

CUBS LOSE TRIO TO FRISCO SEALS

Chicago Team Headed Homeward Today; Beavers Wallop Seattle, 15-8

By the Associated Press

The Chicago Cubs were headed homeward today by way of Los Angeles, but the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast league basked in the knowledge they had battered three victories in as many games with them, the last one yesterday morning by a score of 5 to 3.

Sam Gibson, Seal right hander, held the Cubs scoreless for seven innings. He faltered only in the ninth to walk two men and the Nationals scored two runs. Batteries were Gibson and Baldwin, Pensky for the Seals; Smith, Warneke and Grace for the Cubs.

The Nationals bounced back in the afternoon, however, to take the San Francisco Missions of the Pacific Coast league 12 to 3. A five-run Cub rally in the first inning started the Missions' defeat. Batteries were Bush and Hartnett for the Cubs; Biggs, Cole, Holling and Brenzel for the Missions.

Cubs Lose to Seals

In nine exhibition contests the Cubs lost three to the Seals, won four from the Pittsburgh Pirates, won one from the Missions and dropped one to Oakland. They play the Pirates in Los Angeles today.

Preparing for the Cubs today, the Pirates trounced the Detroit Americans 4 to 3 in Los Angeles yesterday effective pitching by Ervin Brame and a timely homer by George Grantham did it. Batteries were Brame, Willoughby and Hensley for the Pirates; Sorrell, Herring and Hayward for Detroit.

The Cub second stringers fared better than their big brothers and defeated Oakland of the Pacific Coast league 5 to 0 at Fresno behind the pitching of Sheriff Fred Blake who held the Oaks to four hits. Batteries were Blake and Z. Taylor for Chicago; Deglia, Ortmann, and Head, Chico for Oakland.

Beavers Wallop Seattle

The Portland Beavers smothered their Coast league rivals, the Seattle Indians, 15 to 8 at San Jose in a game featured by 28 hits. The ball was batted for six home runs, four triples and eight doubles with singles completing the total. Batteries were Bowman, Soltzsen and Wood.

Joe McCarthy, new manager of the New York Yanks pictured looking over his troops in spring training at St. Petersburg, Fla., sees a lot of potential runs in the hard drives of the club's sluggers. And the boys hitting 'em hardest are, of course, the "home run twins," Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig.

for Portland; McQuill, Zahniser, Freitas and Cox for Seattle.

Sacramento of the Coast league fell before the Detroit reserves 8 to 4 in a game played on the Sac's home field. The reserves broke camp after the game and left for Los Angeles to join the regulars.

The Stockton state leaguers blanked the Seattle Indian reserves and rookies 14 to 6 at Woodland, Cal., to round out yesterday's exhibition contests.

Bobby Jones Is Still Up On His Game Of Golf

By Paul Zimmerman (Associated Press Sports Writer)

AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico, March 30 (AP)—For those who have been a bit dubious about Bobby Jones' still up on his golf game, despite a busy season of picture making in Hollywood, to which he returned today.

Teamed with Leo Diegel, local pro and twice professional golf champion of the United States and by far the leading golfer of Mexico, Jones went to defeat at the hands of George Von Elm and Mortie Dutra yesterday, one down, over the tricky Agus Caliente 225,000 championship course, to assist charity in Mexico and the United States by approximately $5000.

Dutra Wins Honors

Some 2500 persons, by far the largest crowd ever attracted to a golf match here witnessed, the contest, which saw the tall dark California Spaniard, Dutra, Long Beach, Cal., professional walk off with individual honors. From the start the match developed into a duel between Mortie and Jones, although Von Elm, like Bobby, a former amateur expert, stepped in with a birdie on the fifteenth hole to assure a victory for his team.

Jones and Diegel never were in front. Dutra started matters by winning the first hole with a birdie. Jones, who was playing the course for the second time, had experienced difficulty on the first two holes, previously. He promised Diegel that he would conquer them on the second trip around and did so for after taking part on the first, he squared the match with a birdie 3 on the second, by sinking a 12-foot putt.

Mortie came right back on the third with another birdie, a two this time, by virtue of a curving 30-foot putt which trickled into the cup. The others took par 3s. Jones followed this up with the best ball on the fifth with a birdie three made possible because Calamity Jane, swinging at her best dropped a 22 footer.

Even fish go in schools with a purpose.

Illinois farmers are to conduct a campaign to make the public "milk conscious." Isn't that what the milk man does when he rouses us in the morning?

They turned home all square. Jones and Dutra took 35s while Diegel and Von Elm were out in 30, four over par.

