Visitors Honored At Reception At Richardson Home

Mr. and Mrs. George O'Day, of Los Angeles, who are the house guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson, have been the inspiration for a number of large social events since their arrival last night. Dr. and Mrs. Richardson entertained at a reception at their home honoring them. Forty guests were invited for the evening. The rooms were decorated in large bouquets of spring flowers, and an attractive bowl of cut flowers was used as a centerpiece at the dining table over which Mrs. L. J. Lindsay and Mrs. Andrew Loney Jr. presided. They were assisted in serving by four members of the younger set, dressed in gay spring evening frocks. They were Miss Doris Cude, Miss Mildred Spencer, Miss Mary Vaughn, Hendricks and Miss Myrtle Wilcox. Mrs. Evelyn Hershaw, of Pendleton, was among the guests. Dr. and Mrs. Richardson are entertaining with a bridge dinner this evening for their guests. A seven o'clock dinner is being planned at the Sacajawea Inn, to be followed by an evening of bridge at the Richardson home. Mrs. O'Day, nee Adelaide Rose Clark, is a niece of Dr. and Mrs. Richardson and formerly lived in La Grande where she has a host of friends.

Mrs. Bohnenkamp Is Hostess at Bridge

Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp Sr. entertained at her home yesterday afternoon with a one o'clock luncheon followed by an afternoon of bridge. Twelve members of the Thursday Bridge club were her guests for the evening. Mrs. Charles Playle received the prize for high score. Mrs. George Cochran will entertain the Thursday club on April 23.

Alpha Club Meets At the La Grande

Mrs. William Sieglist was hostess at one of the most interesting bridge luncheons of the week yesterday when she entertained the Alpha club at 1 o'clock at the La Grande hotel. The guests were seated for luncheon at one large table which had a centerpiece of flowers. Bridge was played during the afternoon with Mrs. Adolph Sieglist receiving the club prize for high score and Mrs. Leo Bouvy receiving the guest award.

Miss Eberhard To Speak at Banquet

Miss Dorothy Eberhard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oolon R. Eberhard, had been honored recently at the University of Oregon where she is a student, according to word received from Eugene recently. She is to be one of the speakers at the annual formal banquet of the Young Women's Christian association to be held at the Anchorage in Eugene. Miss Eberhard is to be a speaker along with a number of the members of the faculty. She is also in charge of the Mortar Board ball, to be given April 24, as an important Senior Leap week. Mortar Board is a senior honorary organization to which only women of high scholastic standing and achievement belong, and Miss Eberhard is president of the group.

WATCH THESE DANGER SIGNALS!

HEADACHES, dizziness, coated tongue, loss of appetite, lack of energy, a general feeling of "blues"—these are the most frequent danger signals of constipation.

Look out for them. Don't let them make your life miserable. Start tomorrow eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—a delicious ready-to-eat cereal. As pleasant as it is healthy. What a relief it will be after taking unnatural, habit-forming pills and drugs.

Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily are guaranteed to prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, eat it three times daily.

Milk or cream brings out the delightful nut-like taste of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. And with milk or cream, important vitamins are furnished. ALL-BRAN is equally tempting with fruits or honey. Sprinkle it over other cereals.

Use it in cooking—for making delicious bran muffins, breads, in omelets, etc. ALL-BRAN also has iron, the builder of good, rich, red blood. At all grocers in the famous red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. The original All-Bran.
