern section and either Richland or Nyssa were to enter as a third team. Union is in a sub-district by itself. The eighth team comes from the Harney-Grant district.

PLANS ARE MADE PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 2 (AP)—John H. Gary, secretary of the Oregon High School Athletic association, is completing his arrangements for the state basketball tournament.

In that game Washington managed to score only two field goals and one free throw. Its score is the lowest in recent years and, perhaps, for the history of the game in Portland.

Through Jefferson defeated both Washington and Lincoln last week and holds its place at the top of the Portland interscholastic league. Benson is pressing it close. Possibility of a play-off between the two schools to decide which one would be Portland's "A" team at the state tournament was seen.

Gary has announced that at "A" and a "B" team will represent district 10 (Portland) in the state tournament, which will be staged by Willamette university at Salem, March 18, 19, 20 and 21. The "B" team will be runner-up in the city. The schedules for the tournament, so far as announced, follows:

Portland "A" vs. District 9—3-30 p. m. District 7 vs. District 1—4-30 p. m. District 6 vs. Portland "B"—7-30 p. m. District 3 vs. District 4—8-30 p. m. March 19

District 8 vs. District 2—10-0 a. m. Salem vs. District 5—4-30 p. m. In each case, district numbers refer to the champions of those districts. Between times, losing teams will meet in consolation contests. Districts follow: No. 1—Harney, Malheur, Baker, Grant, Union and Wallows counties. Deciding tournament at Union March 4-7.

tournament, March 12-14 at Marshfield. No. 5—Lane, Linn, Lincoln and Benton. Deciding tournament not dated. No. 7—Multnomah (outside Portland), Clackamas, Marion and Polk. Deciding tournament at Salem March 12 and 13. No. 8—Tillamook, Washington and Yamhill. Deciding tournament at McMinnville March 13 and 14. No. 9—Clatsop and Columbia. Deciding meet not dated. No. 10—The eight Portland schools.

BAKER M. I. A. WINS TITLE IN UNION STAKE

BAKER, Ore., Mar. 2—Scoring two points to Union's one in two three-minute overtime periods, the Baker M. I. A. basketball team of the L. D. S. church defeated the Union quintet by a score of 23 to 22 Friday night in Union to win the championship of Union stake in the final game of the tournament. The Baker team will be awarded the championship cup at the stake honor day program in La Grande. The La Grande stake ward won the cup in 1929 and 1930, but lost permanent possession of it this year. With the score standing at 21 to 20, Arton, Union forward, converted a foul shot to tie the score in the last few seconds of the game. Neither team made a count in the first overtime period and three more minutes was allowed. Tom Hill made a field goal for Baker and Wild, Union center, scored a foul shot, leaving the count at 23 to 22.

LA GRANDE'S TEAM BEATEN IN TRAPSHOOT

La Grande trapshooters started their competition in the Oregonian telegraphic shoot yesterday at Lone Tree shooting against Corvallis, Monroe and McMinnville. Only fair scores were reported, with C. Anderson, Jim Gerity and John R. Garity each breaking 22 out of 25 birds, for a team total of 66. McMinnville scored a 73. Monroe a 70 and Corvallis a perfect 75.

FIVE UPLAND ACRES YIELD RECORD SEVEN-HALE CROP

SUMMERVILLE, Ga. (AP)—Seven and a half bales of cotton on five acres is a good yield any year, in Georgia. But in 1930 it was considered strikingly unusual when it occurred in the driest part of the state and on an upland farm. Billy Reynolds, Chattahoochee county farmer, reported such a yield to score the highest record of 51 contestants in the Georgia five-acre cotton contest. His county agent, E. M. Drake, of Summerville, is authority for the report. Reynolds says the crop of sweet clover grown on the land the year before was partly responsible for the good yield.

Browns To Pin Hopes On Trio From the Bushes

By Alan Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor) WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Mar. 2 (AP)—The slogan of the St. Louis Browns this year is "Off with the old, on with the new." It includes the baseball, at least half the infield, a portion of the outfield and the general structure of the club. Keen and kindly Bill Killefer, one-time battery-mate of Grover Cleveland Alexander, is still manager, starting his fifth term, but he has launched a radical program of reconstruction, designed to pull the Browns out of the rut.

This program's chief feature is Killefer's attempt to introduce into major league company at least half, and possibly three-fourths of the "pony infield" that performed record-breaking defensive tricks for the Wichita Falls club of the Texas league last year. Trio Up for Big Test Plucked from scattered points, kept under cover and drilled for faster company at the Browns' farm, the trio up for the big test now are Shortstop Jim Levy, rangy Jewish lad obtained from the Quantico marines; First Baseman Irving Burns, Irish boy from New England; Second Baseman Lin Storti, Italian product of West Texas. The fourth member of the quartet that set a flock of double play records in the fast Texas league, including seven in one game, was Walter Fuller, a German, now with Milwaukee. Burns and Levy have performed sensationally in the early workouts. Storti has been drilling well at second but faces keen competition from the veteran Oscar Melillo, representing with the regulars this week. Kress to Play Third With Levy at short, Killefer plans to shift the hard-hitting Ralph Kress to third base. If Burns makes good at first, it will mean the passing of active duty of Lu Blue, for years one of the league's best first sackers. The veterans, however, will be kept so that two complete infields will be available. The club needs more outfield punch. The big gun is the veteran Goose Goslin, who laid aside his golf sticks this week for his bats. Killefer expects the Goose to hit at least 50 home runs, even with the new ball in use. The Browns have not yet received the new ball for testing. Fred Schulte probably will hold down centerfield but he will have to battle Earl McNeely. Perhaps the best looking prospect for right field is Larry Bettencourt, former St. Mary's All-American, center, who batted 320 and hit 49 homers with Wichita Falls last season. Stewart Heads Pitchers Wally Stewart, slim southpaw who won 20 games and lost 12 with a second division outfit last season, is the ace of the pitchers. The veteran Sam Gray, after a hard luck season, reported with the rookies to begin a come-back. George Blasbender, a protracted holdout a year ago, is in the fold. The staff has other seasoned performers in Dick Coffman, Warren Collins, Chad Kinsey and "Lena" Stiles. "Most of the boys are picking us to finish last," smirks Killefer. "You can do the same thing without hurting our feelings. We are making experiments. We have better reserve strength. If the infield shapes up and we get more punch to help Goslin and Kress, the Browns will be on their way up."
