

LOCAL BRIEFS

To Pendleton—Miss Helen Moor, dean of women at the Eastern Oregon Normal, and Miss Amanda Zabel head of the English department, drove to Pendleton yesterday, Miss Moor to be the speaker at a mother-daughter banquet held there last evening.

In Weiser—Mrs. Kate S. Hall and daughter, Patricia Ann, went to Weiser Sunday and spent "Mother's Day" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Len Daniels and family. Miss Ruth Margaret Hall has been at the Daniels' home for several weeks.

Quita Filled—With the enlistment and acceptance of Leo Harry Williams, of Dayton, Wash., in the United States navy in La Grande recently, the quota for May for the recruiting station which has headquarters here, was filled. Recruiting Officer R. L. Endeley stated, Mr. Williams enlisted in La Grande on May 4, passed his physical and mental examination in Portland, and has now arrived at San Diego where he will enter the naval training station.

Enters Forest—Ranger Gerald J. Tucker, of La Grande, left this morning for Duncan, from where he will go into the Umatilla forest to start summer maintenance work. He will examine wires, trails, ranges, etc., and expects to return to La Grande about May 30.

Visits Mother—Robert Collins and Miss Margaret Bauer, of The Dalles, visited at the home of Mr. Collins' mother, Mrs. P.

J. Stillwell, during the past weekend. They also visited Mr. Collins' sister, Mrs. Chet Stalcup. They returned to their homes in The Dalles Sunday evening. Mr. Collins is employed by an ice cream manufacturing concern in his home city.

Mrs. Van Buren Here—Mrs. Sade Van Buren, of Portland, has returned for a visit and a business trip to La Grande, her former home city. She expects to remain for a few days.

On Business Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Orisell are in Newbridge on a business trip at present.

Move to Bridgeport—Mr. and Mrs. George Little have moved from La Grande to Bridgeport where they expect to make their home on a ranch in the future.

Honor Willie Torrence—Mr. and Mrs. William Torrence entertained for their son, Willie Torrence, last evening at a four-course dinner. Willie was high point man at the state track meet at Corvallis Saturday. The house was decorated with flowers of the season and a program of songs and speeches featured the meeting. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jones and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. F. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Childs, Mrs. J. DeLoney, Mrs. J. Ruiz, Odie Jones, Miss Ellen Torrence and the host and hostess and honor guest.

Visits Mrs. Freiberg—Mrs. Clara Carroll, of Des Moines, Iowa, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Freiberg, in La Grande for an indefinite length of time.

Returns to La Grande—After spending the weekend in Portland and Newport visiting with friends, Miss Enid Burnett returned yesterday to her home here. She left for the western part of the state Saturday morning.

Visits Daughter—Mrs. Nellie Ford, of Baker, spent Mother's day with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Hatt, in La Grande. She returned to her home in Baker yesterday.

Mr. Pierce n Portland—Walter M. Pierce spent the weekend in Portland transacting business. Ex-Governor Pierce is to be one of the speakers at the annual meeting of the Oregon Cattle and Horse Raisers' association to be held in John Day, May 21 and 22. He will speak on "Ranches 30 Years Ago and Today." F. E. Mollin, of Denver, Colorado, secretary of the National Livestock association, will appear on the program and will tell of livestock conditions over the United States. Others to attend, some of whom will speak, are E. A. Phillips, secretary of the Montana association; B. C. Barnwell, of Swift and company, who will discuss dry ice and its effect on modern merchandising of meats; Dr. W. A. Schoenfeld, western representative of the federal farm board, who will tell of the federal farm board activities with the livestock man. Plans are being made for over 200 visitors.

and the entertainment besides the regular program will include a buckaroo breakfast of grain-fed steer steaks, sour dough biscuits and coffee; a cowman's dance; and an evening session closed to all except bona fide stockmen; all topped off by the big annual banquet to be served Friday evening.

Mr. Burns Returns—W. A. Burns, of Huntington, but formerly of La Grande, returned to this city to spend the weekend visiting with friends and transacting business. Mr. Burns works for the railroad.

New Baby—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Larson, formerly of Elgin, now of Walla Walla, Wash., are the parents of a baby girl, born May 7 in Walla Walla. Mrs. Larson was formerly Miss Gertrude Thompson.

Baker Banker Here—T. J. Montgomery, of Baker, spent Sunday evening in La Grande, and left yesterday morning for his home in Baker. He is a Baker banker.

Spends Weekend Here—Miss Helen Purcell, of Baker, spent the past weekend in La Grande visiting with friends.

On Way to Portland—Mr. and Mrs. James Graham, of Nyssa, spent Sunday evening in La Grande on their way to Portland on business. Mr. Graham is one of the officials of the company which is constructing the dam at Nyssa.

Visits Mrs. McFadden—Miss Louise Leslie, who is conducting the Observer Cooking School this week, is also visiting with Mrs. E. F. McFadden at the La Grande hotel. Mrs. McFadden and Miss Leslie were former friends in Spokane, Wash.

Picnic at Radium Springs—More than a hundred high school seniors took advantage of the summer weather today and went to Radium Springs for their class picnic. They left about eight o'clock this morning, and planned to spend most of the day in swimming and playing games.

