

LEAGUE SEASON TO OPEN APRIL 7

Coast Baseball Teams Headed Down Home Stretch of Games.

By the Associated Press.
Pacific Coast baseball teams were headed down the home stretch of exhibition games today with the finish line, April 7, the opening of the Coast league, looming in sight.
The Missions, Seals and Coks will play Detroit of the American league and Pittsburgh of the National league in San Francisco this week and their decks will be cleared for the start of the Coast league.
Today Detroit plays the Missions. Tomorrow they tackle the Seals. The Pirates begin a five-game series Thursday, starting with the Missions. They play the Seals Friday afternoon and Sunday morning. The Pirates wind up their stay by playing the Seals Sunday afternoon.
Hornsbys Picks Seals
The Seals, who took a trio of games from the Chicago Cubs of the National league, have been picked by Rogers Hornsby, Cub manager, as potential coast champions this season. The San Francisco club and its manager Nick Williams, however, are making no predictions about gathering in the Coast pennant.
"A lot can happen during the season," is their consensus.
The Cubs yesterday drubbed the Pirates 18 to 8 in an exhibition contest at Los Angeles. There were 34 hits made in the game. Chicago got 22. Batteries were Matty Wernicke and Hartnett, Grace for Chicago; Meine, Bednar, Grant and Hemaley for the Pirates. They continue a three-game series today.
Lynn Nelson and Leroy Herman, right handed hurlers, and William Campbell, catcher, were released by the Cubs to Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast league yesterday. The players were transferred under optional agreements. The transfer completes the transaction whereby Pitcher Ed Baecht was sent from Los Angeles to the Cubs.
Dick Bonally, right handed who pitched for Hollywood and Sacramento two years ago, was signed yesterday by Seattle of the Coast league. He joined Portland earlier in the training season but was released.

Baker Sportsmen Want Association

BAKER, Ore., Mar. 31 (AP)—The executive committee of the Baker County Rod and Gun club announced yesterday it is sponsoring a proposal to create a state sportsmen's association to be formed of representatives from 36 clubs in the state.
Such an organization, it was said, would eliminate conflicting recommendations such as were made to the legislature last fall relative to a revision of the state game code.
The association would meet annually to cooperate with state, federal and private fish and game organizations.
The reaction from various clubs will be sought, the Baker group said, in suggesting an organization meeting to be held in The Dalles May 15 and 16, subject to the approval of the other organizations.

Reno Mayor Defends Wide Open Policy

RENO, Nev., Mar. 31 (AP)—Defending Nevada's liberal laws on divorce and gambling, and declaring that prohibition is an unenforceable law, Mayor E. B. Roberts of Reno spoke at the Reno Methodist church here to an audience that filled the church to the doors.
The mayor's speech opened what promises to be a vigorous election campaign in which three candidates are seeking the office held by Roberts for eight years. He is a candidate for reelection.
Asserting that gambling is bad business anyway it is looked at, but far more desirable when conducted in the open than undercover, the mayor declared intimations that Reno city officials had grafted off the gamblers in the past are untrue.

Need Better Ways To Test Knowledge

CHICAGO, Mar. 31 (AP)—Representatives of nine large universities have come to the conclusion that better methods for testing the knowledge of pupils should be found.
George A. Works, dean of students and university examiner at the University of Chicago, said the delegates from the nine schools had agreed that the type of examination generally given was little more than a memory test, and recommended that the scope be extended so the instructor will be able to judge the pupil's ability to do creative work.
In addition to the University of Chicago representatives from Yale, Michigan, Ohio State, Minnesota, Columbia, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Buffalo universities attended.

SILVER AND GOLD BLAMED

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 31 (AP)—Money of silver—no longer a very precious metal—in the far east, and an insufficient quantity of gold money among American farmers, were alike blamed today by Fred W. Sargent, president of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, for retarding business recovery.
Mr. Sargent saw a hopeful sign in the fact that call money recently reached the lowest point in history.

