Beautiful Wedding At Church Sunday

A beautiful Easter wedding was solemnized at St. Peter's Episcopal church Sunday at 5 o'clock by Rev. M. G. Tompson, when Trillian Jane Ashby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Ashby, was united in marriage to Robert B. Hazer, only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hazer, of Portland.

At the beginning of the service Mrs. Edna Halley Stonebreaker sang "Because," by D'Hardelot. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride, on the arm of her father, proceeded to the chancel steps where she was met by the bridegroom and given in marriage. They then proceeded to the altar where the full Episcopal rite service was read. Miss Isabelle Miller played very softly during the entire service. "Cantilene Nuptiale," by Dubois, followed by Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The chancel church was lighted by many white candles, and the altar was banked with calla lilies, Easter lilies, and white carnations and lighted by Eucharistic candles.

Pink hydrangeas, baskets of white carnations, tied with bows of white tulle, Easter lilies and tall cathedral candles with a background of palms and ferns formed a path and gate way to the altar.

The bride was lovely in a gown of shell pink chiffon, with a bodice of pink tulle lace and coat, and a large picture hat to match. Her accessories were of the same shade. She carried an arm bouquet of Easter lilies and a lace handkerchief used by her great grandmother.

After the wedding a supper was served at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hazer left in their car for Boise and on their return they will be at home at the La Grande hotel.

For her going away costume, the bride wore an ensemble of yellow and orange with matching hat and accessories.

HEAVY DEATH TOLL

PARIS, April 7 (AP)—Twenty one persons were killed and eighty one injured in automobile accidents in France over the Easter holidays. An unofficial count estimated the number of motors on the roads over the weekend at three million.

It doesn't cost anything to have a seat on the Stock Exchange kicked, mused the office sage.

Repairing Roads At Island City; Work Welcomed

By Wesley Hershey (Observer Correspondent)

ISLAND CITY, Ore. (Special)—Roads in and around Island City were being repaired last Saturday. This much needed improvement was welcomed by all.

Easter was observed at Island City with a large attendance at church and Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hagey and family entertained at a potluck dinner Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burnett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Worrell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McManus, a very good time was enjoyed. This is one of the first "get-togethers" of this year.

Arthur Hermann received word last Thursday of his mother's death in La Grande, Ill. Mr. Hermann recently returned from a trip to visit his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. George Grimshaw spent Easter Sunday at Minam visiting friends.

Reb Brown, age 23, former resident of Island City, was drowned in the Willamette river last Tuesday. It was reported that he and several others were in a boat and the flood waters became too swift and the boat turned over. Mrs. Brown, his mother from Nebraska, stopped here Saturday en route to the funeral.

Mr. Elmer Case and Mr. and Mrs. Louie Phillips and Mary Jane Chadwick were guests at an Easter dinner at the Henry Council home in Ladd Canyon Sunday.

Mrs. O. C. Frohman of La Grande, and her mother, Mrs. J. T. Willis, of Wallawa, visited the N. E. Hershey home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Fleish and Ethel Fishman who teaches school at Lone Pine, and Mrs. Duke Rowland from Parma.

Poultry raisers near Island City have been receiving baby chicks this week from the Willamette valley. Due to road conditions between Bend and La Grande several of the chicks have been dying.

N. E. Hershey and son, Wesley, were guests at the home of Minnie Holman for an Easter dinner Sunday.

At present there are 70 names enrolled at the Island City public library. The library organization was formed about two months ago by Mrs. Walter Pierce and there have been several donations in the way of books and magazines which have helped to make it a success. The women and girls who have acted as librarians are Mrs. John Schroeder and daughter, Alma, Mrs. Zurbrich and daughter Margaret, Mrs. Isaac Shaefer and two daughters, Pluma and Anna Mae, and Mildred Wardell. Mrs. Carl Perrin will have charge of the library next Wednesday. The library is open Wednesday from four to five p. m. and on Saturday from three to five p. m.

Chet Bidwell, of Island City, failed to turn the corner just west of Island City Friday night and as a result his car crashed into a telephone pole. Mr. Bidwell was rushed to La Grande immediately. Other than a few cuts about the face, and other minor injuries he was not seriously hurt. The telephone pole was broken off and the telephone company spent several hours during the night repairing the wire.

