What some of the others have said of Montaville Flowers

OREGONIAN

Montaville Flowers has been a famous orator and writer for many years. One might say he ranks with Billy Sunday or Senator Borah as a "Big Leaguer" on the lecture platform.

J. W. Crabtree, Secretary National Education Association, Washington, D. C., "I wonder if you thrilled everybody else as you did me."

S. E. Kramer, First Assistant Superintendent Public Schools, the District of Columbia: "It was interesting to me to get the reaction of the boys and girls as well as their teachers after hearing your lecture. All were enthusiastic in their praise of your good judgment, and fine attitude of approach to youth and the pleasing manner in which your message was delivered. I wish you success in your work."

PORTLAND TELEGRAM, JAN. 23, 1931.

The Municipal auditorium was filled to overflowing Thursday night by independent merchants and their friends from Portland and towns outside Portland, many persons having to be turned away. The principal speaker was Montaville Flowers, who spoke from the stage of the auditorium on the subject of "Liberty."
