Honor Miss Ashby At Bridge Party Wednesday Night

Miss Trillian Ashby, whose marriage to Robert Hazar, of Portland, will be an event of the near future, has been the inspiration for a number of social affairs recently, among them a bridge party at which a number of her friends entertained Wednesday evening at the La Grande hotel. Miss Ashby was presented with a gift. Bridge was the diversion of the evening with Miss Constance Rae receiving the prize for high score, and Miss Gwendolyn Buchanan, low. Members of a club to which a number of the younger set used to belong, were hostesses for the evening, and Miss Mary Gould Parsons was a guest. She received a guest prize. Those present were Miss Ashby, Miss Roberta Kyle, Miss Judy Moore, Miss Ruth Owensley, Miss Jean White, Miss Fonda Hanks, Miss Mildred Smith, Miss Leah Bramwell, Miss Bernice Wilson, Miss Edna Halley, Miss Gwendolyn Buchanan, Miss Constance Rae, Miss Eva Riggs, Miss Parsons, Miss Edna Mae Wilson and Miss Marva Lyman. Luncheon was served after the cards.

Mrs. Henry Hess Hostess to Club

Mrs. Henry Hess was a hostess of Thursday afternoon, entertaining the Jolly club at a one o'clock luncheon and an afternoon of bridge. The luncheon table was decorated with a centerpiece of sweet peas. Prizes at bridge were received by Mrs. Lester Stoddard, first, and Mrs. Nate Zweifel, second.

Entertain Group At Bridge Party

A group of the young married set were entertained Thursday evening at bridge by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Walker. An Easter motif was carried out in the bridge table appointments and decorations. Guests for four tables of bridge were present with Oscar Warnock and Mrs. John Larson receiving the prizes for high score, Mrs. Leni Russell, consolation. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Larson were guests of the group, and Mr. Larson received the guest prize. Refreshments were served by the hostess late in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Warnock will entertain the group in two weeks.

Mrs. Milo Blokland Is Complimented

Mrs. Milo Blokland, who is leaving soon for Portland, was surprised last night by about 35 friends at the home of Mrs. Garrett Blokland. The evening was spent in visiting and Mrs. Blokland and her small daughter were honored at a handkerchief show. Miss Betty Jean Blokland presented the gifts to the guests of honor. Later in the evening refreshments were served by the hostesses. Mrs. H. Smith, Mrs. J. M. Bowery and Mrs. Garrett Blokland.

Farewell Party Given Thursday

A farewell party for Mrs. L. C. Maxwell and Mrs. Eunice Carper, both members of the So-Ne-He club, was given last evening for members of the club by Mrs. Gene Walker at her home. Mrs. Maxwell is leaving Saturday to make her home in Boise, and Mrs. Carper is going on the same day to Troy to reside. The evening was spent in visiting, with Mrs. Rita Stojka presenting an interesting reading. Both of the honorees were presented with attractive gifts. Guests for the evening in addition to the members of the club were Mrs. William Dixon, Mrs. Frank Lindsey and Mrs. James Macpherson. Mrs. Lena Harmon will entertain the group next Wednesday at her home at a potluck luncheon at one o'clock.

Union Members To Be Hostesses

The annual business meeting of the American Association of University Women at which the Union members of the organization will be hostesses at the Union hotel will be held tomorrow at 12:30. Reservations may be made with Miss Madeline Larson at the La Grande hotel before six o'clock tonight or with Mrs. Norman Frees.

Union members are planning a short musical program which will be presented in addition to the election of officers. Present officers who will report at the meeting are Miss Amanda Zabel, president; Mrs. Oscar Warnock, treasurer; and Miss Florence Williams, secretary. Luncheon will be served at 12:30. This is the only meeting to be held in Union during the year, and an interesting event is being planned.

Argentina and Chile, two of the countries of South America which are being studied by the International Relations group of the American Association of University Women, were discussed at last night's meeting in room 7 at the high school. Miss Alta Lillie spoke on the geography and industrial development of Chile, while Miss Florence Williams discussed the same phases of Argentina. The Caribbean countries, including Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands, will be the subject for discussion at the next meeting of the group in two weeks. Miss Eleanor Vernon will be in charge, and the meeting place will be announced later.

