

LOCAL BRIEFS

Visits Mother—
Mr. and Mrs. Milton Price and son, Dale, of Klamath Falls, returned to their home Tuesday after spending the Mother's day weekend in La Grande. Mr. Price visited with his mother, who lives first and Adams. He was formerly foreman of the composing department of the Observer and is now with the Klamath Falls Herald.

Visits Mother—
Lawrence Evans, formerly of La Grande but now of Yakima, drove here Saturday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Evans. He accompanied by his son, returned Tuesday.

Miss Charlton Pledged—
Ivy E. Charlton, of La Grande, senior in home economics at Oregon State college, was pledged to Omicron Nu, national honorary fraternity in home economics, at the annual women's convocation. Omicron Nu was founded at Michigan State college in 1912, and was installed at Oregon State college in 1919. Its purpose is to further science in all extensive branches of home economics. Each year the society honors the outstanding senior woman by engraving her name on a plaque.

Mr. Lyman Selected—
Richard Lyman, of La Grande, was one of 35 students recently selected from the junior class at Oregon State college for membership in Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholastic fraternity. Twenty-two seniors and three faculty members were also elected to the society at the recent annual honor convocation. To be chosen for membership in Phi Kappa Phi is one of the highest honors that can come to a State college student. Only those with very high scholastic standing are eligible, and in addition qualities of leadership and personality are necessary. Mr. Lyman is taking pharmacy at Oregon State. He has served as junior representative on the student council and as a member of the varsity basketball and track teams. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta, national social fraternity.

Nominations Friday—
Nomination of officers will be the order of business Friday night at the Odd Fellows meeting. Second degree work also will be staged.

Likes La Grande—
Mrs. G. A. Silvers, accompanied by her grandson, LeRoy, left here yesterday morning en route for her home at North Platte, Neb., after several days here with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Earl Silvers. She had been in Western Oregon visiting her parents at Salem on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, and also stopping at Grants, Pass and Albany. This was her first trip to the west and she stated that she likes La Grande and the Grande Ronde valley very much. She was surprised to find the town so large.

Accident—
Cars driven by Leonard Knight, of Union; H. M. Gould Jr., of Seattle, and a third person, figured in a minor accident at Cherry and Adams at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. No one was injured.

Car Recovered—
A car, stolen from L. H. Irwin yesterday morning from Fourth and Adams, was found last evening on Fox hill. It had been driven over a grade but landed upright, and only the flywheel was broken. It is reported.

To Issue Permits—
Miss Alice Marquardt, county health nurse, has been authorized by the state bureau of labor to issue vacation permits for the employment of minors in Union county. In order to employ a minor, permission must be secured. Such employment covers school vacations primarily, as minors who have not finished the grammar grades, cannot be employed during school terms except they attend part-time or night schools.

Mrs. Ashby Passes—
Mrs. Ed Ashby, of North Powder, who passed away at 11 o'clock Monday morning, was laid to rest yesterday morning following funeral services at 10 at the North Powder M. E. church. Her husband preceded her in death about a year ago. All of her children, including three daughters of North Powder, a daughter from Idaho, a daughter from Spokane, and a daughter from Walla Walla, were with her. She also leaves three brothers of North Powder. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Provost left here to attend the services and were in an accident the other side of Telocast. Mrs. Frank Cusick was driving about 30 or 25 miles an hour, it is reported, when a front tire blowout caused the car to go into the ditch. Mrs. Cusick, who is Mrs. Provost's sister, and Mrs. Provost were badly bruised. The car was damaged to some extent.

To Portland—
H. E. Dixon will leave tomorrow for Portland where he will preside at a joint meeting of three state committees of the Knights of Pythias lodge, of which he is grand chancellor. The committees, which will meet at the finance, judiciary, and from the state of the order. They will gather in Portland Saturday. Mr. Dixon will return to La Grande Monday morning.

Mrs. Dow Ill—
Mrs. H. G. Dow is quite ill and is confined to her home at 902 Main avenue.

On Business—
George Holland, of Portland, is in La Grande transacting business.

From Salt Lake City—
Al Worsley, of Salt Lake City, is in La Grande for a short visit, and will transact business during his stay.

Return From Wyoming—
M. A. Harrison, O. T. Byington and Earl Carpenter returned last night from a trip to Kemmerer and Tulsa, Wyo., where they have been getting machinery for the oil well project near Union. Mr. Carpenter made the trip in a truck, bringing the machinery, while Mr. Harrison and Mr. Byington drove in an automobile. They report that it snowed on them in Wyoming Monday morning, and that they had to break the ice cake in the radiator before they could fill it with water. However, that afternoon the snow melted and the weather turned uncomfortably warm.