The Island City Ladies Aid will meet at the home of its president, Mrs. Garrett Blokland, Thursday at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Mlio Blokland and daughter, Betty Ann, left early Monday morning for Portland where they will make their home. Mr. Blokland has been working in a railroad office there for several weeks.

Merton Lorce, Elbert Bristow, Lloyd Murchison and Willie Neiger. Mrs. Eva Hartley who is just recently home from the Hot Lake sanatorium, was a guest for part of the afternoon. The children reported a most enjoyable time with Mr. and Mrs. Hoatson.

COVE PERSONALS

By Mrs. Leona Price (Observer Correspondent)

COVE, Ore. (Special)—Easter greetings came to Mr. and Mrs. Stuart French in the form of an $14 pound sofa born at 2:15 a. m. Sunday at the Grande Ronde hospital. Mother and son are getting along well, it is reported. Mrs. Eva French, mother of Stuart, is also at La Grande for a time. Mrs. Alice Tripper, great grandmother of the new baby, reports this one of the most joyous Easter days of her life.

Mrs. A. C. Conklin was called to Portland Friday by the death of her aunt, Mrs. Fannie Platt. Mrs. Conklin made her home with this aunt for about ten years before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laird, of La Grande, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Laird's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fletcher. Mr. and Mrs. Laird have just purchased a new home in La Grande.

Miss Dorothy Mills came from Walla Walla Friday for the Easter vacation. She expects to be at home until April 14. Miss Clarice Conklin and Miss Lucy Ransome came with Dorothy to be her guests until Sunday. The vacation began sooner than expected because of the flooded condition of Walla Walla where the schools had to close on account of the water and sewage systems paralyzed with a good deal of sickness due to these conditions.

C. Underwood, a brother of Mrs. T. C. Hefly, arrived Sunday from Compagn, Cal. where he has been spending the winter with another sister.

The No. 2 cooking club held its regular cooking meeting Friday. Golden rod eggs and fruit salad were prepared and served by Phyllis Hancock, Maxine Towle, Velma Richards and Lona Nelda Price. Committees were appointed by the president, Velma Richards for the tea to be given for the mothers and teachers. The date was set at two weeks from last Friday. Next Friday the girls will finish the group projects when demonstrations, judging and the luncheon project will be taken up at the meetings.

The intermediate class of the Baptist Sunday school held a picnic at the home of Jim Hoatson, who is their teacher, Saturday. Baseball and other outdoor games were played followed by an egg hunt and refreshments. Those present were Phyllis Hancock, Mildred Hagey, Lena, and Zina Bristow, Helen Lloyd, Velma Richards, Lona Price, Dean and Junior Van Donge, Van and Glenn Robinson, Darrel DeBorde, Robert Clark.

Driver Slugged By Unknown Men Wins With One Fall In Seven Round Go

SEATTLE, Wash., April 7 (AP)—Taking the only fall of the fracas in the seventh round with a backyard body slam, Charley Hanson, Seattle heavyweight, won the feature bout of a wrestling card here last night from Freddie Myers, New York. Howard Cantonwine, Iowa, and Charley Pinta, New York, tussled to a five round draw in the semi-final, each turning in a down. They are heavyweights. Cantonwine scored the first fall in the third round on a short leg scissors and Pinta evened matters in the fifth.

Driver Slugged By Unknown Men

PORTLAND, April 7 (AP)—Severely beaten by two men he had driven to a lonely spot near Milwaukie, Emmet Coleman, cab driver, sought the aid of police today in solving the mystery of the slugging.

Coleman at first believed he had been robbed, as after the two men had beaten him and thrown him from the cab, he missed his wallet containing $58. Later, however, the abandoned cab was found some distance from the scene of the assault. The wallet with money intact, was in the seat.

Could Will Give Editors Opinions

NEW YORK, April 7 (AP)—Alan Gould, Associated Press sports editor,

is to speak over a WJZ network Friday at 7:45 p. m. (E. S. T.) when he will give a summary of the fifth annual Associated Press consensus of the predictions of sporting editors on the coming big league baseball season. Mr. Gould has just returned from a visit to training camps in the south.

Cassidy to Serve Prison Sentence

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP)—George Lawrence Cassidy, known in congressional and police circles for years as "the man in the green hat," must serve 18 months in prison for selling liquor around the senate office building.