Easter Party For Primary Children

Easter bunnies and brightly colored eggs will be the delight of the children in the primary department of the Christian church Sunday school tomorrow afternoon. An Easter party is being given in their honor between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock at the church. The children are being entertained by the teachers in the department.

Parkdale Club Is Entertained

The Parkdale club met Wednesday afternoon at an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. R. A. Wilkerson. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Tom Standley and Mrs. J. E. Salkeld. Mrs. Wilkerson arranged an interesting program which included musical numbers. Mrs. Nell Thacker sang "The Slumber Boat," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. T. B. Maxwell. The Christian Endeavor orchestra of the Presbyterian church, directed by Elridge Huffman, played a group of three numbers, "Overture Olympia," Zaneck; "Uncle Hiram," novelty number, by Preighton; "Serenade, Singing in the Moonlight," by Van Norman. Mrs. Edna Halley Stone-breaker sang "Slavesong" and "Somewhere a Voice is Calling."

A delicious two-course luncheon served after the program was one of the features of the afternoon. Guests of the club were Mrs. W. W. Holden, Perry; Mrs. Forest Dial, Mrs. Maxwell.

Mrs. Marcia Riddle will be the next hostess on April 15, with Mrs. Lloyd Pierce assisting.

Ladies Aid Plans Benefit Program

A benefit program to be presented at 7:30 on April 24 by the Riverside Ladies Aid was discussed yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the group at Lane chapel. Mrs. C. H. Blystone, Mrs. Charles Briggs and Mrs. Bill Gibson were hostesses at yesterday's meeting. Miss Lucille Briggs and Miss Lois Jean Davis played a group of piano solos, and at the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses. They will meet again on May 7, the place to be announced later.

Mrs. Kingsley Is Hostess to Club

Guests for four tables of bridge attended a meeting of the Diversity club for which Mrs. Lester Kingsley entertained yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home. Prizes for the afternoon were received by Mrs. Philip Lockwood, Mrs. H. A. Teutsch and Mrs. Otto Ott. The house was attractively decorated in pussy willows. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon by the hostess. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Teutsch, Mrs. Leslie Duncan, Mrs. Lee Slusher, Mrs. M. Hodgins and Mrs. Wren Howell. Mrs. P. R. Gehring will entertain the group in two weeks.

N. B. B. Club At Mrs. Smith's Home

Mrs. R. H. Smith was hostess for the N. B. B. club yesterday afternoon at her country home. Guests for three tables were present with Mrs. Jack McQueen receiving the prize for high score, and Mrs. Henry second. Mrs. Claude Mackey received the prize among the guests. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon by the hostess. A potluck luncheon is being served at the home of Mrs. Russell Davy in two weeks, that meeting being the last of the spring season. It will be served at 1 o'clock.

Delightful Event At Island City

The Island City home of Mrs. Henry Hagey was the scene of a delightful event yesterday afternoon when the 50-50 club met for an afternoon of bridge. Three tables were at play with Mrs. Earl Roberts receiving the prize for high score; Mrs. Harry Sittler, second. The rooms were decorated with potted plants, and a two-course luncheon was served at the tables late in the afternoon by the hostess. Mrs. Howard Hale will entertain group in two weeks.

Home Department Meets at Church

Mrs. Lynne Bohnenkamp was hostess for the Home department of the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at her home. Mrs. J. F. Heasty is president of the group. Mrs. H. P. Lewis led the devotionals, and following the routine business the guests sewed on quilt patches. Mrs. Bohnenkamp served refreshments late in the afternoon. They will meet again on May 7, with Mrs. J. M. Choate and Mrs. Rose Wolf hostesses. The place of meeting is to be announced later.

Easter Party At Vernon Hale Home

An Easter party was an event of Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hale entertained at their home for guests to make up two tables of bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Howard received the prize for high score. The rooms were decorated in an Easter motif, and refreshments were served by the hostess late in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Masterton are to be the next hosts for the club in two weeks.
