OVER THE VALLEY

Mabel E. Morton, Valley News Editor
Phones: Residence, Main 966; Office, Main 600

ferred a prayer for the sick of the community. The rest of the afternoon was spent in social games and amusements. Thirty members and visitors were present. The hostesses were Mrs. Cassie Orton, Miss Bess Kelley and Mrs. Tom Harris. The Cove aid is fortunate in having among its members today, three who were members when it was organized February 22, 1902, 39 years ago—Mrs. Oscar Lund, who is spending the winter in Arizona, Mrs. Arminia Sills and Mrs. Alice Duffy, the latter having been ill and not able to attend the meeting. This handful of women began creating a fund, the money to be used for operating expenses and with the ultimate end in view of building a church. They tackled comforters, pieced and quilted, "pickers" and "carded" wool, held socials, gave dinners and anything that would raise some money. Their present church building was completed in 1903. There has since been a very substantial addition, to which the aid has contributed very generously. Mrs. Snedeker, one of the aged and very faithful members who is moving to Union, Mrs. Duffy and Mrs. Sills were made honorary members of the organization.

Called By Father's Illness—Mrs. Ida Hawley arrived in La Grande yesterday afternoon from her home at Sumpter and Mrs. Rachel Bidwell from North Powder called by the critical illness of their father, S. A. Brooks. The other two daughters, Mrs. Hugh Burton of Brooks Lane and Mrs. Mike Hayes of Pleasant Grove had come previously.

Begin Lambing—Lambing started this week on Cap Tuttle's ranch in the Willow Creek district. Mr. Tuttle has about 1000 sheep in his bands and the play has Maxville where she remained over night.

Mr. and Mrs. Erna Wortman, of Powwaka, visited Sunday with Erna's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wortman, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carper and Mrs. James Prince, of Maxville, visited Sunday at John Carper's.

Edgar Barton returned Friday from Seneca where he had been cutting logs. He said the camps had closed down. He drove his car down from Maxville Saturday and had considerable trouble but finally got through. The presentation of the play "Between the Acts" at the Grange hall Saturday night brought out a large crowd which enjoyed the play immensely. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Taylor, "Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Comfort," Harvey McDonald and Alice Smith as "Mr. and Mrs. Meander," Dickie's uncle and aunt, Charlie Moore as "Mr. Merrigale," Dickie's friend, "Dorothy," "Harris the butler" and Lillian Carper, "Mrs. Meander's French maid" all played their parts well and have demonstrated to the public here that there is talent in this valley hard to find.

After the play the floor was given over to the younger people who played a few games after which refreshments were served, and then dancing was enjoyed between the acts. Music was furnished by George Brooks, banjo; Wilfred Lyons, guitar; Clarence Lyons, violin, and Willa Burnett, harp.

Jack Bethel Jr., a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Snuffer, is staying with Mrs. Harvey Bursell and attending school. Mrs. Bursell teaches her two children at home as they live too far from school.

A son was born Sunday Feb. 22 to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kenworthy at the Hot Lake sanatorium. Both mother and son are reported to be doing very nicely.

Move to Idaho—Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Osborne and family have moved from the valley to a ranch near Lewiston, Idaho where they plan to make their future home.

To Give Dance—Members of the Pythian Sisters organization of Imbrie are planning for a dance which they will sponsor at Wade Hall on Friday evening of this week.

Swimming Party—Punny how the first Sunday in March does roll around. Mrs. Minette Sentner of the Cove swimming pool in La Grande yesterday and said that this Sunday was the day she always opens the "fountain of youth" for a free swim. If it is a warm day, the pool will in all probability be full. Swimming parties are not uncommon, however, as there have been many at the Cove pool during the last weeks.

It Better—Mrs. Burt Oliver of Dry Creek who has been quite ill at her home is improving now—good news to her many friends.
