Easter Day Happy For Children And The Adults Alike

The Easter bunny, which brought a host of brightly colored eggs to the children, and the impressive devotional services held for the adults united in making Easter one of the most perfect days of the spring. Balmy weather with a maximum of 65 above, sent groups to the tennis courts and golf links during the day. Easter egg hunts and sunrise devotions were among the interesting events which characterized the Easter service. Several weddings took place during the day.

Trillian Ashby And Robert Hazer Wed

A beautiful Easter wedding was solemnized at St. Peter's Episcopal church Sunday at 5 o'clock by Rev. M. G. Tennyson when Trillian Ashby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Ashby, was united in marriage to Robert E. Hazer, only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hazer of Astoria. At the beginning of the service Mrs. Edna Halley Stonebreaker sang "The Cause," by D'Hardelot. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride, on the arm of her father, proceeded to the church steps down a path, and through a gateway lined with pink hydrangeas, baskets of white carnations, Easter lilies, and tall cathedral candles against a background of palms and ferns.

Miss Ashby was given in marriage by her father at the chapel steps, and the bride and bridegroom then proceeded to the altar where the full Episcopal ring service was read. Miss Ingebell Miller played very softly during the entire service "Cantilene Nuptiale," by Dubois, followed by Mendelssohn's wedding march. The entire church was lighted by many white candles, and the altar was bedecked with white lilies, Easter lilies and white carnations and lighted by Eucharistic candles.

The bride was lovely in a gown of shell pink chiffon, with a bodice of pink tulle and a long and large picture hat to match. Her accessories were of the same shade. She carried an arm bouquet of Easter lilies and a lace handkerchief used by her great grandmother. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hazer came from Portland for the ceremony, and they, with the bride's family and a very small crowd of friends of the couple, witnessed the services. After the wedding a supper was served at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hazer left in their car for Boise and on their return they will be at home at the La Grande hotel.

35th Anniversary Dinner Inspiration

In honor of their 35th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cherry entertained at dinner at the Sacajawea Inn Sunday evening at six o'clock. After dinner the guests were invited to the "Cherry" home, where the evening was spent in conversation. Invited for the event were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Condit, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Lottes and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Melville.

Party Compliments Marjorie Condit

Honoring their daughter, Miss Marjorie, on the occasion of her birthday anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Condit entertained Sunday with a small dinner at their home. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of sweet peas and roses. An out-of-town guest for the occasion was Howard Peterson, of Portland.

Miss Moor Maid of Honor at Wedding

Miss Ruth M. Bartruff and W. Franklin Walker, both of Corvallis, were married at a lovely Easter morning service yesterday in Portland, and Miss Helen Moor, dean of women at the Eastern Oregon Normal school, was maid of honor. The ceremony was conducted in the Williamette Boulevard Evangelical church which was decorated with Easter lilies, spring flowers and candles. The bride's gown was of ivory satin, while Miss Moore wore peach lace with pale blue Watteau hat and blue slippers and carried roses and sweet peas. Following the service, a wedding breakfast was served at the Campbell Court hotel for members of the family and a few friends.

CUSTARD DESSERTS WILL BAKE BETTER IN SMALL DISHES

The smaller the dish, the more evenly and quickly the oven heat can penetrate to the center of the custard. Such results cannot be counted upon when large baking dishes are used. Applying this principle to roasting their fine blend of coffee, Hills Bros. found the way to develop uniform flavor in every ounce. A constant stream of green coffee is introduced into the roaster in automatically measured lots of about three pounds, and passes through in a steady flow, roasting a little at a time. There is accurate control of both the flow of coffee and the temperature.

Coffee is Also Better When Roasted in Small Lots — Hills Bros.' Method

The smaller the dish, the more evenly and quickly the oven heat can penetrate to the center of the custard. Such results cannot be counted upon when large baking dishes are used.

Applying this principle to roasting their fine blend of coffee, Hills Bros. found the way to develop uniform flavor in every ounce. A constant stream of green coffee is introduced into the roaster in automatically measured lots of about three pounds, and passes through in a steady flow, roasting a little at a time. There is accurate control of both the flow of coffee and the temperature.

This process, patented by Hills Bros.—Controlled Roasting—develops a delicious uniform flavor no other coffee has. The ordinary method—roasting in bulk—is virtually lacking in control. Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee in the vacuum can that keeps it ever-fresh. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed from this can and kept out. Coffee packed in ordinary cans, even if air-tight, does not stay fresh. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can.

French Literature To Be Discussed

The literature of France, and especially Balzac, one of the greatest of French writers, will be discussed by Miss Mildred Hawksworth tonight at 7:30 at the La Grande hotel, at a meeting of the Contemporary Literature group of the Neighborhood club. The club has been carrying on an interesting program covering many countries, the programs having been planned by Miss Mabel Doty, chairman.

Children Guests At Easter Party

Several interesting events marked the Easter season at St. Peter's church, among them the Easter egg hunt conducted for about 50 children of the Sunday school Saturday afternoon between 2 and 4 o'clock. Mrs. Gladys Puckett was in charge of the event which was held in Honan hall. Following the hunt, cookies and punch were served. Another affair of special interest was the breakfast at which Rev. and Mrs. M. G. Tennyson entertained the Altar Guild of the church following the six o'clock communion service Sunday morning. Seventeen were present.

No Wonder Lovely Women Like It!

What an unmerciful twitting they give women about their bargains!

And how they love to harp on "vain as a woman" when wives and daughters are successful in looking their best!.. But to hear them at the office is another story. It's "my wife this and my wife that"—with evident pride.

Vain? There's nothing quite so vain as men who have attractive and accomplished wives.

How their wives manage the home—how they plan and buy—is a source of constant wonderment and appreciation. Nothing pleases a man more than the knowledge that his wife is a shrewd manager and a deft hostess.

But what is so amazing to women is commonplace to men.

Women know that shrewd management and good taste are not matters of chance, but qualities to be cultivated — personal qualities that depend upon a thorough knowledge of style and value.

It is not difficult for them to obtain this knowledge.

Every day they read the advertisements in the newspapers — printed statements of style, price and value. Statements that are sponsored and signed by companies known for business integrity and style authority.

Guided by this knowledge, women choose wisely — and receive for their money the highest in quality, the utmost in style.
