WILHELM MEETS DOLP FOR TITLE

1930 Amateur Golf Champion of State Has Chance to Repeat Today.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 6 (AP)—Frank Dolp, Oregon state golf champion, today had one more hurdle to clear to gain his second consecutive state title.

This hurdle was Rudie Wilhelm, seven-times winner of the state championship and Dolp's opponent in the 36-hole final round on the Wood course of the Multnomah country club.

Both players exhibited a stellar brand of golf during qualifying round and subsequent elimination rounds but Wilhelm's spectacular work in the pinches made him a slight favorite today.

Dolp, wearing D. O. P. Willing, Walker cup player, 13 and 12, in one of the semi-final matches yesterday.

Wilhelm had a battle all the way yesterday with Eddie Hogan. He won by the narrow margin of 1 up but only through remarkable recovery.

Hogan was only one down when he teed off for the final hole and his terrific drive was straight down the fairway. Then Willing drove. His ball sailed into the woods and he would have demoralized many players.

Wilhelm selected an iron and cleared the ball from the woods, only to have it fall in the brush to the right of the green. Again Wilhelm recovered, chipping onto the green.

Hogan as in two was away from the cup. The ball, straight and true, dropped into the cup.

They halved the hole and Wilhelm had won the match.

MISS ORCUTT QUALIFIES IN BRITISH PLAY

PORT MARNOCK, Ireland, June 6 (AP)—Maureen Orcutt, leading American contender in the British ladies' golf championship, took a 45 coming home in her qualifying round today after a fine 37 going out for a first round total of 82.

Miss D. Chambers, 1923 champion, 96. With most of the scores in Miss Orcutt's 82 held second place behind Miss Wilson.

DAWES VOICES BELIEF CHICAGO, June 6 (AP)—Sparks flew from the underslung pipe of Ambassador Charles G. Dawes, when somebody said something to him yesterday about business depression.

"Did you read what I said when I got off the boat in New York?" he demanded.

"Well, that's what I think. Here and there improvement is taking place, but there has been so much fear and gloom that people do not realize that conditions are gradually improving."

ABSOLUTE HENRY REAMS EUGENE, June 6 (AP)—A corner's jury late yesterday absolved Henry Reams, 60, prospector from Illinois river, of blame in the death of Mrs. Lillian Travis who was killed here Thursday when struck by Reams' automobile. The jury held the accident was unavoidable.

This Game of Golf

By O. B. Keeler Even with the customary activities involved in Hollywood life and work at the movie colony, I seem never to get very far away from golf.

The other day I spent a morning at the Lakeside Country club, watching Mrs. Leona Pressler in the final match of the Southern California women's championship, with Mrs. Harry Grossman.

Mrs. Grossman, a capable and courageous player, had supplied one of the most interesting matches in the tournament by defeating Mrs. Gregg later rather conclusively.

The final proved an interesting battle, and I cannot say that I am sure that if Bobby Jones only could put on the beautiful but deceptive California greens as well as either of these ladies, he would have figured on the winning end of a couple more exhibition bouts with the celebrated Dutra brothers.

He has scored only one win to date against the pair. That one, it must be confessed, was due mainly to the excellent performance of his partner in the match at Santa Barbara, when Fred Morrison uncovered a fine 69.

EMINENCE PUTTING I picked up the Pressler-Grossman match coming to the eighth hole in the morning round, just as Mrs. Grossman struck a pitch exactly four inches from the hole. Mrs. Pressler a putt of some 30 feet for a half in four.

Mrs. Pressler called that putt without a tremor and it was one of those putts destined right from the blade to sink. It did struggle a bit.

At the ninth green it was Mrs. Pressler, pitching delicately over a bunker, who sent her ball to the reverse slope of a mound at the edge of the green, to trickle up dead-fer for four, leaving Mrs. Grossman a putt of 30 feet for the half.

Mrs. Grossman sank the putt as if she fully expected to—she displayed a lack of elation as they went to the next tee.

At the tenth green, Mrs. Pressler in some way managed to miss a putt of a dozen feet and Mrs. Grossman holed one of five yards, also for a half. And so they went on.

When they did not sink a putt the ball stopped in the hole, and the "derby position"—a bowler had would cover the ball and the hole.

At the 160-yard twelfth, Mrs. Pressler brought out a beautiful iron shot, coming in from right to left and stopping seven feet from the flag. She sank that putt for her second two of the round.

MUST WORK She was three up after each had worked out a fine three on the 240-yard eighth, and Mrs. Grossman at the start of the afternoon round took that down by holing a short putt for a birdie three at the first green. But the steady play of the four-times Southern California champion was too much, and Mrs. Pressler went on to win handily.

It seems a pity that Mrs. Pressler is working for a living, has so little time for practice. She has one of the soundest swings in America today.

