Fight Trail Ends For Jack Johnson, Barred from Ring

CHICAGO (AP)—Jack Johnson, once the greatest one-man fighting machine in the ring, has reached the end of his fighting trail. He has been barred from fighting in all rings of the National Boxing Association as "unfit."

The lure of the crowds and the ring was too much for the former heavyweight champion. After losing his title to Jess Willard he retired for a time and then attempted a comeback. But his legs wouldn't hold out, and he was a pitiful picture to those who once saw him sweating and fighting his way to the top like a panther.

Recently he engaged in a match in Kansas, and the exhibition was so undesirable to the Kansas commission that it banished him for life as "unfit." The National Boxing Association, parent body of the Kansas commission, followed suit and barred the negro.

Athletics Win From Cleveland In Hectic Game

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer) A hoodoo seems to have pursued Wesley Ferrell, Cleveland ace, since he pitched a hitless shutout against the St. Louis Browns three weeks ago. Since then he has been able to pitch only one full game. On his next start he got out of some trouble and beat Detroit but he has failed to last through the last three games he started.

The Indians called on him again yesterday in an endeavor to halt the slump they have been in ever since they began meeting astern teams. He weathered five stormy innings against the Athletics and contributed a home run on his own account. But in the sixth he gave way to Pete Jablonowski, who was charged with Cleveland's ninth straight defeat. The A's also used three pitchers in the slugfest which wound up with a 15 to 10 score. Hank McDonald getting credit for the victory after George Earnshaw had been driven from the hill. Five homers featured the game, the ninth in succession won by Philadelphia.

Plenty of Honors Another flock of four baggers turned up as Washington and the St. Louis Browns divided a doubleheader. The Browns won the first, 7 to 1, behind Sammy Gray's pitching, to break their five game losing streak and end the Senators' string of victories at six. Homers by West Borge in the ninth inning of the second clash broke up a pitching duel between Lefty Brown and George Blahodler, giving Washington a 4 to 2 triumph.

Ground rules limited the long hits at Detroit to two bases as 38,000 fans, the biggest crowd of the season, turned out to see the New York Yankees outslug the Toronto Blue Jays. Tony Sherid went the full distance for New York although he gave 14 hits. Boston and Chicago showed that the art of pitching had not been completely broken as the White Sox pushed over a run in the ninth inning of a close duel to win 3-1. Tommy Thomas gave Boston five hits to Chicago's six.

Card's Trim Giants The St. Louis Cardinals glouted four of the National League's homers today in the New York City and Fred Fitzsimmons 6 to 1. They completed four times. George Watkins hitting two. Johnny Verge of the Cardinals made the first hit. The defeat was the first for Fitzsimmons since five straight victories while Burleigh Grimes recorded his fifth win in succession.

Wings of Cincinnati and Heine Meise of Pittsburgh turned in some more good National League pitching to win the other two games. Verge weakened in the eighth and gave Brooklyn four runs. Fred Fitzsimmons pitched a three run lead in the first inning. Meise pitched the Pirates to a 6-3 victory over the Boston Braves, getting in trouble only once.

The Chicago Cubs and the Phillies had an off day.

Frog's Jump Of 11 Feet 5 Inches Gives Him Title

ANGELES CAMP, Cal., May 18 (AP)—Mark Twain's immortal story of the duck-shot weighed jumping frog was re-created with modern trimmings in this little California suburb, mining village yesterday and today. Bidweiser, the greatest piece of frog flesh that ever swung a leg down main street, was the toast of the Mother Lode country.

The lead pellets which impeded Twain's complete flop as far as frog jumping contests are concerned were missing yesterday just as were the lead bullets in the six-guns celebrants in '48 costume flourished before 20,000 spectators all the way from Angels Camp to Murphy Flat.

The great mottled amphibian, Bidweiser, which brought victory to his master, Louis Faber, and known to his home town, Stockton, Cal., was forced to leap 11 feet 5 inches to stages thrilling comeback and sweep a field of 150 other frogs in the fourth annual Calaveras frog jumping contest. Three years ago Bidweiser won the contest.

Between times of screening women, shouting men and gawking children, Bidweiser stretched those long lean legs to seize victory from Fuddle Jumper, which John Deebenini, Oakland, Cal., entered among others from California and North Carolina. Fuddle Jumper leaped 11 feet 1 inch, a sufficient distance by which any self respecting frog would expect to win a match.

Joe, a big green hopper from the low country along the Sacramento river, placed third with a leap of 10 feet 6 inches. He is owned by Joe Cesar of Antioch, Cal.

For the benefit of those who may not have had an opportunity of seeing a first class frog jumping contest, a vigilante committee with side arms and side whisks govern the contest. Behind them stand six state traffic officers. There are four sets of judges—official judges besides those on the sidelines, and no one knows how many other officials.

There are five rules. Distance lands no enchantment; it's a question of yard stick inches. Frogs must jump in the arena assigned and two trials are allowed. Measurements are made from the end of the third jump to the take off. Frogs are allowed one minute to take off.

Angels Camp was jammed. The town's hotel was packed to the rafters. There were chairs kept, ten and a bed was a luxury. Murphy Flat was a tent city and the hostelry's bathroom sink cracked under the pressure of boots.

But rest yourself a while, stranger, the shooting is over.

Cods at a Western university are reporting for the men's track team. Probably they're a little confused as to the meaning of going around on laps.