Hi-Dads Entertaining—The Hi-Dads are entertaining 45 high school boys at a banquet at the Sacajawea Inn this evening, with Granddaddy DeLong presiding. Thirty-eight lettermen, four athletic managers, the yell leader, the president of the student body, and the student body president-elect received invitations.

Open Saturday Evening—W. V. Payne, owner of the Mirror Cafe at Enterprise, states that his cafe will not be open every night as stated in the Observer the first of the month, but will be open only on Saturday evening.

Blaze Trail—Fred Hennings, Jack Ferris, Jack Wright and Harold C. Boone spent yesterday afternoon on Mt. Emily logging a route for a side trip for the Lions club convention to be held in La Grande June 24 and 25.

Send Papers Away—Two hundred and fifty copies of the Observer containing a railroad company advertisement are being sent this afternoon to jobbers, shippers, and manufacturers in Portland by the Union county chamber of commerce. They are encouraging the use of the railroad for shipping, a movement of vital interest to La Grande since the railroads play a large part in the livelihood of the people here, the chamber of commerce officials say.

Army Drills—Three more drills remain for Company E, 189th Infantry, Oregon national guard, before the men leave for Camp Clatsop on June 8, Captain Walter Bean states. Several La Grande people are planning to go to Camp Clatsop for the demonstration on June 20 and some will remain for the field and track meeting on June 22. Last year La Grande won the wall scaling event and an eight-man team will be entered again this year. They also play to enter in other events. A monument will be erected to George Joseph, governor elect, who was stricken and died at the demonstration last year.

Plays Tennis—Harry Finesilver, of Seattle, was a weekend business visitor in La Grande but between business transactions he played several sets of tennis at the municipal tennis court on Walnut streets, as a guest of the La Grande Tennis club.

At Peace Officers Meet—Walter Lansing, the silver-tongued orator of the state traffic department of Salem, was in La Grande yesterday and visited with many of his old friends, including Chief Clint Hurt.

Haynes, of the local police department. Mr. Lansing was formerly of Baker until he joined the safety education department of the state traffic division. In the afternoon, following the business session of the peace officers association, he pursued a golf ball around one of the local courses.

Meet Again—When Carl Helm and James Patterson, of Pomeroy, Wash., were youngsters they were friends in Washington, and yesterday after about 25 or 30 years they met again at the meeting of the Eastern Oregon Peace Officers Co-operative association. Mr. Patterson is a peace officer in the Washington city and a member of the Inland Empire Officers' association, while Mr. Helm is Union county district attorney.

Traffic Man Here—Sergeant and Mrs. Dick Robertson, of Pendleton, were in La Grande yesterday while he attended the meeting of the peace officers at the city hall. Both he and Mrs. Robertson also attended the banquet at the La Grande hotel. Sergeant Robertson is a state traffic officer and was formerly stationed in La Grande.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES HURT—PORTLAND, May 12 (AP)—Four postal employees were injured, one seriously, when their light automobile and a large truck and trailer collided on the east side today. J. F. Schooni, received a badly bruised chest. W. W. Burden suffered head injuries. Ward L. Hayes and W. Summers were less seriously hurt.

DEPT. STORES
C.J. Breier Co.
IN THE WEST

Store No. 13 La Grande, Ore.

CHILDS — MISSES

PLAY
OXFORDS

$1.00 pr.

Sizes 6 to 2

Two-tone elk uppers, flexible and long
wearing compo soles.
Ventilated vamp.

AUSTIN
Builds and Remodels all kinds of buildings.
MAIN 900

PLEASE ADD TO THE LIST OF FIRMS SHIPPING BY RAIL
F.W. Woolworth Co.

When signatures were secured for the page announcement, an effort was made to reach all shippers, but we find some were overlooked.

Please add to your list
F. W. WOOLWORTH CO.

New "recipe"
ends kitchen drudgery

GAS PLUS AN OCCIDENTAL RANGE GIVES YOU KITCHEN COMFORT AND CONVENIENCE

Plan to visit our complete display of modern gas ranges today or phone and our representative will call at your convenience.

Occidental
"STOVETOP" GAS RANGES

Now only—
$5 down
$10 Allowance on your present cooking equipment (few exceptions).
15
months to pay

Natural Gas Corporation of Oregon

Corner Fir and Washington

Phone Main 987

Miss Louise Leslie uses a General Electric Hotpoint Range
in her work—it being furnished by the
*Eastern Oregon
Light & Power Co.*—
which company is cooperating with the Observer in making this school possible.

New Menus

New Recipes

New Foods

From Start to Finish

The Observer's Cooking School will be of Real Interest to each Woman Attending . . . .

Miss Leslie will demonstrate the use of new menus, new recipes and new foods—

Wednesday, Thursday & Friday

AFTERNOONS AT 2 O'CLOCK

at the

High School Auditorium

Plan now to attend every session. Attendance awards will be made, and copies of complete recipes will be distributed.

The school is free and is sponsored each year by

The Evening Observer

Eastern Oregon's Leading Newspaper