Oil Driller Moves—
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Webb are moving to La Grande from Montana and they expect to make their home here. They will arrive today. Mr. Webb is an expert oil driller and will work at the well near Union on the Hutchinson place. He has drilled in oil fields in Texas, Oklahoma and California, it is said.

From Wallawa—
H. T. Coleman and J. P. Brandon, Wallawa farmers, were in La Grande today transacting business.

From Enterprise—
Mr. and Mrs. Kelso Draper and their young daughter, Evelyn, are spending the day in La Grande, transacting business and shopping. Mr. Draper is an Enterprise farmer.

Marriage License—
A marriage license was issued yesterday by the county clerk to Albert W. Cooke, of La Grande, and Estelle Lee Cochran, of Portland.

Baker Couple to Wed—
Elmer Blankenship and Mabel Jones, both of Baker, were granted a marriage license by the county clerk this morning.

Giving State Exams—
State examinations are being given in all the county schools today and tomorrow. Most of the schools will discontinue this week, though a few will continue until May 22, and three will not close until May 29.

Troubadors—
A new type of troubadour is to be found in La Grande playing from store to store during rare evenings—the Blue Mountain Wanderers, who, according to their sheriff, C. L. Berry, have so many playing engagements that they can hardly find time to practice. During the past week, however, as part of a long program of music at the meeting of the Eastern Oregon Peace Officers Co-operative association, on Monday evening, and various other engagements, they were to be seen on Adams avenue dropping into various stores, and giving a concert on their harmonicas, banjo, bones, ukulele and violin. They specialize in old-time music.

Choral Society Meets—
The Choral society of the Lutheran church met last night at the home of Marjorie Stein for a business meeting and rehearsal. Helen Jensen was elected pianist. Plans were made for an out-door picnic next Wednesday evening at Hilgard, and all were requested to meet at the home of Fred Mattes at 9 o'clock to be taken to the picnic ground.

Visiting Brother—
Harold Newman, formerly of Corvallis, arrived in La Grande this morning to visit with his brother, Newt Newman. He will remain for an indefinite length of time.

Make Visit Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Don Foster, formerly of Spokane, but now of Walla Walla, were transacting business in La Grande yesterday and left this morning for their home in Washington. This is their first trip to La Grande.

Elks Convention—
July 6, 7, 8 and 9 will be hilarious days in Seattle, Wash., with the Elks grand lodge convention to be held there on those days. An important part of the convention is the parade, one of the largest and most spectacular convention parades sponsored by any fraternal organization.

It has been suggested by a number of lodges that Walls Walla, La Grande, Pendleton and Heppner lodges join and attend the meeting as a unit, according to their sheriff, C. L. Berry, and it has been suggested that these lodges attend the convention in Truly Eastern Oregon cowboy style. Unmounted. The local lodge will probably make arrangements for participation in the convention in the near future.

Speaks at Banquet—
Miss Helen Moor, dean of women at the Eastern Oregon Normal school, spoke at a mother-daughter banquet held by the girls league of the Pendleton High school Monday evening. About 60 were present for the event, and Miss Moor urged the girls to make wise use of their leisure time during vacation, suggesting the study of nature and of doors as a pleasant and instructive pastime.

Visit Here—
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carr were recent visitors in La Grande, spending Sunday with Mrs. Carr's sister, Mrs. R. D. Krentz.

To French Baccalaureate—
Rev. W. H. Hertog, pastor of the First Methodist church, will leave this morning to preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Imbler High school.

Freshman Picnic—
At a meeting of the freshman class of the Eastern Oregon Normal school this morning it was decided to hold the annual picnic at Radium Springs in the very near future. At the assembly with the student body which immediately preceded the freshman meeting, Miss Ruth Giebel, a student at the Normal school, sang "At Twilight," by Friml, and "Day is Done," by Lang.

E. O. N. Student—
Miss Sally Woodward, student at the Eastern Oregon Normal school, spent last weekend at Portland and Cannon Beach. While there she visited Don McKay, formerly of La Grande, and returned Tuesday to resume her studies at the Normal school.

Returns Home—
Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Lindsay, of Tacoma, returned to their home this morning after visiting in La Grande for the past few days with Mr. Lindsay's mother, Mrs. Alice R. Lindsay, and his sister, Mrs. E. D. Steinkamp. They were in La Grande

HIGH SCHOOL TO EXHIBIT ITS WORK

gram will also be the exhibits conducted by the gymnasium classes under the direction of Miss Catherine Osborn and Ira Woodie. The High school orchestra, under the leadership of W. W. Rasmussen, will exhibit its work by furnishing music as a part of the program both in the afternoon and evening. Through the exhibit, the parents and friends of the High school are given the privilege of seeing the high quality of work which is accomplished by the High school, and the standard which is maintained by the faculty from year to year.
