

U. H. S. SENIORS GRADUATE MAY 8

Commencement Exercises,
Baccalaureate Services
Insure Busy Week.

By W. V. Connor
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special) — Plans for the graduation week of the 1931 class of the Union school are practically complete. First on the program will be the baccalaureate service at the Methodist church Sunday evening, May 10 by Rev. R. C. Lee. Monday evening the seniors will be entertained at the Union hotel at the annual junior-senior banquet. The class day exercises will be held Tuesday afternoon in the high school assembly. Thursday evening the annual class play will be given at the school gym by a cast from the senior class. Graduation exercises will be in the gym Friday evening. The speaker for this evening has not yet been selected. At the close of the evening's program high school diplomas will be handed out to: Doris Croner, Ronald Crowland, Orestis Baum, Lowell Hutchinson, Reynolds Baxter, Barton Conner, Lois Gline, Edith Cheney, Kenneth Calvin, Leonard Clark, Max DeFore, Edna Edwards, Vivian Jory, Mervine Kofford, Wilfred Liedtke, Dorothy Posey, Glen Taylor, Ray Stratton, Glase Vaden, Irene Wilkinson, Weldon Weaver, Eldora Hutchinson, Royal Wilde, Allen Yauger.

Miss Hazel Tatro, who has been living here with her mother, left a few days ago for Lebanon, Oregon. She was called to the Western Oregon town by the illness of her father, Dr. Charles Tatro, who is practicing in Lebanon, and will be gone indefinitely.

Examinations, class picnics, the last issue of the school paper, the "U-H", and other activities connected with the close of a school year will occupy much of the students' time from now until the close of the local schools May 15.

The last regular play of the year, besides the senior class play, will be given Friday evening by the following cast from the junior class: Oliver Montfort, Rodney Miller, Harmon

Vandorn, "Chet" Baum; Jack Minton, Gaylord Prather. Old Ikey, "Vic" Gamble, Hawkins; Earl Cook, Bella; Fawn Geertsen, Linzie, Frieda Brown, Mrs. Dibble, Lola Mayette, Hannah; Maxine Johnson. The play they will give is a four-act comedy drama entitled "The Iron Hand."

This week's issue of the Union Republican carries a poem which was formerly printed in the Denver Post and is the work of a local girl, Louisa Cox. She is 12 years old and a member of the eighth grade in the Union School. The poem is entitled "After An April Shower."

Cyrus Williams has returned home after spending several weeks at Hot Lake. He had the misfortune to break a leg while working with a horse on his ranch south of Union.

The Alumni association of the local high school will present a varied program at the school gym Monday evening, May 4. The entertainment will be in the nature of a vaudeville and will include some of the new songs, as well as interesting stunts.

If present arrangements are completed there will be a clinic held at the office of Dr. Hoffman, local dentist, on the morning of May 6. The county health nurse, Miss Alice Marquardt, and Dr. Leva Wilkes, Dr. Margaret Ingle and Dr. Hoffman will have charge of the clinic, which will last from 9 until 12 o'clock.

Steve Harn and family, Mrs. Harn's father, "Dad" Lamb, Mrs. Pete Wolf and Jack Reeves are leaving this week for Trina, Ariz., where they will attend a reunion of the Lamb family. They will go by way of Salt Lake City and California and will be gone about a month.

Rev. R. C. Lee, pastor of the local Methodist church, who has been in Los Angeles for the past two weeks attending a national convention, writes that he expects to be home this weekend. He preached in the Los Angeles Community church and the Wilshire Boulevard Methodist church while in the California city.

The local Christian church is holding a series of revival meetings in the hall they are using as a church on Main street. The services began Tuesday evening.

A very pretty and interesting May day program was given by the pupils of the fourth grade room in the Union school. It was in the nature of a kindergarten May day entertainment and the primary grades were invited up to enjoy the numbers. Miss Rosea Burns, a La Grande girl, is the teacher of the fourth grade.

Warm weather and high water have practically put an end to fishing in Catherine creek for the present.

Principal Kratz, of the North Powder schools, was a Union visitor Wednesday afternoon.

F. A. Fortier, local oil man, has been transferred to North Powder and Union will be cared for by the truck which comes from La Grande.

Mrs. Lon Mitchell and Mrs. Myrtle Gline are spending a week visiting in Spokane. Mrs. Gline is taking her vacation from the local telephone exchange.

The local state fish hatchery is busy just at this time getting the young Chinook salmon out into the streams of Eastern Oregon. Shipments have been taken lately to the Minam, and to Halfway to be turned loose in the streams.

EAST NORMAL NATURE CLUB VISITS COVE

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin
(Observer Correspondent)

COVE, Ore. (Special) — The Nature club of the Eastern Oregon Normal school enjoyed a party at the Cove swimming pool Wednesday, April 29. Miss Kate Houx and several other teachers were in the party, about 32 in all. Miss Lucile Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Peck, of Cove, a Normal school student, was also in the party. After their swim they went to the camp grounds where they enjoyed their lunch over a campfire.

Mrs. L. J. Chadwick and Mrs. John Miller entertained the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church at the home of Mrs. Chadwick Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in games of various kinds and a dainty lunch was served. Those present were Mrs. M. J. Duffy, Mrs. A. A. Antles, Mrs. A. E. Hartley, Mrs. J. H. Allen, Mrs. E. C. Rees, Mrs. Mac Rees, Mrs. Roy Baker, Mrs. T. R. Conklin, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. L. M. Lantz, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Cora Bloom, Mrs. C. W. Clark, Mrs. Thomas Towler, Mrs. O. Lund, Mrs. Thos. C. Hefty, Mrs. Minnie McDannel, Mrs. Joe Coyette, Mrs. Leonard Towler, Mrs. O. M. Gardner, Mrs. A. H. Orton, Mrs. Mae Keiley, Mrs. Tom Harris, Mrs. J. K. Robinson and Mrs. Harlan Koger.

Mrs. M. Loree was brought home from Hot Lake Wednesday so much improved in health that her recovery is looked for.
