SUN TAN AGAIN BIDS FOR POPULARITY WITH SCANT BEACH SUITS THE VOGUE

Two modish beach costumes are worn by Frances Dee, motion picture player. The ensemble on the left is elaborate, the suit and cape of yellow jersey trimmed with bands of red. Wooden beads are something new in shore decorations. The suit at the right combines a bodice of white jersey, striped with blue, and trunks of blue.

PARIS (AP)—Skin revealing bathing suits are the beach style rule this year.

Suits which are backless, suits with tops made of broad barred net reminiscent of fishnet, and suits which consist only of trunks and brassiere are the new version of bathing costumes.

Cut, color and fabric of the suits in which fashionable beaches are designed for exposure to the sun's rays, presaging at least a partial return of the sun tan vogue.

One-piece bathing suits are designed with backs cut to the waist. Two-piece suits with abbreviated jersey trunks have low cut tops of different colored jersey or ivory fishnet, while the newest design consists of bright hued brassiere and short black trunks.

Colors may be dark or brilliant. Multicolored suits, combining two and often three colors, are legion, with watermelon and navy, pearly blue and black, and emerald green and brown the favorite combinations. Polka dotted bathing suits are another novelty.

The newest wrinkle to wear over suits on the beach is a short sleeved plaited dress made of crash, generally with watermelon design reflecting the colors of the suit.

It laps well in front and presents a dressed appearance which permits the wearer to step into the beach casino for tea.

Palmas, however, remain the favorite beach lounging costume, with linen the smartest fabric.

Many of the palmas combine many colors such as a brick red coat worn with dark blue trousers or bands of white, lemon, orange and rust applied to a light blue suit.

Coats are loose hip length designs, while trousers are very full and long.

SALAD DRESSINGS TO SUIT THE SALADS

"THERE is a right kind of salad for each occasion, and a right kind of dressing for each different kind of salad."

That is nothing new! It is simply that some things go together and some do not. It is as old as flowers in spring, overcoats in winter, going to bed at night and getting up in the morning.

So mix a dressing appropriate to the salad. For the right dressing, mixed to suit the particular flavors of the salad, really decides the success of the salad.

Each different kind of salad has a different flavor. That is why we like them. Then why smother all their flavors under a blanket of thick dressing like mayonnaise? Mix a dressing appropriate to the salad.

In my little booklet I suggest a few salads appropriate for each occasion and the dressings that go best with them. I feel sure you will enjoy it because I have written it just for you. I hope it will help you make all your dinners and parties the charming successful occasions you want them to be. I will send you the booklet with my compliments if you will write me in care of the Wesson Oil People, 210 Baronne St., New Orleans, La.

MARY B. MURRAY.
