

STRAWBERRIES ACTIVE TODAY ON EAST SIDE

PORTLAND, May 28 (AP) — As expected, there was great activity in the market for strawberries on the east side farmers' market during today's session. Trade in the market was brisk, prices were better. One dealer quoted at $2.50 and quickly cleaned up at that. Oregon and Washington sold at a spread of $1.25 for some very small Oregon at the start to $1.50 which proved to be the top and the last price for good stuff. Most of the berries moved $2.75 to $3.00 for boxes with some valleys still holding at $2.50.

Strawberries sold down to $1.75 a crate with only limited offerings and demand. Cooperation moved mostly to $1.75 a crate with only limited offerings and demand. A few a crate better. Sprinkled sales were $2.00 to $2.25. Oregon box generally a few $2.25.

Extra Eggs More One Cent Higher

PORTLAND, May 28 (AP) — Attention at 12 to the price of eggs by the local groups does not in any way signify strengthening of the general market position, according to the Portland market. It simply means that the local market is reflecting the price of eggs generally and that the local market is finding better opportunity in the trade. Receipts of all eggs are increasing with a very liberal out in offerings of up grade.

Manager of the local group, who has been quoted as saying that the local market is not changing the price of eggs, but that the price of eggs is not changing the price of eggs.
