Russian Music Is Featured At Club Meeting Monday

Russian music, from the beginning of its development to the present, was the topic at an interesting meeting of the Neighborhood Music club Monday evening at the La Grande hotel. Miss Gladys Miller was chairman for the event.

Mrs. Harley Richardson prepared a paper on Russian music, which was read by Miss Miller, in which she traced the origin of the musical consciousness in Russia, showing the effect of the revolution on the music, and the present conflict between the old school and the school of moderns.

Compositions from Russia's greatest artists were selected to illustrate the development of music in that country. From the compositions of Rachmaninoff, Miss Nancy Guild played "Prelude in C Sharp Minor," Miss Mildred Spencer presented "Polichinelle," and Mrs. H. N. Ashby, soprano, accompanied by Mrs. Merlin Batley, sang "Night."

From among the early folk songs, Mrs. Oliver M. Currey, contralto, selected a composition by Night, which she sang, accompanied by Miss Miller. Mrs. Ashby also sang "Over the Steppe," by Gretchaninoff.

Other composers represented were Tschaikowsky, with Mrs. R. J. Green and Mrs. George Birnie playing "Russian Dance" and "Dance of the Reed Flute" from among his compositions; Godowsky, "In Old Vienna," by Miss Jean McKennon, and Moussorsky, "Hopak," by Miss Helen Williams.

Program of Many Nations Planned

A program of many countries will be presented by the Gleaner girls of the M. I. A. tonight at the recreational hall to complete the Mutual program, according to plans made at a meeting of the Gleaners last night at the home of Miss Barbara Hiatt. Miss America will introduce the other countries, which will include Scotland, represented in a Scotch dance by Ruth Garnick; Ireland, with Ruth Black singing, "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," accompanied by a chorus of girls. Liza and Vina Zaugg will represent Switzerland; and Barbara Hiatt will represent Russia, playing "Caprice Espagnol," by Moskowski, a Russian composer.

Norway will be represented through its music, with a women's quartet, composed of Mrs. Blanche Stoddard, Mrs. Pauline Ainsworth, Mrs. Lynn Wright and Mrs. W. W. Neubaum, accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds, singing a Norwegian song. Mrs. Myrtle Russell will sing a Spanish solo. All will be dressed in native costume.

To close the program all countries will join in singing "America." The meeting is to be held in the upstairs hall at the Recreational hall.

At last night's session, the members spent the evening sewing, and refreshments were served by Miss Barbara Hiatt, assisted by the joint hostess, Miss Eunice Roundy. Miss Lorille Chapin, of the Eastern Oregon Normal school, was a guest for the occasion.

Mrs. Helga Williams and Mrs. Mildred Snider will be joint hostesses at the meeting next Monday evening, to be held at the home of the former.

BAND WILL PLAY AT PARK SUNDAY

The instrumental portion of the program has not been overlooked and contains music of the lighter vein as well as the more difficult and finer grade of music. The overture selected for this concert will be the overture to "Stradella" by Flotow. This splendid overture opens with a french horn quartet of considerable length and beauty. The band takes a great deal of pride in the quartet of french horns, played by Messrs. J. P. Caldwell, Dick Lindsey, William Caldwell and Frank Appling.

The opening march on the program, "Rinciuto" is by a former noted American bandmaster, G. Tigano. Andrew Loney, leader of the municipal band, acted as solo cornetist for Mr. Tigano some years ago and a warm friendship sprung up between the two. During the world war Mr. Tigano was called to serve with the Italian forces in Italy, of which he was a captain of cavalry, and in 1917 was killed in battle. The march is one of the finest known, being distinctly original in character, and displaying to fine effect the extraordinary ability of this talented composer and band leader.

The concert is free to the public and is sponsored by the city of La Grande.
