Thursday To Be Women's Day At La Grande Club

Thursday has been set aside as women's day at the La Grande country club, and on Thursday every week a special event for women is to be planned by the tournament committee, Mrs. John Theisen announces. Later in the spring there will be numerous Thursday social events, including luncheons and supper parties.

Thursday, April 30, a one club tournament is being planned, for which each player is to choose any one club and play the entire game with it. All women who have entered the sweepstakes are privileged to take part, playing anytime Thursday.

Architecture Is Studied by Club

Gothic architecture was the subject for study at a meeting of the Art Research club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Roehm. Mrs. H. A. Zurbrick described the Gothic construction and form in cathedrals. Mrs. H. G. Avery described the cathedral at Armiels, and Mrs. Roehm spoke on Gothic design in the stone work of the cathedral and stain glass windows. The Canterbury and Durham cathedrals in England were described by Mrs. P. R. Finlay.

Tea was served by the hostess following the program. Mrs. Fred H. Riddle, at Island City, is to be the next hostess for the club in two weeks.

Miss Shell Will Wed A. J. Bale Jr.

The engagement of Miss Edith Mable Shell to A. J. Bale Jr., of San Francisco, was announced Saturday at an attractively appointed luncheon in the Campbell Court hotel. Places were arranged for about 18 of the younger contingent, the announcement coming as a genuine surprise to the guests.

The wedding will be an event of June 17 in Portland.

Miss Shell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Shell, of Wallowa, and is popular with a wide circle of friends in Portland. Mr. Bale is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bale of San Francisco, and is also well known in Portland.—Oregonian.

Bible Searchers Honor Rev. Walz

One of the most delightful of the week's social events at the city churches is the dinner at which the Bible Searchers class of the Presbyterian church entertained last night at 6:30 o'clock to honor the pastor, Rev. J. George Walz, on the occasion of his birthday anniversary, to which the families of the class members were invited. One hundred and thirty attended the affair, which was held at the church.

Mr. Walz was presented with a large birthday cake by the Harry Turner family, and Mrs. Turner, who is president of the class, made the presentation speech. C. M. Humphreys thanked the class for the dinner and congratulated them on their success. Mr. Humphreys, on behalf of the class, also presented Mr. Walz with a birthday present.

Following the dinner which was served with the guests seated at four large tables, each decorated with flowers, Mrs. William Barclay presented an interesting program of music and readings. Mrs. Chris Miller, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Lynn Wright, sang "Juanita" and "Coming Through the Rye" with Miss Katharine Wissler playing the violin obligato. Mrs. Wright gave a group of amusing readings, including "The Mourning Veil" and "Courting in Kentucky."

"The Pilgrim," by Speaker; and "The Conquerer," by Zanecick, were played by the Sunday school orchestra under the direction of Mrs. S. B. Morgan. As a violin solo, Miss Wissler played "Song of India," by Rimsky-Korsakow.

Mrs. O. May Noyes was in charge of the dinner committee, assisted by Mrs. Ed. Roland, Mrs. Elizabeth Buck, Mrs. L. M. Hoyt, Mrs. E. Hollister, Mrs. Myrtle Broughton and Mrs. Charles Blystone. Mrs. Kennedy was in charge of the table committee, assisted by Mrs. David Wyllie, Mrs. C. M. Humphreys, Miss Alma Cusick, Mrs. Clyde Davis and Mrs. Bray.

Royal Neighbors Meet Last Night

An unusually large group attended the meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America last night at the Odd Fellows hall. Four new members were received into the order and will be initiated at the next meeting on May 11. They are Mrs. Lena Harmon, Mrs. Lois Evans, Mrs. Ruby Berry and Mrs. Lula Andrews.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. McCrosky and Mr. and Mrs. Poffy, all of Baker. Mrs. McCrosky is district deputy for the Neighbors.

A varied and interesting program followed the business meeting, which was opened by the Misses Nora and Irene Sitler singing a duet, "Moonlight on the Colorado."

