Robins Win Two From Phillies

Brooklyn, However, Remain the National League's Leading Puzzle.

By Hugh S. Fallerton Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer) If the Brooklyn Robins do nothing...

Brooklyn fans were about ready to ask what else is wrong when the Robins surprised them with a convincing demonstration that answered "nothing at all."

The Phillies had no left handers ready to stand against Brooklyn yesterday but so far as collecting hits were concerned the Robins fared better than they had against the outlaws.

The double victory enabled Brooklyn to exchange places with the Phillie, pumping from seventh place to fifth while the St. Louis Cardinals remained in sixth.

Bat Battalion Retains Crown In Slow Fight

By Herbert W. Barker (Associated Press Sports Writer) NEW YORK, May 23 (AP) — Christopher (Bat) Battalion of Hartford, Conn. still were the royal maistie...

Even in victory Battalion at no time flinched the sort of form that has come to be associated with champions. He chased La Barba all around the ring but wasn't exactly sure what to do with him once he broke back in.

All in all, it was a very sad affair and the crowd of 9,100 signified its heavy disapproval first by jeers and bores and finally by a shower of inaccurately aimed pennies.

In justice to the champion, however, it must be said that he tried to make a fight of it. He forced who fighting there was but his own awkwardness contrived to hinder his effectiveness of his attack.

La Barba, usually one of the most aggressive of fighters, opened up only in flashes. The California making nearly a slight offensive move and dropped the first four rounds.

"Am I sorry I left amateur ranks?" Tilden repeated when the subject was brought up. "Not in the least. I have had my fling. Perhaps I could have helped a bit in the Davis cup campaign this year, but why not let the younger fellows go to it? They are the ones who must bring the cup back from France. I don't think they can do it this year if Cochet has anything to say about it. He has everything."
