

LaGrande Evening Observer

(Incorporated) An Independent Newspaper
P. R. FINLAY Editor and Publisher
HAROLD M. FINLAY Business Manager

Published evenings, except Sunday, at 1710 Sixth street La Grande, Oregon.

Entered at the Postoffice of La Grande, Oregon, as Second Class Mail Matter under act of March 2, 1879.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited.

National Advertising Representative
M. C. MOGENSEN CO., Inc.
San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle, Portland, Chicago, Detroit, New York

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Daily, two weeks in advance $5.00
Daily, six months in advance $25.00
Daily, single copy 5c

ADVERTISING RATES
Display, foreign, per column inch 42c
Display, local, per column inch 40c

And now, Israel, what does the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul.—Deuteronomy 10:12.

TEACHERS AND PUPILS

In reading over the records made by the members of the La Grande High school in the recent musical and athletic events, and recalling that similar records have been made in other activities, we are forcibly reminded of the fact that the young people of this day are ambitious and capable and willing to make the effort that leads to success.

And back of this visible demonstration we see the helping hand of parents, teachers and friends who are doing what they can to assist and encourage the boys and girls to make the most of the natural abilities with which they are endowed.

The fact that the members of the La Grande schools are making a good record in many lines of work is a tribute to the splendid leadership which they have, and we should all be grateful to those men and women who are giving so much of themselves to assist in the development of our boys and girls for their life work.

WHERE OPPORTUNITY BECKONS

Some people are forever complaining that none of the big or little opportunities come their way. They hear of a neighbor who got a real bargain in a used automobile and wonder why his chance had not been theirs. And when a neighbor shows them a bit of furniture or other household article he had picked up for considerably less than its real worth, they again wonder why others are favored over them.

Paradoxical though it seems, these men and women who covet the opportunities offered to and grasped by others could find the secret of the other's good fortune in the newspaper read by them both. That secret is the classified advertising columns. The "want ad" page is the mecca for those who have golden opportunities to offer and for those who wisely hunt for them.

If the store with its show windows, glass cases, counters and open doors, cannot do business without newspaper advertisements, how can the seller and buyer of the used article expect to "do business" without advertising? The "want ad" or classified advertisement is the show window and counter for the private citizen who has something to sell or wants to buy something the other citizen has.

This world has no prize to offer, whether it be wealth, or power, or position, that is worth having at the price of tarnished honor or a guilty conscience. The spiritual realities, and not the material things, are the best part of life. —John D. Rockefeller Jr.

COVE PERSONALS

By Mrs. J. R. Price (Observer Correspondent)
COVE, Ore. (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ingram and daughter, Phyllis Jean, of Jewett, Alaska, were visitors in Cove over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Ingram spent the night with Mrs. Lydia Lantz and her son, Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Wilson and son, Keith, of Joseph, were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith McCool. The Wilsons are cousins of Mr. McCool. Henry and Leonard Parsons also spent Sunday with the McCools.

John Comstock, who is taking forestry at O. U., has been offered a position as government worker during the summer months, controlling the white pine blight. A certain amount of practical work is required in the course but it is rather unusual for a first year man to receive an offer of this kind. His plans for the summer are not completed.

The number two cooking club gave a tea Saturday afternoon, members inviting their mothers and teachers. Tea, chocolate milk, sandwiches and cakes were served by the girls, who also furnished the entertainment.

Mrs. L. E. Anderson and her children, Miss Thelma, Logan and Conrad, Mrs. Bessie Fletcher, Mrs. L. M. Laird, Mrs. Lulu Goyette, Erick and Lois Clark, Margorie Smith and Velma Richards all worked on the library lots Saturday, taking mowing, planting and also burning rubbish.

Cherry growers around Cove are concerned for their crops, many are getting considerable damage due to the extremely cold nights. Mrs. Nannie Okonoff, who went to Portland last week, returned Sunday. She reports her health better and the operation which she expected to undergo was not necessary.

R. I. Barker returned to his home Friday from a La Grande hospital where he has been for about six weeks. Mr. Barker underwent an appendix operation and had quite a serious time as gangrene set in.

C. A. Smith is also back in Cove after an appendix operation at Hot Lake. Mr. Smith was able to be out Saturday.

William Mayor, of Baker, will fill the pulpit of the Baptist church until a regular pastor is procured it was decided at the business meeting held Saturday afternoon.

A birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. John Dean was given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Pitts, of La Grande, Sunday. Other guests were Mrs. Dean's daughters, Barbara Pitts and Elnora Hansen, Mr. Dean, Mrs. Lydia Lantz and Linn Lantz. A delicious chicken dinner was served.

