Cove Hill Billy Talks Once Again On Government

erns all else in nature. For man is of nature like everything else—though highest in evolution. I cannot conceive two laws—two Gods, one for everything else but man, and one higher law—a higher God for man only. And yet this is just exactly what man has inaugurated ages ago by. And all of his many forms of governments have failed. And, the real law—the real government that rules all else never fails—it is eternal.

These failures of man's governments to govern aright are the cause of all the afflictions that seem to affect mankind. It is the objective of that conflict between the higher and that man made rule that is felt in the form of distress and sorrow, afflictions of all sorts—disasters which plunge nations almost into despair. Yet all these that we humans can see and experience are nothing to compare with the greater invisible struggle that is taking place—the higher law of nature—God Himself righting and harmonizing whatever man has deposed.

Col. House Would Favor Roosevelt For Presidency

MANCHESTER, Mass., June 5 (AP)—Colonel Edward M. House, political adviser to President Wilson during the greater part of his administration, yesterday declared his preference for Franklin D. Roosevelt as the Democratic party's next presidential candidate.

House, who arrived recently for his 36th summer here, described Roosevelt as "the most able available candidate."

"If nominated, he'd be elected," the colonel said. He said he also thought well of Newton D. Baker, secretary of War under Wilson, and asserted he had the greatest admiration for former governor Alfred E. Smith. "I was sorry the people didn't elect Smith the last time," he declared.

"I am very fond of Governor Roosevelt. We are friends of 30 years. We see a great deal of each other and I agree with him on many of the issues of the day, including the Smoot-Hawley tariff bill and the need for reducing its schedules."

Asked if he had ever discussed the matter of the New York governor's prospects with him directly, House said he preferred not to answer.

He had "no notion" what part, if any, he would take in an active way to promote either Roosevelt's candidacy or his election in event of nomination. "I have not been in good health for several years," he said, "and I don't know what I may do."

Roosevelt, like House, was identified with the Wilson administration, serving two terms as assistant secretary of the navy. House, who never held political office, was active in both Wilson campaigns.

You can't accuse a symphony conductor of being high hat because he puts on arias.

Hotel Is Sold—The Farmers hotel at Enterprise has been sold by J. D. Braughton to the American Hotel Co. who will remodel the building and erect a gas station adjoining it. Braughton has returned to Roseburg, his former home.—Sun.

Orchard Growing—The orchard of young Royal Anne cherry trees which Miss Dora Hutchinson, of near Union, set out on Clark's creek, from Egin on a fishing trip. We understand they caught the fish and that the day was an enjoyable one for all. Accompanying the trip was a family of their son, Lawrence, who, it will be remembered, was laid up with a broken leg. He is much better, the leg is getting stronger and the time, and he can get around quite well.

ROME, June 5 (AP)—John Lawson Stoddard, noted American author who has lived in Italy several years, died today at his villa near Merano at the age of 81. He was born at Brookline, Mass., educated at Williams college and Yale Divinity school.

Dolf, Willing, Hogan, Wilhelm In Semi-Finals

PORTLAND, Ore., June 5 (AP)—Four of Oregon's best golfers matched shots over a 36-hole route today in the semi-finals of the Oregon state championship golf tournament.

In the next to the last test of their ability, Frank Dolf, Alderwood, the defending champion, was paired with Dr. O. F. Willing, Waverley, who has held the state title three times. In the other half of the championship bracket, Eddie Hogan, Multnomah, the Pacific Northwest champion, had as his adversary Rudie Wilhelm, seven time winner of the state crown.

All four of the players have battled their way through a field of able golfers.

Wilhelm found his hardest match yesterday when he had to go to the 20th hole to defeat Tab Boyer, young city champion. Boyer was tied up on Wilhelm at the 17th but lost the next two holes. They halved the nineteenth and on the final hole Wilhelm laid a stymie for Boyer and won the match.

