HEROES ARE MADE - NOT BORN

The News Used To Be:

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO (From Observer, Tues. April 3, 1906)
Engines 191 and 192 of the O. R. and N. are the first on the Harriman Northwest line to burn oil on a regular run. The two are in active service between Portland and Umatilla.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Murray a daughter on April 2, 1931. Mrs. Murray, nee Helen, nee, has arrived in the city and has assumed charge of the butter making department of the Blue Mountain Creamery company.

Scott, Z. Henderson, Republican candidate for district attorney, returned last night from North Powder.

TEN YEARS AGO (From Observer, Sat. April 2, 1921)
The second day of the Tree Fund Festival proved even larger and better than the first day and from the early evening hours until late in the evening, Eagles hall was crowded to capacity.

Adjutant General Geo. White reports 885 Oregon men wounded during the world war. The following were from this county: Manuel V. Aires, Nye; Henry B. Bellmer, Stanley C. Bradshaw, La Grande; John Brant Jr., North Powder; Hugh E. Blison, Frank B. Hamlin, La Grande; James H. Houck, Cove; Hugh C. Hulse, Albert L. Lamm, La Grande; Orion K. Mudge, Union; Claude J. Pomeroy, La Grande; Earl R. Sanders, North Powder; Carl H. Smith, Cove; Walter L. Stringham, Loyal L. Yeach, Lester A. Wilson, Frank J. Young, La Grande.

P. L. Ballard, county agent leader, returned to his office here this morning.

The offices of the state highway department in La Grande were moved to the La Grande National Bank building Monday.

ONE YEAR AGO (From Observer, Wed., April 2, 1930)
Paul Donovan, La Grande youth and student in the Sacred Heart academy, was late yesterday after-Albert Hunter of La Grande. Early appointed as midshipman to the United States naval academy at Annapolis.

The second win of the Eastern Oregon debate team this year was accomplished last night when the Whitman freshman girls team was defeated.

Harry McKinlay, new manager of Falk's store, arrived in La Grande this morning.

Organization of a labor political league here last night and completion of the time for filing declarations for candidacy for primary nomination and election late yesterday were the only two developments in local politics Tuesday and today.

Early Chairman of New Accident Group

SALEM, April 2 (AP)—Charles T. East of Portland was elected chairman of the new state industrial accident commission at its organization meeting here after the new commission took office Wednesday morning. The other two commissioners are Arthur Lawrence of Corvallis, and

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and snaky and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet, buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

Take these good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't take for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute.

years as claim agent. No one has been named to succeed him.

In all 10 removals were announced. Among them were Norlyn P. Hoff, son of the late State Treasurer O. P. Hoff; Ralph Southwick, Ralph Schamp, Frank B. Ferguson and Mrs. Jessie C. Singleton.

COMMISSIONER RESIGNS
SALEM, April 2 (AP)—Arthur W. Lawrence, member of the new industrial accident commission, yesterday tendered his resignation to the secretary of state as representative from Benton county.

deputy sheriffs and state and federal agents.

The raid was made on the outskirts of the city.

Those under arrest gave their names as James Thompson, William Cole, and Emma Jones. The two men were held under $1,000 bail. The woman was required to post a $500 bond.

Portland Officers Stage Liquor Raid

PORTLAND, April 2 (AP)—Two men and a woman were under arrest, and officers had confiscated a 350-gallon still, 110 gallons of liquor, 230 gallons of mash, and two automobiles yesterday in a liquor raid staged by

Baptist Missionary Personell Escapes

NEW YORK, April 2 (AP)—The Baptist home missionary societies yesterday received word from Managua that all the buildings of the church in that city were ruined by the earthquake, but that the entire personnel had escaped injury.

Mrs. Ida Warnock, Portland, Ore., is a member of the Baptist missionary staff at Managua.

About 21 pounds of milk are required to make a pound of butter.

Chapter 16
WAYE'S "WALKING PAPERS"

"WELL—this lets us out," opined Mr. James, as he scanned the half-column that Dr. Chartre had indicated. "No guy could do such a low-down thing."

"What I said," agreed Dr. Chartre. "And since we've treated him square, I don't see why he should want to squeal on us. 'Tant as though we were double-crossing him. . . . Why shouldn't he keep his mouth shut when he's giving himself up voluntarily?"

"Is that what he did?" inquired Nurse Jones.

"According to the Morning Star account of it," replied the doctor.

"But what was the game in describing some imaginary person and giving a bogus name and address as well?" asked Dr. Macadoo.

"Oh, dust your brains, Manoe!" snapped the doctor. "If it put the police looking for a guy in Glasgow or Bristol, while you're making tracks for The Monastery, it's something to the good. Especially if they think they recognize the description of the imaginary person in the letter."

"Sure thing—if it was imaginary," observed Mr. James portentously.

The other four eyed him with bewilderment and horror.

"You don't mean to suggest he'd give the actual name of some innocent person?" said Dr. Macadoo.

"I certainly do. And his proper name and address," growled Mr. James. "He's a real bad guy. Bump him off, I say."

Consternation settled on the faces of those reformed ladies and gentlemen.

"He's a walking mystery, and there's nobody I'd sooner see bumped off, if it were a little safer," said the doctor, at length. "But we've no call to think he's a bad

"Well—if he confessed, they'd hang him, all right, if" were shown that Sir Bernard Mathieson refused to certify him."

"And then he's sane enough for his tale—about us and Spider Schlitz and the gang—to be worth listening to, and acting upon. He's still got us. . . . Unless he's also got the common honesty to go and take his medicine without squealing. Now they've pinched an innocent man, it's up to him to say, 'You've been good guys and I'm grateful. I am off to give myself up and take what's coming to me, with a shut mouth.' . . . Why not?"

"Guess he'll want to wait and see whether the innocent man is released. If they let the guy go again, all's well, and Wayne lies low a bit longer—until this affair blows over. . . ."

"Wonder if the police acted on that letter they found pinned on Spider's waistcoat? . . . I call that pretty cool, to sit down alongside the still'un you've just bumped off, and write a 'confession' with the full description of yourself—the murderer—with name and address complete."

"But Wayne's surprise revelations tomorrow give a better idea as to who is giving orders at the home."