She spans her irons like a masculine expert, and in spite of lack of opportunity to work on her game, I am confident that she is a prominent factor in the national championship this year.

Ruth's Home Run Spells Defeat For St. Louis

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr. (Associated Press Writer) Despite a recent injury, Babe Ruth is in the game every day, fielding well, and, as usual, providing thrills.

He went out to bat against St. Louis yesterday with his team a run behind in the ninth inning and the Springfield counter on base, and drove one of the major league batting leaders with a 387 average.

Solons Nosed Out Washington lost a tough one to the Detroit Tigers and George Uhlen, 1 to 0, in a nine-inning game. The entire distance in a duel with San Jose. Uhlen gave only five hits and not a walk. Jones also pitched a five hit game but in the seventh, a hit batsman, a sacrifice, an infield out and single produced a run for Detroit.

The champion Philadelphia Athletics also played an extra inning game, losing to Chicago 7-5 as Lew Fonseca hit a homer in the twelfth and the Sox followed it up with another run. Boston held Cleveland to a winning streak after ten games in the fourth American league contest, winning 4 to 3 with an early attack on Willis Hudlin.

Cards Down Giants The first and second place teams of the National league, St. Louis and New York, are in the leading struggle of the elder circuit, battling back and forth for ten innings before the Cardinals won out 4 to 3 in the final game but in the seventh, a hit batsman, a sacrifice, an infield out and single produced a run for Detroit.

Rally is Fatal To Beaver Clan In Friday Game

By the Associated Press A ninth-inning rally which netted three runs and broke a 5-all tie enabled the San Francisco Seals to even the series with Portland yesterday as they took an 8 to 6 decision over the Beavers.

With two men out, the Seals nicked Posedel for five hits which, coupled with a wild throw by Westling, Beaver shortstop, resulted in three scores. Weir, Seal third baseman, hit a homer with the bases full in the first inning. Portland equalled the score in the third, however, when they scored four runs.

A 1 to 0 win over Sacramento last night enabled the Hollywood Stars to stretch their first place lead to four and one-half games. The close contest was featured by a duel between Pitchers Frank Shellenback for the Stars, and Tom Flynn for Sacramento. With Shellenback annexing his ninth victory, Shellenback gave the Senators three hits, while the Stars gathered five off Flynn.

Indians Go Wild Seattle's Indians knocked three Los Angeles pitchers all over the lot last night to gather 18 hits and a 15 to 3 win. The Indians scored six times in the sixth, and Wilson Gaw, Indian right fielder, booted a ball into the bleachers for a homer in the fourth after he had been presented with a flower wreath as he stepped to the plate. The Angels got 12 hits off two Seattle pitchers but were weak in converting them into runs.

Rain in San Francisco postponed last night's Missions game. They will play a double header today. Yesterday's results: R. H. E. San Francisco 8 13 1 Portland 6 14 3 McDougal, Henderson and Baldwin; Posedel, Fullerton and Fitzpatrick.

R. H. E. Los Angeles 3 12 1 Seattle 15 18 0 Petty, Nelson, Moncrief and Campbell; McQuillan, Bonnelly and Cox, Bottarini.

R. H. E. Sacramento 0 3 1 Newwood 1 5 0 Flynn and Wirtz; Shellenback and Bassler.

Oakland at Mission, postponed; rain.

LEWIS DOWNS DERN IN SALT LAKE MATCH

SALT LAKE CITY, June 6 (AP)—"Strangler" Lewis, champion of the heavyweight wrestling title, today defeated Ira Dern, Salt Lake City, two out of three falls here last night. Lewis took the first with a full Nelson in 24 minutes and Dern secured a pin in nine minutes with a flying mare.

The third fall went to the stranger as he swung his forearm across Dern's abdomen to bear him to the mat after eight minutes of rough wrestling. Lewis weighed 235 and Dern 205. The crowd of 6,000 hoisted the final fall.

Dean Dettson of Des Moines, Iowa, defeated Mike McGuire, Shreveport, La., in 18 minutes with a flying tackle. Barney Ostapoch, 222, Flint, Mich., won in 18 minutes with a body slam.

APPLY FOR WATER PERMITS SALEM, June 6 (AP)—Two large applications for irrigation purposes in Yamhill and Baker counties and an appropriation for water for mining purposes in Josephine county were included in the 21 applications for permits to appropriate water from Oregon streams. The list was announced today by C. E. Strickland, state engineer, as having been filed with his office since May 23.

FOREST AREA CLOSED BEND, Ore., June 6 (AP)—Twenty thousand acres of the Crane Prairie Reservoir district was closed to the public yesterday by order of Lane County and an appropriation for water for mining purposes in Josephine county were included in the 21 applications for permits to appropriate water from Oregon streams. The list was announced today by C. E. Strickland, state engineer, as having been filed with his office since May 23.