Ministers Meet At Cove Monday; Mr. Walz Speaks

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)
COVE, Ore. (Special)—The County Ministerial association held a very interesting meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church in Cove Monday, April 20. Rev. H. I. Hansen, of La Grande, president of the association, presided. Ministers present were Rev. J. George Walz, of the Presbyterian church of La Grande; Rev. B. M. Godwin, of the Baptist church in La Grande; Rev. Merrill E. Mortimore, of the Methodist church, North Powder; Rev. Howard Smith, of La Grande; Rev. A. J. Starmer, M. E. Church South, La Grande; Rev. Paul De P. Mortimore, Christian church, La Grande; Rev. N. E. Hershey, Island City; Rev. W. H. Hertzog, of the M. E. church, La Grande. The program began with a song and devotionals led by Mr. Walz. The business meeting followed at 11 o'clock and an address was given by Mr. Walz. A report of the Sunday school work was given by Mr. Smith. Mr. Smith has charge of Sunday schools in four counties—Union, Baker, Walla and Umatilla—and after his report he answered questions about his work. The dinner hour followed. The afternoon session was opened by a number of the Cove Methodist choir. "The Closed Mind" was the subject on which Mr. Mortimore based an address and the meeting was closed with a song and prayer. The meeting was attended by a number of the laity from La Grande, North Powder and Cove.

"Resolved, that all nations of the earth should be consolidated, discussed by the debating class of the High school Monday afternoon. In the absence of one of the speakers, Mr. Springer entered the debate, assisted by John Fisher for the affirmative with Lavon Koger and Billy Clark, negative. The affirmative won.

The 4-H cooking club under the direction of Mrs. J. R. Price served tea Saturday afternoon at the domestic science room in the school house. Mrs. R. S. Comstock, Mrs. J. Mathews and Mrs. Charles Hancock were guests. Several of the women from the Woman's club spent all Saturday afternoon cleaning up the lot. They first raked the trash into piles and burned it. They also did some planting. The cooking force was Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, Mrs. L. M. Laird, Mrs. E. Anderson, Miss Anderson, Mrs. Joe Goyette, assisted by Logan and Conrad Anderson.

NORMAN FEIK BUYS FARM IN COUNCIL, IDA.

By Mrs. E. D. Whiting
MT. GLEN, E. D. Whiting—The Norman Feik left for Council, Idaho, where he and his brother, P. P. Feik have purchased a farm and cattle ranch. Before going he was in La Grande, spending a week with his family where a number of friends gathered and spent the evening at games and music. Mrs. Feik served refreshments at a late hour.

Mrs. Charles P. Mathews, of Panaca, Nev., is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Zaugg. Mrs. Mathews' home is near the Boulder Dam site and she reports hundreds of families have moved there living in tents hoping to get employment but at present little is doing except engineering work.

Mrs. Josephine Heideburg and small daughter, of Coles, Wash., have returned to their home in Idaho. There are a number of baby chicks being received here from different hatcheries. They are mostly White Leghorns.

Mrs. Mary Garner has returned from Welter, Idaho, where she has visited her son, George Charles, and daughter, Mrs. Myron Lions. Mrs. Garner will spend the summer here with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Zaugg. Ernest Kohler and Clifton Wilder were speakers at the local church Sunday.

A very enjoyable dance was given here Saturday with about 30 couples present. Pie was served during the evening. The Imbler orchestra furnished the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell McCoy entered the city recently, honoring Mr. McCoy's nephew who is visiting here from Portland.

Miss Clara Richards has purchased a new car.

E. A. Cleiman, of Yakima, Wash., is in the community on business recently.

Karl Zaugg and two sisters, Miss Eliza and Zina, have returned from Salt Lake City where they were in attendance at the annual conference of the I. D. S. church. Mr. Zaugg reports the crop outlook in Idaho and Utah not nearly so far advanced as in the Grande Ronde valley. He said this valley looked better than any he had seen on the trip.

Mrs. J. A. Leak gave a party to some of her friends Tuesday evening.

Duty of Big Business

It seems to me that economic society owes the faithful and efficient worker three things and these are: the highest possible wage, security of employment, and provision for the days of retirement. A worker who is not obtaining these three things cannot function at full efficiency.—Owen D. Young in Collier's Weekly.

Getting True Opinion

Discover the opinion of your enemies, which is commonly the truth; for they will give you no quarter, and allow nothing to compromise.—Pravden.

Modeled on Stars and Stripes

The flag of Liberia is identical with ours, except for the fact that it has a single star upon its field. In fact, our flag was taken as a model for theirs.

"Middle" Story

Mezzanine means a story of diminished height; introduced between two higher stories. It is derived from "mezzo," an Italian word meaning middle.

PILES PAIN THOUSANDS

An old Chinese proverb says, "Nine in 10 suffer from piles," but the pain and itching of blind, protruding or bleeding piles usually are alleviated within a few minutes by soothing, healing Dr. Nixon's Chinese Balm, fortified with a rare, imported Chinese herb, having amazing power to relieve itching, burning, and stinging, and to soothe and soothe and soothe.

Polio "A friend tells me I lack noise, but seems unable to explain what noise is." It is keeping level-headed in all kinds of situations that arise unexpectedly.—Exchange.

Navy's Oldest Ship, Saved From Boneyard, Wins Laurels Again By Quake Relief Dash

The cruiser Rochester, oldest active vessel in the American navy, was one of the ships which rushed to the relief of earthquake victims in Nicaragua. The map shows her sphere of recent activity.

More Demands To Be Made on U. S. Treasury By World War Veterans

By Rodney Dutcher (NEA Service Writer)
WASHINGTON—There is no reason to suppose that the veterans of the World War will cease their demands on the treasury until the last one has passed to his final reward.

Or that succeeding congresses will fail to heed their pleas. History already has begun to repeat itself and the assurance that the veterans hope to accelerate that time-honored process has been indicated by the national commander of the American Legion.

Resting not on a noble record of accomplishment, including soldier bonuses, the beginnings of a pension system, the bonus itself and other federal veteran expenditures exceeding $1,000,000,000 last year, Commander O'Neil has outlined proposals for further measures which will be presented to the next and subsequent sessions of congress.

After each war it has required a shorter period to persuade congress to grant pension and subsistence allowances to veterans of the war. World war veterans number more than 4,000,000 and consequently are able to bring all the more pressure.

So the latter had to wait but 12 years before congress granted them an additional 10 percent increase in their allowances. It is not clear whether the disabilities were connected with war service or not.

Commander O'Neil's demands have caused considerable stir but no great surprise because everyone has expected that veterans, already benefiting from legislation which has created the largest single budget on the treasury, would demand more and more until the $35,000,000,000 which the war already has cost.

There are those who already predict that the adjusted compensation certificates will eventually be forgiven the borrowers. No such demand has yet come from the veterans, but it is asserted here that it will ever be made, and that it can be said with some assurance that if the veterans ever do get behind such a movement they will find plenty of eager support in congress and perhaps enough to jam it through.

Relief for wives and children of veterans now in hospital and in the hospital facilities for veterans who will need treatment in the future, also expected by Commander O'Neil, presumably will come right along.

Proposes Increase Then there's the commander's proposal for increasing the disability compensation for World War veterans to the level allowed to veterans of other wars, on the theory that the veteran of one war is entitled to as much money as the veteran of another. Spanish war veterans monthly service pensions now run up to $60 a month on a scale which took them 32 years to achieve and when the World War veterans achieve a similar scale, disability payments will increase correspondingly in cost.

Eventually there will be an ultimate general pension bill for every veteran and congress will pass it unless it reverses all previous performance. That, presumably, will represent the high watermark of America's post-war expenses.

Sturdy Breed of Dog The Eskimo dog is harder than any other domestic animal, surviving blizzards, cold and hunger with remarkable endurance.

Everybody Shoves a Fat Man One advantage of being fat is that the weightline provides a useful good shock-absorber in a revolving door.—Louisville Times

Derivation of "Golf" The word golf is probably from the Dutch word "kolf," meaning club.

STAGES LEAVE From Corner of Elm and Jefferson

WALLOWA VALLEY COACHES NEW SCHEDULE EFFECTIVE JUNE 1

Leave — La Grande for Joseph and Way Points 9:45 A. M. 4:00 P. M.

9:45 A. M. Makes Direct Connection at Enterprise for Lewiston and Spokane.

FOR INFORMATION CALL MAIN 799

BALBOA, C. Z. (AP)—Saved from the boneyard by the fire that destroyed the presidential yacht Mayflower, the U. S. S. Rochester, cruiser of a thousand traditions and the oldest ship in the navy, did yeoman service in the Nicaraguan earthquake relief.

Born in the day for service—her keel was laid in 1891—the Rochester had already been ordered home for dismantling when fire wrecked the Mayflower, which had been slated to succeed her flagship of the special service squadron in Central America.

With the Rochester, Rear Admiral Arthur St. Clair Smith was to have supervised the withdrawal of 500 American marines from Nicaragua had not the earthquake intervened.

How the Rochester has managed to stay in service for 40 years no one ventures to explain. She has defied the mandates of international treaties on naval limitations, she has fought in two wars, and only 15 officers now in active service were in the navy when her keel was laid.

To 1,000 officers and 10,000 men who trod her decks, she is affectionately known as the "Rocky." They have poked her ram bow into more than 300 ports, cruising up and down the Atlantic to England's Straits, across the Japan's inland sea and up Chinese rivers—usually with an admiral's flag fluttering at her main truck.

Perhaps her age is best attested by the fact that Rear Admiral Julian L. Latimer served aboard her as an ensign and Rear Admiral David P. Sellers as a midshipman, both returning to her later as admirals.

Other testimony to her long years is found in her wardrobe. It contains a silver punch bowl presented in the pre-prohibition days of 1893 when the ship was accepted for service and named the Saratoga and was on convoy duty. She acquired her present title in 1920.

Another relic is a scrapbook of pre-radio days, telling of her trial run off the Massachusetts coast in 1893. A faded newspaper clipping relates that the news of that run was sent to the Boston Journal by carrier pigeons.

On May 19, 1904, she was at the Spanish forts at San Juan, Porto Rico, losing one man killed and four wounded. In the World War she had become the Saratoga and was on convoy duty. She acquired her present title in 1920.

How long she will continue in active service her friends in the navy do not venture to predict. But they hope it will be long. To them the "Rocky" is not old—only a bit out of style.

Lindbergh Can't Land on Ship Deck

CLEVELAND, O., April 22 (AP)—There aren't many fliers who can do a trick with an airplane that cannot be duplicated by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh. One exception, however, is David S. Ingalls, assistant secretary of the navy who is one of the country's best fliers, can land on the deck of a navy aircraft carrier—and Lindbergh can't.

The reason why Lindbergh cannot duplicate the trick is a private little matter between Ingalls and himself, which was revealed by the assistant navy secretary last night in an address before the officers of the American Legion post here.

Ingalls chuckled as he showed moving pictures of a plane landing on a carrier. "That's the only thing I can do on Lindbergh," he said. "Lindbergh can't because I won't let him—not as long as I am assistant secretary of the navy."

increasing independence, yet never expects too much of him at once and is ready always to give help when help is really needed.

Fatigue, excitement, emotional upsets—all put the child in a frame of mind which makes it difficult for him to do his best or indeed to do anything which requires of him conscious and concentrated effort.

When he is learning any new process, it is enough if week by week he improves even a little bit. It is better for him to progress slowly and steadily than to make strikingly swift achievements at the cost of excessive nervous strain and possibly unpleasant associations which later on may cause him to backslide and lose all the ground that he has gained.

Roseburg Provides Airport Buildings

ROSEBURG, Ore., April 22 (AP)—An appropriation of $600 was authorized by the city council Monday night to be added to the $2,000 city airport funds, to be used in construction of an administration building and hangar at the municipal airport. Construction will be started immediately. The building will provide an office, waiting and rest room and space for storage of three ships.

Chats With Parents

ENOUGH HELP By Alley Judson Peale Because we have only recently begun to realize how much little children can do for themselves, there is a present tendency among those mothers who keep up with new ideas in child training to over-train their children in independence.

There are many things which a child is capable of doing for himself which, nevertheless, it is not always desirable to permit him to do.

Undressing is, for instance, much easier than dressing, yet the child who button all his buttons in the morning fusses and whines and dawdles over having to unbutton them at night. Because he is tired the easier task may be much too difficult.

A two-year-old who ordinarily is quite a master of his cup and spoon handles and spins his food when for the first time he eats a meal away from home, or when his day has been an unusually emotional or exciting one.

The wise mother recognizes the necessity for training her child to

Fertilizer - For Better Lawns and Gardens

Try Our Fertilizer PRICED AT 50c per Sack ASK FOR QUANTITY PRICES

Broomfield & Richardson 308 Greenwood Phone M 714

FALK'S LA GRANDE STORE Successors to N.K. WEST & CO.
Illustration of a woman in a dress and a circular logo.

FACTS ABOUT YOUR FIGURE
The revealing lines of the new gowns make correct corsetry imperative to the smart woman of today. Falk's models for Spring are designed to prepare the figure for the new lines, attaining the slim waistline, molded hips, and uplift bustline, so much desired. Various models make it possible for every woman to express her personal preference. Many dainty models are fashioned of lace and silk for festive occasions; others more practical are skillfully tailored of brocade and satin tulle, but all are effective in their purpose of molding the feminine figure to its most desirable proportions.
Girdles . . . $1.00 to $4.95
Corselettes $2.25 to $4.95

Lawn Mowers OUR JUBILEE SPECIAL
A 16 inch mower equipped with 5 steel cutting blades, 10 inch wheels and full ball bearings attractively finished.
A Real Value at $11.75

W. H. Bohnenkamp Co.
Illustration of a child and a cow.

Blue Mountain Milk BELONGS in EVERY HOME
This milk used in the pudding, Boy! It almost makes one shout for joy.
Illustration of a child and a cow.