1930 Caravan To Spokane Will Be Repeated, Report

By Mrs. William Wiggins (Observer Correspondent)

LOSTINE, Ore. (Special)—The Enterprise chamber of commerce has again brought up the subject of making a second road caravan trip to Spokane. The members want to keep before the minds of Washington state that the road from Walla Walla county via Lewiston to Spokane must be completed. Only a short distance connecting the two states is incomplete and that is the Grande Ronde canyon road. The meeting was held in the Enterprise hotel and several delegates from La Grande and Elgin were present. A fine program was also given. Miss Nina Warnock, accompanied by Miss Rita Warnock, gave one of her violin solos. Mrs. A. K. Parker a vocal solo, and others.

Game Warden Rogers discovered a moose by the name of Earl Archer fishing in the Wallowa river without a license and took his car and fishing tackle until a hearing could be held on Monday. During the night the man secured his car and left. He was registered from Bend, Ore.

C. J. Foley has been confined to his home for over a week ill of lumbago.

Maurice Willett, of La Grande, spent Sunday with relatives in Lostine.

Miss Edna Hall, who moved to La Grande, was calling on friends in Lostine the last of the week.

Mrs. Charles Hansen underwent a major operation at a Wallowa hospital last week. She is reported to be getting along nicely.

William Cole, of Joseph, has been visiting his son, Everett, and family this week.

Mrs. Glen Allen, of Wallowa, spent several days visiting her sister, Mrs. Harley Courtenay, at Wallowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Nelson and family, of Elgin, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill.

Mrs. M. R. Moffitt, who has been very critically ill at a Wallowa hospital, is reported to be slightly better.

All of the county has united in building a good road around Wallowa lake with much donation work being done. The county grader donated several days work and the road has been made wider and smoother. Joseph sponsored a dance Friday night to raise funds to be used on the road.

The annual commencement exercises will be held at the High school auditorium Thursday May 14 at 8 o'clock. The address will be given by Prof. W. F. Williams, from the Oregon State of Technology, at Portland. The program is as follows: professional, Freda Hall; ovation, Margaret Foley; invocation, Rev. Max Cook; salutatory, Martha Crow; address, Prof. W. F. Williams; musical number, High school quartet; valedictory, Esther Pleener; presentation of class, Supt. J. F. Williams; class presentation speech, Charles Hammack; presentation of diplomas, Harry Wade; song, Mrs. J. H. Williams; benediction, Rev. Cook; recessional, Freda Hall.

Floyd Hammack and Lewis Brandt spent a few days in Portland recently.

S. P. Crow is having some irrigation ditches dug on his farm south of Lostine. He has two large springs that head on his farm, one is a cold spring and the other a warm spring, making a large creek. He has stocked several ponds with fish.

Both Sunday schools held appropriate programs on Mother's day. The Christian Sunday school sent a bouquet of flowers to Grandma McCubben, who is Lostine's church's oldest member.

Mr. Strom received word Saturday of the death of his brother who lived at Florida. He left immediately for Florida.

William Wiggins has gone to the Grande Ronde valley to work for Harvey Huchman for a few days.

Frank Bradley has been ill for several days but is feeling better at present. Flene Bradley has been out of school for several days due to an attack of appendicitis.

This week closes a very successful term of school. All the teachers have been retained with the exception of Miss Nolan, who will teach in the Leap country next year.

Rev. Max Cook, of the Presbyterian church, delivered the benedictory sermon Sunday evening. The program was as follows: professional, Freda Hall; hymn, congregation; scriptures read and prayer, Mr. Cook; musical number, Mrs. Mike Crow and son, Warner Crow; sermon, Mr. Cook; High school quartet; benediction, Mr. Cook; recessional, Miss Hall.

Mrs. Willard Straley, who has been ill for more than a month of a cold, has developed a case of asthma.

Paul Hensley, who was ill for a month, was suffering from inflammatory rheumatism, it is reported.

Mrs. Maurice Dimick and children, Johnny and Ruby Jean, of Wallowa, arrived for an extended visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Oliver Woods.

Olaf Christiansen, of Boise, Idaho, was in town last week looking after business affairs. He is the son of Echal Christiansen, who lived here years ago.

Prior Holmes has been suffering from an infected finger and was taken to a Wallowa hospital where a large splinter was removed. He has been having trouble with his hand for several weeks.

Mrs. D. L. Robinson, Mrs. J. L. Hammack and Miss Bessie Robinson drove to Idaho last week to visit Mrs. Gertrude Thompson, who has been ill. Mrs. Thompson returned home with them and will spend a few weeks here with relatives.

M. E. Stevenson, a brother of Mrs. William Wiggins, was here for a visit with her Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wiggins and daughter, Doris, drove over from Baker Sunday to spend Mother's day with Mr. and Mrs. William Wiggins.

Mrs. Olive Johnson and Harry Woodell, of Wallowa, were visiting friends in Lostine Sunday.

Mrs. Ella McKinzie spent several days at Wallowa with her daughter, Mrs. Allen.

A box supper held Friday evening at the Presbyterian church was well attended. The boxes sold for not less than 25c or over 75c and netted the club $17.70.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wisdom and children spent Sunday with friends at Minam.

The Caudle family had a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caudle. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley Caudle and children, Joe Caudle and family, Harley Caudle and family and Bert Caudle and family.

There are days when a king's subjects are subject to whims of their own.

