

LOCAL BRIEFS

Contract Let—
By order of the city commission a contract has been let to repair the sidewalk in front of the Claude Mackey building on Adams avenue and the sidewalk near the C. E. Hapsett home.

Goos To Husband—
Mrs. Roy Forrester left last night for Portland where she will join her husband who has been ill in the western city for the past few weeks. Mr. Forrester is reported to be improved in health.

To Baker—
Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hammond left this morning for Baker where Mr. Hammond will address the Baker sportsmen. Mr. Hammond, of New London, Conn., is traveling in the Northwest at present in the interests of the Isaac Walton league, and was a speaker at the Lions and Rotary clubs joint dinner last night.

Returns From Portland—
Mrs. Orville Doan returned this morning from a business trip to Portland and Salem. She went to Western Oregon Sunday and returned this morning. For the past few days Mrs. Doan has been suffering from a badly sprained hand.

In Pendleton—
Miss Hazel Williamson, who is attending the Eastern Oregon Normal school, is spending the spring vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williamson, in Pendleton.

Moves To Muddy Creek—
Mrs. Martha Bond, formerly of La Grande, who recently purchased a farm belonging to the late Frank McCullough in the Muddy Creek district, has been moving her household furniture there this week. She is at present in La Grande, but expects to return to Muddy Creek the latter part of the week when she will begin farming.

Enters Hospital—
Mrs. Miranda Rizor, of 302 Cedar street, entered the Wonderlick hospital today for medical treatment.

Return From Trip—
Mrs. C. N. Palmer and Mrs. Walter Palmer returned to La Grande this morning after a five weeks journey through Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado where they visited with friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Palmer are former residents of Oklahoma and have many friends in the mid-western state.

Returns to Idaho—
Mrs. Blanche Rohland returned today to Parma, Ida., after a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. O. C. Freshman, in La Grande. While in this city she was a guest at a number of delightful social events.

Move to Huntington—
Mr. and Mrs. L. Phelps are moving to Huntington, Ore., soon to make their home. Mr. Phelps is employed by the highway department and has a position in Huntington.

Major Operation—
Ray, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude C. Pratt, underwent an emergency operation for locked hernia at the Wonderlick hospital last night. His condition was reported good today.

Leaves Hospital—
Mrs. F. A. Hunt and baby daughter, of Imbler, left the Wonderlick hospital for their home yesterday.

Returns to Umatilla—
After visiting for a week in La Grande, Miss Laura S. Dunne, has returned to her home in Umatilla.

Adjourn Again—
The grand jury held a session yesterday following a week's adjournment, and yesterday afternoon adjourned again, subject to call at a later date.

Marriage License—
A marriage license was issued by the county clerk yesterday to Glenn Thacker and Fern Duke, both of Elgin.

Mailing Tax Notices—
The county tax notices were being mailed from the sheriff's office yesterday and today. The last ones were sent out this afternoon, bringing the total to more than $500.

One Case Scheduled—
The civil law case of the Credit Service Company vs. the Blue Mountain Fruit Exchange is to be tried in circuit court next Tuesday and Wednesday. This is the only case on the calendar at present.

Admire Roads—
"We are delighted with Oregon roads," Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Young stated after they arrived in La Grande last night on their way to Grand Island, Neb., after a visit in San Francisco. They class Oregon roads among the finest over which they have travelled.