PITCHED BALL STARTS RIOT IN K. C. GAME

KANSAS CITY, May 18 (AP)—A pitched ball that felled Bill Dunlap, Kansas City Blues first baseman, in the second game of a double header with the Milwaukee Home-Brews opened a riot before 9000 American association's fans here late yesterday.

Dutch Zwilling, manager of the Blues, attacked Jack Knott, the offending pitcher, as his star batter dropped unconscious. Hundreds of spectators, keyed up by a 10 to 5 victory for Kansas City in the first game and a 5 to 5 tie in the twelfth inning of the second, surged upon the field. Bottles were hurled.

Art "The Great" Shires, Milwaukee's first baseman, acted as peacemaker. One fan hurled a gate and made for Shires. A blow from Garland Buckeye, 250-pound Milwaukee pitcher, sent him sprawling. Umpires, police and players united to prevent further violence.

Darkness forced conclusion of the game as a tie at the end of the ninth. "The Great" Shires, Milwaukee's first baseman, acted as peacemaker. One fan hurled a gate and made for Shires. A blow from Garland Buckeye, 250-pound Milwaukee pitcher, sent him sprawling. Umpires, police and players united to prevent further violence.

MacNaughton defeated a teammate, Warner Edmunds, Santa Barbara, Cal. 4 and 3, yesterday in the 36-hole finals for the championship. Edmunds Saturday eliminated the defender of the coast title, Vincent Delp, Portland, member of the Oregon team.

Oregon took the team championship, 625 to 627.

Oregon, Stanford Golfers Divide

EUGENE, Ore., May 18 (AP)—Oregon and Stanford divided honors in the Pacific coast conference golf tournament which closed here yesterday.

Stanford holds the conference championship in the person of Malcolm MacNaughton, Portland, while Oregon contents itself with the four-man team championship won Saturday.

How to Get Relief From Catarrh

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness, or head noises, go to Red Cross Drug Store or your druggist and get 1 oz. of Parmit (Double Strength). Take this home, add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every one who has catarrh should give this treatment a trial. You will probably find it is just what you need.

HOLLYWOOD AGAIN IN FIRST PLACE

Double Loss By Portland at Hands of Los Angeles Clears the Way.

By the Associated Press A set of new faces in first place and two shut-outs were the result of Sunday's Pacific Coast league baseball game.

Hollywood's Stars, last year's champs, slid into first place although they split a double header yesterday with Oakland. Both of San Francisco's teams, the Mission Reds and the Seals, shut out opponents yesterday, the Reds defeating Seattle 2 to 0 and the Seals taking the second game of a double header with Sacramento 4 to 0. The Seals won the first game also, 6 to 5.

Hollywood took the first game from Oakland yesterday 7 to 2 but lost a chance to win the second when Beane Star catcher, dropped the ball at home plate in the ninth. The error, which occurred on a forced run play, allowed Anton to sweep home with the winning Oakland run, and spoiled the chances of a possible double play. Oakland won 6 to 1.

The Seals took a double header from Sacramento, winning the morning game at Sacramento 6 to 3. Jimmy Egan, about the Senators out in the afternoon game, allowing but three hits.

Santa Monica's Fame

Santa Monica can step up and make Old Don (Abbott) of Glendale, California, green with envy. Santa Monica tennis products include Johnny Dog, national champion; Jay Cohen, national boys' champion; Midge Coleman, V. K. R. Billy Doo and Spud Myers, national ranking boys' team; and Geary Wheeler, Pacific coast girls' champion. Not to mention May Sutton-Bundy, the former national champion, and Tom Burney, former national doubles titleholder with Maury McLoughlin, and a flock of others.

"Jumpin' Joe Savoldi, the bong, strong, strider from Napa lives here, as does his brother, 'Little' Jumper Joe. Another 'bong-crusher' who lives here is Everett Marshall, the Colorado grumpy bear.

"Marshall Duffield, the great Trojan quarterback, and Phil Neill, first string Stanford end, both live here.

"Johnny Lyman, the ex-Santa Monica High school star who broke Bud Blosser's prize shut-out mark, lives here when he isn't loading weights for the Stanford track team.

"It happens nobody read about Bob and Mottie Durck beating Bobby Jones and Leo Diegel at San Francisco. Olin is pro at the Brentwood Country Club here in Pacific.

"We have quite a few polo players, one of them being Will Rogers. His sons, Bill Jr. and Jimmy, both are crack stick and ball players."

Who would take up the cudgels for Natick, Mass., whose athletic products are scattered as far west as Berkeley, California, in the person of the veteran Walter Christie?

UNDAUNTED DEEZY It was a shame to waste all the sweet spring halibut on Jerome (Dunlop) who only gave the Cardinals extra hits tonight and the ship him to Houston in the Texas League.

Dean was as welcome to the touring correspondents in Paris as a check. He so impressed Gobby Street that Gobby warmed to the companion of Dean with the great Walter Johnson.

"I don't see how he can miss," remarked Gobby.

Maybe so, even though Dury didn't get beyond the bull-pen with the Cardinals this spring. He reached Houston on a Sunday afternoon in May, went to the park and pitched a shutout against Wichita Falls, yielding only three hits.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor)

On the theory that anybody can stick a plaster on this pillar of sporting argument, Santa Monica (that's California) wishes to be based when there is any conversation about turning athletes loose upon the principal fields of combat.

The following report is filed by Frank Fitz, sports editor of the Santa Monica Evening Outlook, and duly noted:
