Lucky Dozen Club Is Entertained

Eleven members of the Lucky Dozen club were entertained at a delightful luncheon and informal afternoon yesterday at the home of Mrs. H. E. Richey. Pastel colors, carried out in the table decorations of wild flowers, dog tooth violets and daffodils, were used as the color scheme.

Favors, which were small sewing cases sent from San Francisco by Miss LaVelle Richey, were presented to each guest. Another clever feature of the table decorations was the small candle sticks which matched the favors.

Following the luncheon the afternoon was spent informally in visiting and sewing.

Mrs. Ernest Bray will entertain the group in two weeks.

Cliff Dwellers To Be Discussed

A truly American program, dealing with a type of the earliest life in America, the cliff dwellers will be presented by Mrs. P. S. Robinson at a meeting of the Neighborhood Music club Monday evening at 7:30 in the ball room at the La Grande hotel. These Indians were the oldest, most highly developed, and most religious in North America, Mrs. Robinson states. They were sun worshippers, and had a song for every occasion.

The Gatusi Camp Fire Girls will sing the hymn to the sun, the most ancient of the sacred chants of the cliff dwellers. Others who will assist on the program are Mrs. W. W. Nusbaum, Miss Lenore Headley, E. E. Hurley, Kermit Hagain, Ronald Heasler and Cecil Black.

Mrs. Robinson will present the description of the Indians and their customs and music.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Is Held

The annual mother-daughter banquet was an event of Friday evening at 6 o'clock at the Methodist church with the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary societies joined to entertain their daughters. The event also commemorated the anniversary of the founding of the Foreign society.

An interesting program, arranged by Mrs. L. V. Duncan and Mrs. R. F. Tyler, was presented, with Mrs. Tyler acting as toastmistress. The program was:

Opening—Grace, by Rev. W. H. Hertzog.

Piano duet, by Mrs. W. W. Pierson and daughter, Bernetta.

"Our Daughters," a welcome to the girls, by Mrs. L. V. Duncan.

"Our Mothers," a response, by Marylou Piper.

Violin solo, by Fern Duncan, accompanied by Miss Piper.

Missionary reading, by Bernita Hyde.

"The Master Wants You," a reading, by Miss Mabel Doty.

Musical readings, Mrs. H. C. McClay, accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Parkinson.

Toast from the mothers to the girls, Mrs. Tyler.

Toast from the girls to the mothers, Clarice Taylor.

Mrs. E. C. Shellworth and Mrs. E. B. Kendrick were in charge of the kitchen committee for the banquet, while Mrs. G. C. Headley was chairman of the dining room committee. Boys who served were Fred Hertzog, Adam Leighton, Warren Lyell, Boyd Jackson, George Moats, Leonard Case and Lynn Pierson.

Sock and Buskin To Present Play

"The Boor," by Tchekhov, will be presented at a meeting of the Neighborhood club Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock by Sock and Buskin, dramatic society of the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Sock and Buskin members are making their costumes and the stage scenery under the direction of Normal school faculty members. Miss Lena Foley is directing the production.

Preceding the play, which is rather lively almost to the point of farce, a resume of the Russian drama will be presented. Music to accompany the play is being planned.

Benefit Program Event of Friday

Miss Helen Mary Clark and a group of her dancing pupils entertained at the Riverside Ladies Aid benefit last night at Lane chapel. Numbers on the program included: dolly dance, Helen Jean Webb; "Bounch," a dance by the group; military tap dance, Ralph Winters, Billy Jackson and Arlo Niederer; Peggy's jazz band, by the group; Peter Pan dance, Betty Stein; sweetheart song and dance, by the group, assisted by Miss Clark; two waltz clogs, one by Miss Orvaline McWilliams and one by Miss Jacqueline Jenkins. Rev. M. G. Tennyson, rector of St. Peter's church, sang accompanied by Mrs. H. N. Ashby. His numbers were "Largo" by Dvorak and "Gypsy Love Song." Mrs. Arthur Huff presented a reading, "Jimmy Brown's Sister's Wedding;" and Eunice Meldrum, six years old, recited "My Pussy Willow Cat."

Miss Kathleen Huff played as a piano solo, "Lady Moon's Evening Song;" Mrs. H. C. McClay read "Widowk McGee" and "April Fool."

Homer Love was presented with a quilt and Robert Stein received a rug as a special feature of the benefit.

Refreshments were served following the program, with Mrs. C. H. Blystone in charge.

Lions Auxiliary To Make Favors

Favors which will be used at one of the dinners in honor of the women who attended the Lions club convention here in June, will be made at an auxiliary meeting Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Sacajawea Inn. All favors are to be made of purple and gold, the Lions club colors.

After the favors are completed the women will be taken to the home of one of the members, the place to be announced at the meeting, and refreshments will be served.

La Grande-Baker Meeting Planned

The Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, No. 21, has changed the hour of its meeting on Monday from the afternoon until the evening when the members will be joined at the Eagles hall by the Baker grove, and the Baker Pacific Woodmen for a banquet and joint meeting.

Juvenile Supervisor Minnie Browning also states that the juveniles are to meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at 707 Grandy avenue for a regular meeting. The captain will be present and a large attendance is urged. The meeting will be dismissed at 9 o'clock.

40, HE TAKES BRIDE AGED 11

Children marry in India—and nobody cares. But when Albert Bryan, left, who admits he's 40 years old, married little 11-year-old Rosetta Copling at Council Bluffs, Ia., an investigation was started. The girl, ill with mumps, declares the wedding was at her request. Her mother, also married at the same time, testified Rosetta was 16 as the double ceremony was performed with the couples acting as witnesses for each other.

MEYERS HOME PURCHASED BY MR. STRINGHAM

By Mrs. L. E. Hill
(Observer Correspondent)

ELGIN, Ore. (Special)—The residence owned by Matt Boswell and formerly occupied by the Don Meyers family has been sold. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stringham, who own and operate the City Drug store, are the new owners. Their new home is ideally located in the block adjoining the store and is one of the nicest homes in Elgin. As soon as the slight remodeling of the interior is finished they plan to take possession. Mrs. Sturgill, of Union, who is Mrs. Stringham's mother, will move here soon to make her home with them.

The cemetery association, which has for its primary object the care and upkeep of the local cemetery, met with Mrs. Luella Long recently. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Mrs. William Russell, president; Mrs. Long, vice president; Mrs. Albert Rasmussen, treasurer and Mrs. Jesse Crum, secretary. At the meeting also, a cleanup day was planned to put the cemetery in order. Charles Moore offered the services of his horses to help with the work. Eugene Garrett was employed as caretaker for the season and he has already begun on his work of putting the grounds in order. Elgin has a very pretty cemetery and with the added attention being shown it will be more satisfactory than before.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keen are planning to move soon to their farm several miles up in the Gordon creek district.

Mrs. Ida Gordon and daughters were weekend guests of her sister and family, the William Nelsons, of Elgin. Mr. Stoop, who has been making his home in Maxville, was also here. He is the father of Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Nelson.

Elgin's contestants in the declamatory contest held last week in Arlington were not successful in gaining first places. Two of the lower grade pupils, Mildred Hardy, of the fifth grade, and Jack Cummins, of the third, won gold medals at La Grande, and Ruth Merritt, of the sixth grade was given second place in her group.

At the call of the Elgin auxiliary president, Mrs. Bess Oke, the executive committee of the auxiliary met at her home last Monday evening. The new charter for the organization was received a few days previous to this meeting. Ways and means for raising necessary funds were discussed. Also a few plans for social meetings were talked over.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Meyers and family are moving into the house formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Verne Payne. The Meyers' have been living in La Grande for several months.

The Lee Payne family moved this week into Walter Hill's house just west of the railroad. While their plans are not entirely settled, they expect to remain here during this summer.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Lynn Hill on Thursday afternoon. Routine business was transacted with Mrs. Stella Witty, vice president in charge. The next regular meeting will be held with Mrs. William Smith on May 7.

Fred Miller left Sunday for Vale where he has been employed for the last several years on the highway work. He has spent the winter months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, of Cricket Flat.

Glenn Galloway, who has been employed at a local store, has been transferred to Baker. Jack Parsons has been employed by the local store to assist Paul Sadler, the manager.

The Eastern Star social club will be entertained on May 1 by Mrs. J. C. Rice at her home. Mrs. Willis, one of the past matrons of Blue Mountain chapter, will assist Mrs. Rice.

Dwight and Otto Barnes are spending this week in Stanfield where they are working on a farm belonging to Dwight Barnes.

The Loyal Women of the Christian church held their regular meeting Thursday at the W. F. Hug home.

Mr. Henderick, of Irrigon, is in Elgin this week. He has many friends here whom he knew during his residence here a number of years ago.

1½ cups diced asparagus.
4 tablespoons chopped celery.
2 tablespoons chopped onions.
2 tablespoons chopped pimentos.
1 teaspoon salt.
½ teaspoon pepper.
3 cups water.
4 tablespoons butter.
6 tablespoons flour.
4 cups milk.
4 tablespoons cream.

Mix the asparagus, seasonings and water. Cover and cook slowly for 20 minutes in a covered pan. Mash well. Melt the butter and add the flour, blend and add the milk and cook until a creamy sauce forms. Stir constantly. Add the asparagus mixture and cook 2 minutes. Add the cream.

Jellied Tuna Salad (Using Leftovers)

1 package lemon flavored gelatin mixture.
1¾ cups boiling water.
3 tablespoons lemon juice.
½ teaspoon salt.
1 tablespoon sugar.
1 cup tuna.
1 cup diced celery.
2 tablespoons chopped pimentos.
2 tablespoons chopped sweet pickles.
2-3 cup cooked peas.

Pour the water over the gelatin mixture and stir until it has dissolved. Add the lemon juice, salt and sugar. Cool and allow to thicken a little. Add rest of ingredients. Pour into a loaf mold which has been rinsed out of cold water. Set in cold place to stiffen. Unmold on lettuce and top with salad dressing.

Orange Filling for White Cake
