Loughran Back In Contenders; Trims Campolo

By Herbert W. Barker (Associated Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, May 16 (AP)—Back into the front rank of the heavyweight brigade today strode Philadelphia's former king of all the 175-pounders.

He spotted Victorio Campolo nearly 50 pounds in weight and seven inches in height and everything but knock out the South American giant in their ten round bout in Madison Square Garden last night.

Tommy Loughran, the victor, received the unanimous verdict of the referee and two judges and an ovation from the crowd of 10,000.

The victory put Loughran back in the high place he held in the heavyweight picture before he was stopped by Jack Sharkey two years ago. He now must be given equally with Schmeling and Young Stribling and probably will figure in one of the big outdoor heavyweight shows this summer.

Campolo loses out. Campolo seems to have lost his chance of edging into the picture. He made a sorry showing against the able, alert Loughran and was outwitted and outboxed by the younger fighter who was much more than his little conqueror.

Caught napping by Campolo's opening razz-dazz, Tommy took plenty of body punishment throughout the opening stanza. That round, and the ninth, were the only ones that Campolo won.

Campolo had been labeled a heavy right hand puncher but Tommy took his best punches without wavering perceptibly. And Tommy, notoriously one of the lightest hitters in the business, several times nearly floored the giant with straight rights that landed on Campolo's chin as he floated in.

In the eighth round, the rivals collided head-on and Loughran came out with a deep cut over his left eye.

Blood poured from the wound as Campolo carried the fight to the Philadelphia in the ninth round and Tommy took a bad beating before the bell came to his rescue.

The last round he drew blood from Campolo's nose with a hard right just before the final bell.

The victor, weighed 184 pounds; Campolo 223 1/2.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor)

The hazards of peace of mind in sport are pretty well known.

That the physical risk is likewise great is revealed by an insurance company's report that one out of six adult persons injured in accidents of all kinds in a year was hurt while engaged in sports and recreational activities.

A quiet afternoon on the golf course, it seems, is apt to be the most dangerous spot in all fields of competition. More adults were injured while playing golf than in any other game. 12 per cent of the total accidents having occurred last year on the links.

More than 60 per cent of the injuries suffered by golfers were the result of slips and falls on uneven ground," says the report, "while the next largest number of golf accidents was due to being struck by flying objects."

Golfers undoubtedly would consider football much more hazardous, but the rougher and tougher gridiron sport produced only ten per cent of the accident quota, as compared with golf's 12 per cent, baseball's 11 per cent, and basketball's five per cent.

Picnics, outings and dancing, if they are included in the recreational fold, accounted for 10 per cent of the mishaps and winter sports four per cent.

The moral, if any, seems to be to take out more insurance if you play golf.

Will Stop Leasing National Timber

WASHINGTON, May 16 (AP)—President Hoover yesterday ordered the forestry bureau of the agriculture department to cease all leasing of national forest timber except in Alaska.

The action was taken, the president said, in order to aid the lumber industry, which is suffering from overproduction.

In Alaska leases will continue for the cutting of pulp wood. In this country only transactions of not over $500 will be allowed in order to protect the small farmer.

The president said he did not expect the action to have much effect. "But it will show our good will."

Helene Madison Breaks Own Mark

SEATTLE, Wash., May 16 (AP)—It seems as though some record must crack whenever Miss Helene Madison, Seattle's great aquatic ace enters the water.

Last night in the finals of the Pacific Northwest A. U. indoor swimming championships here, the "champion of champions" picked on her own world's mark for 220 yards, free style, she won the event in 34.8 seconds, slipping two-tenths of a second off her old world figure.

The Washington Athletic club team headed by Miss Madison easily won the two day meet scoring a total of 104 points.

James J. Walker Welcomes Mayors to New York City

NEW YORK, May 16 (AP)—Mayor James J. Walker told 21 other American mayors yesterday that he envied them their forthcoming trip to attend the French Colonial exposition as guests of the city of Paris.

Jokingly, he declared some one had mentioned the possibility of his spending the summer in the witness chair in connection with the legislative investigation of New York.

"I hope it isn't so," he said, "because it would make me think of you over there who will not have to testify."

Mayor Walker said he hoped the visitors experienced not only the pleasure of being abroad, but the greater pleasure of returning.

Depression Balks European Accord

GENEVA, May 16 (AP)—Economic depression is the most serious threat to European accord, Aristide Briand, French foreign minister, declared yesterday at the opening session of the commission to study his project for a Pan-European federation.

The crisis is especially serious in the agricultural countries of south-eastern Europe, he said, and to those countries the commission will try to give prompt relief both by preferential rates on cereals and by long-term agricultural credits.

The commission will discuss the "urgently important" Austro-German proposals for a customs union, he said, when the matter is presented by Julius Curtius, Germany's foreign minister.

By the Associated Press

At 1:15 o'clock this morning, 4 hours and 45 minutes after the game started, the Los Angeles Angels crashed through to win a 16-inning game from the Portland Beavers 10 to 9 on the Angels' home diamond.

The score had been tied at 7 all through the ninth inning. In the final one, the Angels scored three runs and Portland two. The game was sagged out by hickering. Portland protesting because a hit in the first inning was ruled a two-bagger instead of a homer when it landed in an inaccessible spot in the outfield.

The Sacramento Senators shut out San Francisco's Seals 1 to 0 in a tight game at Sacramento last night. The Seals had two men on and no outs in the ninth but couldn't score. Gibson, Seal pitcher, allowed five hits to ten for Bryan of the Senators.

Another Long Game

The Mission Reds took a 5 to 4 game from Seattle last night by virtue of Bill Brenzel's headlong slide across home plate in the eleventh. Brenzel scored from second on Oakland pitcher's long single to right field. Seattle tied the score in the ninth only to have the Mission step ahead in the final inning.

Hollywood's Stars took their third straight game from Oakland by a score of 10 to 4 at Oakland last night. The Stars pounded four Oakland pitchers for a dozen base hits. Dave Barbee scored six Hollywood runs with a homer, a double and two singles.

French Pitches Pittsburgh Nine To 3-2 Victory

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr. (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Larry French, Pittsburgh left hander, has a little reputation of history to talk about.

Two years ago, French faced the New York Giants in his debut as a major league pitcher. After a great struggle, the Pirates won in the tenth, 3 to 2, when Pie Traynor singled to drive in the winning run.

Yesterday Larry made his first New York appearance of the 1931 season in New York and battled Clarence Mitchell of the Giants to a 2-3 standstill in the regular nine innings. Then in the tenth George Grantham's grounder hit first base and bounded away for a double and Traynor rapped a single to center, bringing in a run that spelled a 3-2 victory.

Reds Win Two

The Phillies also did a little duple-acting, but for them it meant only a double loss to the Cincinnati Reds in a double header. Chuck Klein hit a pair of homers in the second game and the Phils scored five runs in each club but the final scores were 10 to 5 and 7 to 5 in favor of Cincinnati. The double victory made it three straight for the Reds and five victories in all.

In Brooklyn, Pea Ridge Day started pitching in the first inning after the Chicago Cubs had knocked Babe Phelps from the mound and pitched nine good innings. The Robins recovered when Del Bissonette hit a homer in the fourth and scored four runs for a 4-1 triumph.

The St. Louis-Boston series became a total loss when the third straight game was postponed.

Yankees Halted

All but one of the numerous winning and losing streaks in the American league continued unchanged. The New York Yankees were halted after five victories when George Uhle, making his first start of the year, shut them out with five hits to give Detroit a 2 to 0 victory.

The league leading Athletics won their seventh in a row, beating Cleveland 4 to 0 behind Ed Rommel's fine pitching. Clint Brown kept pace with Rommel for six innings but the A's came through to score all their runs in the last three. It was Cleveland's ninth straight defeat. The Chicago White Sox scored eight runs against Boston but made an equal number of errors and also lost their seventh in succession. The Boston Red Sox took the lead in the third with the aid of three errors and finished ahead by a 12-8 count.

Walter Stewart of the St. Louis Browns, who stopped Washington fire straight times last season, found this year's Senators a different proposition. The Browns gave him a good lead but he lost it suddenly in the eighth when Washington scored five runs to win 8 to 6. Goose Goslin came out of a hitting slump to get the only American league homer of the day.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 16 (AP)—Meeting today for the annual dual battle the Universities of Oregon and Washington were ushering in the intercollegiate outdoor track season in the city.

Washington was made a favorite to win the contest after it was learned that three of the Webfooters were in the best of shape. Coach Bill Hayward of Oregon, reported that Bobby Robinson, pole vaulter, Ed Mosier, weight star, and Edwards, javelin thrower, were nursing injuries but would be used.

Coach "Doc" Edmondson of the Huskies had a well balanced team to pit against the Webfooters and he expects to make up for last year's upset when Oregon nosed out Washington.

The carmen presented other figures yesterday which were designed to show that Portland streetcar employees are not receiving a wage higher than the average in the 65 cities as contended by the company.

The public service company is expected to present its rebuttal testimony Monday. The board must render a decision by May 20.

The children of the fourth grade, together with their teacher, Miss Rosalie Burns, and several mothers spent a happy day at the La Grande fair yesterday. The generous supply of ice cream and other good things furnished no small part of the day's enjoyment. A strenuous day of play kept the children and their mothers home, a tired but happy bunch of youngsters.

The last picnic of the school class was the sophomore and freshmen outings held at Springville. Miss Elizabeth Pugh and Will Campbell, of the high school faculty, accompanied the sophomore class on their picnic. The day was unspooled even by the rain that came late enough not to interfere with their fun. On Friday Miss Helen Schaper and Mrs. Miss Campbell helped to entertain the treatment at Basium.

While in Honolulu, a marriage license was issued bearing her name and Miller's but the wedding was never held. Nor did Miss Mackail explain why.

SEATTLE, May 15 (AP)—A small but powerful band of athletes from the University of Oregon will invade Seattle Saturday for a dual track meet with the University of Washington.
