VEAL PRICES DOWN; SPINACH HIGHER TODAY

PORTLAND, Mar. 13 (AP) — Large supplies and slow demand for dressed veal effected a 1/2 cent decline to 13 cents in bids to producers for top quality at opening of wholesale produce markets today. Several kinds of fresh fruits and vegetables opened higher or lower. Poultry prices were steady.

Butter and egg quotations were unchanged. Trade demand for both lagged behind offerings and transactions, in numerous cases, were at prices shaded from 1/2-1 cent.

In the fresh fruit and vegetable market a new car of Arizona lettuce moved into trade at $4.00 a crate, about 25 cents higher than recent quotations. Sweet potatoes held their 1/2 cent advance of Thursday to a 5 cent basis per pound. Government market news service reported:

Roseburg cauliflower is now available in limited volume, with Portland sales to retailers a dime cheaper, at $1.25 per crate of No. 1 flower; 2-3 cars are being loaded daily, with 2-3 carlot equivalents moving by motor-truck. No. 1 stock is selling at about 95c @ $1.05 per crate, f. o. b. cash track at Roseburg.

Good local spinach is in light supply, and prices advanced today to as high as $1.15 per 20-lb. box. These high prices are expected to attract heavier shipments of Walla Walla spinach.

Hood River asparagus growth is being held back by cool weather; and it is now improbable that any Oregon "grass" will be available this month, as was anticipated a short time ago.

WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, Mar. 13 (AP) — The Commercial Bulletin will say of the wool market tomorrow:

With fair activity, the market is steadier and prices, under the influence of the London colonial sales while not quotably dearer, are firm and if anything inclined against the buyer. Demand has favored mostly halfblood and fine wools this week.

London opened with prices fully 15 to 20 per cent above the closing rates of the last series both for merinos and crossbreds and sometimes up 25 per cent on low crossbreds. This is merely to bring London to parity with the advance which has been steadily taking place in the world's markets since the last London sales six weeks ago. Foreign primary markets are rather against the buyer.

The piecegoods market is moderately active and the tone of the market is more cheerful.

In the west, there is little being done as yet outside of the placing of winter loans. Cooperatives appear to be advancing the equivalent of the Boston market price level in Arizona on early wools. Dealers are securing a little wool also at full prices.

Mohair is slow here, although some 3 1/2 million pounds of the spring clip has been purchased in Texas in the last ten days at 23 to 25 cents by Boston dealers and eastern mills. Probably half of the purchases have gone to mill accounts.

The Bulletin will publish the following quotations:

Scoured basis: Oregon—Fine and f.