They fought to the fifteenth on an even basis, Jones and Dutra still carrying the burden. Von Elm's putts, all sensational, died on the lip of the cup in four successive tries on the home stretch, while Diegel, talking to himself by this time, declared he would give up golf and apply for a place in the old man's home. "It's my iron," quoth Leo. "My best shot in my bag, these irons, and I've been experimenting and lost my touch. I swear I'm through."

"Until tomorrow," someone added, Leo grinned.

On the short fifteenth Von Elm stepped up and drove the ball to within two feet of the pin. Dutra was only a short distance away while both Jones and Diegel, fooled by the strong cross-wind, were in a trap to the right. Diegel had a bad out but Bobby made a valiant try and almost holed out on his explosion shot for a half. The ball dribbled past the cup just a few inches—but enough to lose the match.

Sub-par Pace

Dutra set a sub-par pace for the 18 holes, setting a 35 on the hazardous home nine for a 70, one under par. Jones had a 57 on the last nine, for a total one over par, while Von Elm took a 39, giving him 77 for the 18 holes.

Many of Hollywood's movie stars came out to see their newly initiated actor, Bobby, in his first public appearance on the coast since he gave up amateur golf.

The gallery included Harold Lloyd, who was referee of the match; George Bancroft, Jack Mulhall and many others.

FLORIDA WHISKEY CLOTTER

SHAVES 'EM FOR EXPENSES

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Johnny Minardi, lightweight boxing champion of the Southern conference, is shipping his way through school. He is the most popular barber at the little shop on the campus always has a line of waiting customers.

Minardi has not been defeated this year in boxing, and offered a psychological advantage to the rest of the team as he was always the first Gator battler to enter the ring.

The diminutive pugilist is a product of Tampa amateur rings.

TRIO OF HURLERS CARRY FLAG HOPES OF PELICANS

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The pitching staff is the best looking spot for the Pelicans of Florida, and the Southern association this year.

In Whitney Glasper, Fred Johnson and Sal Gilsto, three twirlers who won 45 games among them last year. Manager Larry Gilbert has a staff upon which he pins his hopes. Thornton "Lefty" Lee, southpaw now working out with Cleveland, also may be back.

The outfield is completely new. Frank Luce and Jack Ware, utility men last year, are expected to be fixtures there this year.

McCarthy Finds Reports Libel Club's Hurling

By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor)

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—It took Joe McCarthy four years to build up a pennant winner with the Chicago Cubs.

He hopes to produce similar results with the New York Yankees, with the assistance of some super-ball players, a few "breaks" and the ever-handy Ruppert check-book.

"This year," repeated Marce Joe, in answer to a question concerning the Yankees' chances of landing someone around the top, "it's just a gamble. We are doing some figuring and juggling, seeking the right combination.

"If we find it, if we get the pitching I expect our veterans hold their own through the season, we will be heard from."

"We can count on scoring a lot of runs without any guesswork. Hitters Ruth, Gehrig, Lazzeri, Combs, Lary and Dickey are bound to produce."

"I don't think our pitching is as doubtful a quantity as some of you boys do. We have two great right-handers in George Piggas and Charley Ruffing. Piggas won't be in first class shape for a while, due to the removal of his appendix, but he will be ready very early in the season."

Herb Pennock's arm looks fine again. Ed Wells gives another consistently good southpaw, and I expect Vernon Gomez to come through this time.

Bob Rhodes, Henry Johnson and Gordon Rhodes all figure to help us, but even if only one or two meet expectations we will be well fortified."

With the assistance of two able coaches, Arthur Fletcher and Jimmy Burke, McCarthy has the Yankees showing more spirit and pep in training than they did a year ago. Marce Joe is a good disciplinarian, but not being a driver, he seems like a manager. He has a lot of guts, but they have been in since the death of Miller Huggins.

"I've got to learn a lot about the players in this league, but the game is just the same," remarked McCarthy, when mention was made of his return from the National league to the American. "Besides, we've got a lot of smart ball players on this club."

Men like Pennock, Lazzeri, Gehrig, Combs and Ruth don't need a manager to tell them how to play."

McCarthy's smartest move since shifting to the Yankees was the signing of Joe Sewell, veteran infielder from Cleveland. Alabama Joe probably will play third base regularly and solve the club's infield worries.

This will make Tony Lazzeri a fixture in the outfield. Bobby D'Arby, a reservist, Lyn Lary is McCarthy's choice for shortstop, and Gehrig, of course, mans the initial sack.