"Tuning Up For The Wedding," a playlet, was presented by a group of the members with Mrs. Velma Vedder playing the part of Letha, the bride. Her older sisters were Emily, played by Mrs. Bessie McManus, and Nina, by Mrs. Lucille Price. Della, the belligerent cook, was portrayed by Mrs. Bertha White. Mrs. Harry Sitler had the part of Miss Truby, a persistent book agent; and Miss Bernice Weeks acted the part of Mrs. Ragan, a near and very "nosey" neighbor. Mrs. Bayne, another near neighbor, who explains how things were done when she was a bride, was taken by Mrs. Effie Young. The nuisances, the terrible twins, who were always in mischief, were Mrs. Judith Root and Miss Nora Sitler, while their chum, Frieda, was played by Miss Lela Winburn. Mrs. L. W. Weeks assisted with the play.

Refreshments were served after the program with Mrs. Gladys Lilly in charge.

Mrs. Otis Veal Entertains Group

Mrs. Otis Veal entertained Monday evening for the Gleaner class of the M. I. A. at her home. The evening was spent making quilt blocks which will be made into a quilt to be sent to the L. D. S. children's hospital in Salt Lake City. The sun-bonnet baby is used as the motif in the quilts which will be finished at the meeting next Monday evening at the home of Miss Bertha Thompson.

The hostess served a two-course luncheon at the close of the evening.

Miss Irma Samuelson will assist Miss Thompson next week.

State President Guest at Meeting

Mrs. Madeline Nash, of Salem, department president of the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, was a guest of honor at the meeting of the local tent last night at the Moose hall. Mrs. Laura Rhodes presided over the meeting and introduced Mrs. Nash, the main speaker of the evening. She spoke of the growth and progress of the order and stressed the importance of all eligible daughters and granddaughters making early applications for the war records of their forefathers and fathers, since time makes tracing the papers more difficult. She stated that all who wish to obtain their ancestral records, whether they wished to join the Daughters or not, would be assisted by any member of the order without charge.

A gift was presented by the tent to Mrs. Nash with Mrs. Rhodes making the presentation speech.

Following the meeting music was furnished by the fife and drum corps of the Sons of Union Veterans, and refreshments were served. Mrs. Lucy Buell was in charge, assisted by Mrs. Marietta Yeck, Mrs. Ida Gutridge and Mrs. Goldie Evans.

The next meeting has been scheduled for May 11 at the Moose hall.

Oregon Jewelers Elect Officials

SALEM, April 28 (AP) — J. S. Zell, Portland, and A. A. Keene, Salem, were re-elected president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the Oregon Retail Jewelers' association, at the close of the 24th annual convention of the association last night.

Other officers elected were P. T. Bubar, Roseburg, first vice president; Seth French, Albany, second vice president; Larry Shade, Medford, third vice president; Carl Greve and Frank A. Heltkemper, both of Portland, members of the executive committee.

Congressman W. C. Hawley addressed the association during the afternoon session, sketching briefly the economic conditions, their causes and effects. "If the people can be pursuaded that economic recovery is in their own hands, that it is their own problem to learn to trade and buy to the extent that they are able, business can be brought back to a healthy normalcy," The congressman said.

More than 150 jewelers attended the convention.

ST. ANDREWS TO BE REBUILT, CORBETT SAYS

PENDLETON, Ore., Apr. 28 (Special)—St. Andrew's Catholic Indian boys' school will be rebuilt "bigger and better," it was announced Monday by Father Corbett, head of the institution. The school, a brick structure erected 40 years ago at the base of Cabbage hill on the Umatilla Indian reservation, was totally destroyed by fire last Thursday.

"The satisfactorily adjusted insurance, the assured cooperation of the Pendleton Knights of Columbus, and my confidence in the 'social service-mindedness' of my Pendleton fellow citizens bid me face the future with radiant hope and undaunted resolve, Father Corbett declared. "We will build bigger and better."

The 60 boys and girls at the mission are enjoying the educational work of the school as usual, Father Corbett said. Fortunately the school's kitchen, located in the separate building used by the boarding school girls and the Sisters of St. Francis was spared by the flames, and with hastily obtained cots, blankets and tents the school was continued without much disruption of the ordinary routine. A nearby vacant school house is also being used by the boys.

88 IN PENDLETON

PENDLETON, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP) — The temperature rose to the highest point of the season here yesterday when a maximum of 88 degrees was reached. Similar hot weather was expected today.

CRACKSMEN GET LOOT

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP) — Safes in the offices of three downtown dentists yielded $1250 in money, dental gold and jewelry to experienced cracksmen, police were told today. The three offices were broken into last night. In each case the combination had been hammered from the safe.