Hogan defeated Johnny Robbins, Alderwood, to reach the semi-finals, 2 and 1.

Dr. Willing and Dolf, the other two semi-finalists, were at the top of their game and found comparatively easy going.

Willing eliminated Dr. John Marshall, Astoria, 7 and 6, while Dolf defeated Francis Heikemper, Portland, 3 and 2.

PORTUGUESE WOMEN WIN VOTE

LISBON (AP)—Portuguese women have been given the right to vote in municipal elections, but leading feminists say their victory will not be complete until the franchise is extended to parliamentary ballots.

WASHINGTON—French, long the official language of diplomacy, is fast giving way to English among foreign diplomats in Washington.

And it is largely because the capital today is considered one of the outstanding diplomatic centers of the world. Another reason is that so few Americans speak French, and a language sufficiently well to cope with the twists and turns in diplomatic dealings.

Time was—before the world war—when foreign governments would consider it necessary for their ambassadors, ministers and attaches assigned to Washington to know much English. Knowledge of French, perhaps German, was their own native language was enough.

There was, for example, the veteran Dr. Herman Velarde, until a short while ago the ambassador to Washington. He remained long enough to become dean of the diplomatic corps, but he never learned to speak English.

In Washington

Expected Home—Miss Frances McKennon is expected home tomorrow from Corvallis, where she has been visiting with college friends for the last two weeks.

Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Austin, of the Pleasant Grove district, returned Wednesday from a ten day trip and a week's stay in Montana. The Austins lived there for several years and have a son, Raymond, living there now and whom they visited.

Have Picnic—The beautiful Austrian copper rose on the lawn about the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Miller, on the edge of Union, is at its most wonderful stage right now and it is worth a drive to Union to see. In fact, the entire Miller lawn is most beautiful right now. Yesterday it was especially so, for the Millers had thrown the place open to the Sunday school of the Methodist church for their annual picnic. There was a large crowd assembled on the lawn and all were very happy time, according to reports.

Kills Huge Snake

Last fall Sam Curry killed a rattlesnake 44 inches long on the Flora highway near the Curry ranch. On Tuesday a 40 inch snake, presumably the mate of the other, was seen, and promptly killed, within a few feet of the spot where the first met its fate.—Record-Chiefman.

Stewart Girl

Friends in the valley have received word of the birth of a baby girl, Nancy Ardene, to Mr. and Mrs. Don Stewart, of Anity, Oregon, on May 31. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart made many friends in the valley while he was Smith-Hughes instructor of vocational agriculture in the Imbler High school. They left this valley a year ago.

To Take Horses

One of the most fascinating exhibits during the livestock show last year was the six horse team which the Willis Moss of Moss chapel had there. Mr. Moss plans to have his team there again this year and Mr. Oak is now at the Moss home getting the horses in shape.

Under the supervision of County Sunday School Missionary and Mrs. Howard Smith the daily vacation Bible schools, which are held in different localities over the county, have been started. The first school

Elect Officers

At a meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Union, held at the Methodist church Wednesday, Mrs. Belle Wright was the leader of the program, which was also quite an opening day. The election of officers was held with the following results: Mrs. Worth Halsey, president; Mrs. William Kiebock, vice president; Mrs. Walter Cook, secretary; and Mrs. D. A. Crouter, treasurer.

Sister Visits

Miss Phyllis Joan Gordon, who is taking nurse training in Pocatello, Idaho, is visiting with Mrs. Granor and son, Glen, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thornburg at Pleasant valley. They expect to visit La Grande friends next week and then spend the remainder of their vacation at the home of Miss Gordon and Mrs. Thornburg's father, Finlay Gordon, at Brownlee, Oregon. Miss Gordon is a graduate of the La Grande High school and has many friends there.

Attending Conference

County Agricultural Agent Harry G. Avery has been in Moro a few days attending a conference of agents. He was accompanied by N. C. Donahue of Enterprise and Phil Foutner of Baker, all of whom are returning home today.