FUNERAL FOR BERNARD WILL BE TOMORROW

CLEVELAND, March 30 (AP)—The body of Ernest S. Bernard, president of the American league, lay in state today while final respects were paid by scores of baseball magnates and friends.

The body was brought here last night from Rochester, Minn., where Bernard died suddenly Friday.

Funeral services will be held at the Masonic hall at 2 p. m. tomorrow in charge of the Knights Templar. With the exception of Charles Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox who is ill, all American league presidents will act as pall bearers.

After the funeral of Bernard, scores of baseball leaders will go to Spencer, Ind., where last rites will be held Wednesday for Ban Johnson, predecessor of Bernard as league president.

Wiffy Cox Victor In Open Tourney

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—Wiffy Cox, Brooklyn, won the north and south open golf championship here Saturday, defeating Joe P. Hammond, N. Y., by one stroke in a nine-hole play-off after they had tied for first honors in the regular 72-hole grind with 288s. Cox's score was 85, one under par for the 18 holes.

The two professionals decided to split the first and second prize money with $1250 going to each, but the players at second determined to decide who should wear the championship crown for the coming year.

Rain started soon after the play-off began.

WIRE MESH BOTTOM HELPS VENTILATE POULTRY NEST

DAVIS, Cal. (AP)—Mesh hardware clothing is being used in favor of bottom in poultry nests according to J. D. Long of the University of California farm here. The new bottom is used without straw.

Long says the new-type nest has better air circulation, an important factor during the summer, and is easier to clean. "A new idea in nests," Long says, "makes use of a wire-mesh bottom placed at a slight slope, so the newly-laid egg rolls forward under the nest, and the approach, which is hinged to permit collection."

"This nest has the advantage of preventing soiled or broken eggs as several nests use the nest in succession. Incidentally, the nest is better ventilated."

MANY STATES PLAN TESTS OF NEW POTATO VARIETY

RHINELANDER, Wis. (AP)—A new potato, produced by Sidney Schmidt, Oneida county farmer, after 10 years experimentation, because of its heavy yielding qualities has attracted national attention.

He called it the "Longhope," and last year on his farm produced 600 bushels on two and one-half acres. This year he will plant 15 acres.

The United States department of agriculture will test the "Longhope" seed at the federal experimental station in Arislock county, Maine. Farm departments of several states also will test the seed.

MARY GERMASS SURRENDER

BERLIN (AP)—A League of Nations report shows Germany's suicide rate is two and a half times higher than elsewhere in Europe. The continent has 30,000 suicides a year with 16,000 an average of 44 a day, in this country.

THEFT OF NINE PENCE COSTLY IN BRITISH ARMY

WOOLWICH, England (AP)—For converting nine pence, or 18 cents to his own use, Sergeant Arthur Smith of the Royal Artillery has been reduced to the ranks, sentenced to 28 days hard labor and discharged "with ignominy" from the army.

He was convicted by a court martial of having taken the nine pence, given him to pay postage on a parcel, and affixing two postally cancelled stamps on the package.

LAST OF INHABITANTS TO QUIT LONELY ISLE

PWLLHELL, Wales (AP)—The little island of Bardsey, at the tip of the South Carmarvonshire coast, is soon to be evacuated.

Life on the island is dull and the inhabitants have tired of their solitary existence. And the young people wouldn't remain on the island, they wanted to "see life."

The four farmers probably will move to the mainland. The pastor and his wife will leave in April.

PARIS DOGS HAPPY

PARIS (AP)—The French capital is such a pleasant place for dogs that few of them go mad. The sanitary inspector reports that of 230,074 dogs in the city, only five showed signs of rabies.

Stanford Whips Washington Team In Cinder Meet

SEATTLE, Wash., March 30 (AP)—

A note of warning to eastern track and field teams was sounded here Saturday night by the Stanford Indians when the southerners swamped a well balanced University of Washington combination 67 to 44 in an indoor meet.

Coach "Dink" Templeton of Stanford, plans to take his fastest and strongest athletes to the I. C. A. 4-A meet this year and after they captured 12 out of 15 first places and broke five or six new Washington pavilion records in the Husky-Cardinal dual it looked as though he would have to send them all.

Records Bettered

Hee Dyer, Templeton's great dash star, clipped two-tenths of a second off the 75-yard mark by winning in 7.6 seconds; Ben Eastman wrote a new figure in the 440-yard dash when he broke the tape in 49.4 seconds, five-tenths of a second better than the old mark; Absold won the two mile in 9 minutes 55.4 seconds to crash the record of 10 minutes 8 seconds; Bob Jones threw the discus 158 feet 1 inch, bettering Paul Jessup's last year toss by two feet one inch, and the Indian relay team shaved three seconds off the mile run, turning in three minutes 25 seconds.