Stanley Poreda Beats Risko In New York Ring

NEW YORK, March 31 (AP)—A colorful new figure had crowded into the ranks of the heavyweight parade today—Stanley Poreda, a straight-shooting youngster from Jersey City. Meeting his first major opponent after a long string of victories over lesser lights of the division, the big, black-haired Pole established himself as a comer last night by pouncing out a clean-cut win over old Johnny Risko, the Cleveland rubber man in Madison Square Garden. Risko rallied in the closing rounds but could not overcome the long lead piled up by his young opponent in the early stages.
The excitement attending Poreda's surprising victory was too much for one of the 8200 spectators. Rudy Hase, 50, who attended the bout as Poreda's guest, died a few minutes after the verdict was announced, supposedly of heart failure.
Although the Associated Press score sheet credited Poreda with six rounds and Risko with only two, the decision as the three officials was not unanimous. The two judges named Poreda, but Referee Kid McPartland picked the veteran Risko.
After stopping Risko's initial rush with a hard right to the chin that set the Clevelander back on his heels, Poreda continued to swarm over the baker boy for the first five rounds. He jarred the veteran repeatedly with a long left and crossed wicked rights to the head and body. Risko had much difficulty connecting with a looping right, his principal weapon.
No Knockdowns
When the youngster showed up in the sixth, Johnny charged him all over the ring, taking plenty of punches but landing a few on his own hook. The result was that he earned a draw in the sixth and tenth and had an edge in the seventh and ninth. There were no knockdowns.
Risko entered the ring at 198½ pounds; Risko 194.

Vancouver Lions Take Final Game Of Hockey Series

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 31 (AP)—Defeating the Seattle Eskimos 1-0 in ten minutes of overtime here last night, the Vancouver Lions won the Pacific Coast hockey league championship for the third consecutive year. The game was the fourth of a best three out of five series, Vancouver winning two and Seattle one of the three previous tilts. About 8500 fans, the largest crowd of the season, witnessed the match.
Play was fast with both teams trying hard to score but the goalies were on the alert and shot after shot that appeared certain scores were turned aside. The deciding goal came about midway in the first 15 minute overtime period. Pettinger, Vancouver forward, grabbed the puck near his own goal and took it down the ice. Evading the Seattle defense he made a hard shot at Kemp. The puck bounded off into the right hand corner where Redpath, Lion defense man, grabbed it, circled the net and let go a fast shot, shoulder high. The Seattle goalie barely touched it when it slid past him into the corner of the net.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
No golfer's pilgrimages are complete, it seems, until he has seen and played Eastlake, the links of the Atlanta Athletic club and the home course of Bobby Jones.
Bobby, unfortunately, was not about the premises when the correspondent first viewed the hazards of this famous layout, its summer greens carpeted with a felt-like substance, but its terrifying vistas of water and rolling terrain otherwise exposed to full view.
In fact, the handicap card (if any) of Jones was not to be found in the rack outside the locker room, thereby depriving the visitor of a much-anticipated curiosity. I have often wondered what a handicap card for Bob would look like. There has been one, of course, but nobody has thought well enough of the last one to frame it for posterity to gaze upon in some awe and wonder.
The incident, although it has nothing to do with this story, reminded me of a visit to Champaign, Ill., with the Army eleven a few years ago, where I supposed the celebrated "77" jersey of Red Grange would be in a glass case, at least of prominent display for the benefit of all tourists.
Not only was this dramatic article of apparel not to be found but no one seemed to care where it might be, the best guess being that it was in a pile of old junk.
YOU OUGHTA SEEN BOBBY
They are not lacking, however, at the Atlanta Athletic club in appreciation of the achievements of its great golfing member.
The caddies, without the slightest diplomacy, gladly will furnish a newcomer with details of a shot Mr. Jones pulled off to carry a number of hazards after the awkward newcomer has taken a number of shots for each of these same hazards.
At the sixth or "island hole," it was gratifying to learn, after placing my tee shot well on this green, that by a great stroke of fortune, that he was twice in the water the last time he played the course. There are such fluffs occasionally even in the superlatives.
At the town house of the A. A. C. are on display the four British and American championship trophies lifted in the last and all-conquering Jones campaign, together with the huge Walker Cup, and a special plaque, holding a ball used by Bob