ON NICARAGUAN BATTLEFIELD

A scene of fighting between rebel and federal forces in Nicaragua is shown in this Observer-NEA Service photo, taken just before a skirmish between the Guardia Nacional and insurgents. Note the militiamen placing a machine gun in position in preparation for a bandit attack. The battle was in reprisal for the deaths of seven Americans who were massacred when bandits led by Pedro Blandon, a Sandinist chieftain, raided the little settlement of Logtown. Blandon was killed in the subsequent fighting.

President Attended Their Wedding

The center of attention in a notable gathering, Gertrude Lamont, daughter of the secretary of Commerce and Charles Eskridge Saltzman of New York are shown here after they had been married in the presence of President Hoover and other high government officials in Washington. The bridegroom is a son of Maj. Gen. Charles McKay Saltzman, head of the radio commission. A silver coffee service from President and Mrs. Hoover was among their wedding gifts.

WHITEHILL KEEPS TIGERS IN RACE

One of the best reasons why Bucky Harris expects to keep his Detroit Tigers up in the race all the way this year is Earl Whitehill, the distinguished citizen of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Tiger staff, won 17 victories last season in 30 games, including one brilliant run of 12 consecutive triumphs. Just 30 and in top condition, the chubby left-hander sees no good reason why he should not eclipse that record with the new ball.

pitchers on the staff. He has seen a stream of them come and go since he joined the club from Birmingham in 1923. He had his best year in 1924, when he won 17 and lost only nine. He has never managed to reach that mark again, but his seven-year record in the majors shows 194 victories against 91 defeats.

FOR LUNCHEON

The luncheon salad is often the main course. So it should be rather substantial . . . like this Tuna Fish Salad: After removing the tuna fish from the can marinate it. Pack the fish into small cups to mold it, and place in the ice-box for several hours. Unmold the tuna fish on beds of crisp lettuce and serve with Deville's Dressing which is made like this:

Mash three hard-boiled egg yolks smooth and blend with four tablespoonfuls of Wesson Oil. Stir into this three tablespoonfuls of cream, one tablespoonful of vinegar and seasoning of one-half teaspoon of salt, one-eighth teaspoon of pepper, and a dash of paprika, and one-quarter teaspoon of onion juice. Add two tablespoonfuls each of chopped green pepper and minced pimiento.

To marinate: Mix twelve tablespoonfuls of Wesson Oil and three tablespoonfuls of vinegar. Add a teaspoonful of salt, one-quarter teaspoon of pepper. Mix thoroughly with the salad material and set aside in the refrigerator for several hours.

FOR BRIDGE

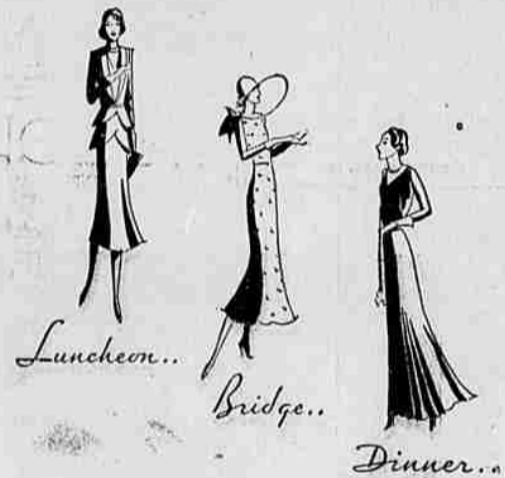

Your bridge guests will prefer a salad that is a happy medium between sweet and sour . . . a pleasant appetizer for their evening meal . . . such as grapefruit and orange salad. Alternate skinless sections of grapefruit and orange arranged with a garnish of pimiento-strips, make a salad that is mellowed by Cream Cheese Dressing.

To make Cream Cheese Dressing: soften two packages of cream cheese with eight tablespoonfuls of Wesson Oil. Add one-half teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon of white pepper, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of sugar, one-quarter teaspoon of paprika, and thin with one tablespoonful of lemon juice. Beat into cheese and dust with paprika.

FOR DINNER

Gowns are more sophisticated for dinner. Salads too! Served as a separate course, the simple salad is best. Perfect, tender asparagus tips, slipped through a ring of green pepper or lemon-rind, placed on a single thick slice of red-ripe tomato. Serve with Cliffonade Dressing, which is made like this:

Beat together twelve tablespoonfuls Wesson Oil, three tablespoonfuls vinegar, one teaspoonful salt, one-quarter teaspoon of pepper and a dash of paprika; two tablespoonfuls of chopped pimientos, one tablespoonful chopped parsley, and a minced hard-boiled egg.

Each Occasion Suggests a Different Salad

Just as no one dress is correct for all occasions, no one salad dressing is suitable for all salad flavors. There are dressings for all tastes, dressings as different as lemon is from honey and honey from cheese. So . . .

mix a dressing appropriate to the salad

Here are three suggestions. Three dressings that go with their salads just as cranberry goes with turkey, mint goes with lamb and cream goes with peaches. Try them.

AN INTERESTING LITTLE BOOK. Mary B. Murray has written a new little book filled with helpful salad suggestions. It suggests the right kind of salads for each occasion and the dressings that go best with each kind of salad. It also contains many new and interesting ideas that will help you make all your dinners and parties the successful affairs you want them to be. We will be very happy to send you your copy if you will write us. Address: The Wesson Oil and Snowdrift People, 210 Baronne Street, New Orleans, La.
