live at the lake, are in La Grande, called there by the passing of Mr. Williamson's father.

Mr. Zuber, who has been out working for Gaulke and Kernoy, came here Wednesday. Mr. Zuber reports sheep in good condition and the range good.

Frank Kreesman returned Monday from Heppner where he had been shearing sheep.

Mrs. Grace Turnbull, evangelist of Joseph but now living at Stanfield, is holding meeting in Enterprise and people are going each night to hear her. Mr. Turnbull was agent for the railroad company when they lived here.

When the Phillips pulled their big winter deal with the Brooklyn Robins in search for much-needed pitching talent, they accepted outfielder Hal Lee merely as a part of the bargain.

The situation now is he may prove the most valuable part of it. Lee has stepped into Lefty O'Doul's vacated spot in left field and played fine ball while the two pitchers acquired from Brooklyn, Dudley and Ray Steele, the California muscle man, is the "pollocman" of the troupe of investors performing under the banner of Promoter Jack Curley. "Steele," according to this operative report, "is supposedly the best wrestler of the group but lacks color. Whenever anyone new joins the troupe, they lose him in with Steele and the latter finds out how good the new comer is. Steele played Myaki, the Japanese, in a few minutes, threw Garcer Kahn, the Turk, in five and the other night, when they played it first out now good this Genji Kaimakura was Steele went in and flattened him."

Just thrown in.