Jones is only a sophomore and may become a sensation in the discus even before he is graduated.

Genius Wins

Eddie Gemming's national half mile champion, gave the Huskies their only record when he won the 800-yard run in 1 minute 59.3 seconds, clipping seven-tenths off the figure he established last year. The only other two events won by Washington were the javelin and high jumps.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Observers in the training camp of the Browns at West Palm Beach like the looks of young Marvin Ferrell. He's a younger brother of Wes of the Indians and Rick of the Browns. . . The Browns can't sign any minor league ball. . . If they any longer have to play, they can easily get around the rule by signing him for their Wichita Falls farm and then buying him from there the very next day. . . Talent is plentiful in the Three-Eye league this season, since the collapse of the Central and Sally loops. . . Three cream of the applicants. . . that particular Class B circuit is expected to exhibit Class A strength this year.

SCHMELING IN K. C.

KANSAS CITY, March 30 (AP)—Max Schmeling, who says the name should be pronounced "Smayling," arrived here last night on his way from Erie, Pa., to Excelsior Springs, Mo. The German heavyweight titleholder said he would rest at the Missouri health resort until April 6 in preparation for his proposed fight with W. L. "Young" Stribling.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor)

The St. Louis Cardinals, whether or not they repeat in the National league pennant race this year, have with the almost sensational success of their chain-store system for the development of baseball talent.

The assortment of players in the Cardinal camp at Bradenton is one of the best of the "Grapefruit Circuit." Correspondents are astounded, rival managers and scouts awe-stricken by the quantity and quality of material selected for examination by the parent member of this elaborate system.

The wonder is that the Cards ever fall to be at least 1-2 in the pennant race, with such talent to build from, and the answer is that they have won three pennants in five years and otherwise been distinct threats ever since this system has been in effective operation.

In one of the three games that the world's champion Athletics lost to the Cards in the spring world's series, Manager Gabby Street worked three young pitchers. No one seemed quite sure about their names. They were not in the Cardinal roster. They were just there, it developed, for a little inspection before being sent to Danville, Ill. St. Joseph, Mo., and Greensboro, N. C., but they were good enough to blank the world's champions in eight out of nine innings.

NO. 126 CAME HIGH

Bill Rourke, scout for the Cincinnati Reds, told of an impressive visit he once paid to the training school, operated by the Cardinals in connection with the Danville camp. He found something like 150 brilliant youngsters learning the baseball A B C's. They were numbered, to simplify identification.

Rourke was impressed by the work of a lad whose number was 126 or thereabouts. He made inquiries, but was told the price would be quite high, in fact too high for the Reds to consider. The lad was Jimmy Collins, a sensation as first baseman with the Rochester Internationals last year and now under study to Jim Bottomley with the Cards.

"I had the satisfaction at least of knowing I had picked out a ball player," Rourke remarked.

PROMOTION AND EVERYTHING

Much of the success of the Cardinal system lies in the fact a young ball player can be placed where he will have best chance to develop. There are cubs available in every classification for training purposes. They can be "promoted" during the course of a season, if their performances merit such speedy development, as in the case of the young pitcher, "Dizzy" Dean.

All this efficiency on the part of the St. Louis organization has failed to meet the approval of baseball's high commissioner, K. M. Landis, but the answer seems to rest in that old familiar phrase: "This is treason, make the most of it."

Stomach Troubles Headache and Dizziness

If your stomach is sick, you are sick all over. If you can't digest your food, you lose strength, get nervous and feel as tired when you get up as when you went to bed.

PORTLAND MAY BID FOR A. L. WORLD SERIES

PORTLAND, Ore., March 30 (AP)—If "sufficient interest and attendance" can be assured, Portland has a chance of getting the "summer world series" this year, Russell Cook, national director of American Legion baseball, told an interviewer here last night.

The east-west play-off has never been held west of the Rockies but Cook said it might be staged somewhere on the coast this season.

Cook announced the dates for the Pacific Northwest tournament as August 13 and 14.

The eastern contender in the national finals will be decided in a tournament at Manchester, N. H., August 20, 21 and 22; the western at Colorado Springs, August 27, 28 and 29.

Cook announced the dates for the Pacific Northwest tournament as August 13 and 14. He is now on a tour of inspection to decide the site for the Northwest meet. Corvallis, Ore.; Walla Walla, Wash.; Lewiston, Ida.; and Billings, Mont. are seeking the tournament. He has already visited the first three and was on his way to Billings today.