MANY AIRPLANES POISED FOR HOPS ACROSS OCEANS

nautic world was swept into a mighty wave of daring flights have so many ventures been projected.

And now Lindbergh is one of the group, he and Mrs. Lindbergh planning to fly to the Far East over the Northern Pacific, starting probably from Alaska.

Three round-the-world flights, by Wiley Post with Harold Gatty, and Clyde Pangborn with Hugh Herndon Jr., near the time when only favorable weather will decide the actual starts.

The Post-Gatty venture is the most ambitious, with a goal of ten days or less in a race against time over a 16,000 mile route. The other pair is intent on breaking the 20-day record of the Graf Zeppelin.

Best of all is a duel on Admiral Byrd's trans-Atlantic and South pole flights, has said he intends to fly around the world. But he has announced no details.

He announced a projected round-the-world flight, by John Henry Mears and Vance Breese, was called off in face of Russian objection to flight over the Bering strait.

The Green Flash, monoplane wrecked by Roger Williams and Lewis Yancey in the takeoff for a trans-Atlantic flight, is being rebuilt by Mrs. W. B. Brooks, in Wallowa, for some venture, depending upon what targets are available when the plane is in flying trim.

Eight round-the-world flights over the Atlantic, besides the round-the-world flights, are in the spotlight with Otto Hillig and Holgar Hoibra in a contemplated Newfoundland - Denmark trip and Emil Burgin, a solo hop to Paris as the nearest to being ready.

Miss Nichols, society woman and sports flyer, may find a rival in Edith Elizabeth McCall, of Galt, Ontario, who has announced preliminary plans to fly the Atlantic alone. But her plans seem uncertain.

Laura Ingalls, who won her pilot's license while working as a secretary in St. Louis, has announced that she will attempt a flight across the Atlantic, from Boston to Paris, in the latter part of the summer. She has given out few details regarding her plans.

A pilot correspondent by Capt. George Endres and Alexander Magyar is at Roosevelt field. They plan to fly to Budapest.

Mrs. Geraldine Gray Loffredo, wife of a Buffalo photographer, has announced that she will attempt a good will flight from Buffalo to Rome with Renato Donati, Italian war ace, as co-pilot.

Two flights "with a purpose" are planned by Comm. Donald B. MacMillan, noted Arctic explorer, and Col. James Fitzmaurice, Irish co-pilot of the German motor ship, the conqueror of the Atlantic in westerly flight.

MacMillan, with C. F. Rocheville as pilot, hopes to make a round trip from Boston to Galt, Ontario, in possibilities of using a far northern route for regular transoceanic travel.

Fitzmaurice, accompanied by A. S. Starke Jr., plans to fly to Tokyo by lead of mail and light express from New York to London by way of Newfoundland and Dublin.

Capt. Roy Ammel, Chicago broker, has announced plans to fly the Atlantic in a low-wing monoplane with a retractable landing gear. He made a non-stop flight from New York to London, but after abandoning a projected trip to Europe.

Another South Atlantic flight is planned for the veteran German aviator, Graf Zeppelin, which is scheduled to leave for Brazil in late summer or early fall.

Earlier, the airship is to be flown to Spitzbergen and then to the North Pole, a feat with the Nautilus, submarine in charge of Sir Hubert Wilkins.

Two German airplane flights westward over the Atlantic are scheduled. One is a North Atlantic flying boat now at Portuguese Guinea, and the other later in the summer by Capt. Wolfgang von Gronau with the same men who flew across with him a year ago.

To Study Weather. Von Gronau's flight, to start from Iceland, will be made to study the weather and determine the feasibility of an air line from Europe to America by way of Greenland.

Seiji Yoshihara, young Japanese, plans to carry on in a flight by way of the North Pole to the ultimate goal at Washington, D. C.

CONSIDER NORTHERN ROUTE NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh is considering flying to Europe and Japan over an eastern route, which would bring them close to the North Pole on a 6,000 mile journey to the Orient.

Such a flight is studying the possibilities of a great circle course across Greenland and Spitzbergen instead of taking the Bering Strait route from the Pacific coast.

A North Atlantic flying boat, to fuel and supply bases and stores along that northern route. The whole plan is in a formative stage.

A North Atlantic flying boat, to fuel and supply bases and stores along that northern route. The whole plan is in a formative stage.

The Northern-Great Circle route has been flown three times by the army round-the-world flier, Von Gronau, who made it last year in a Dornier flying boat, and by Parker Cramer and Bert Hassel of Rockford, Ill., who took their plane in a wreck in Greenland.

There have also been flights to that part of the world by Sir Hubert Wilkins and Captain Albin Ahrensberg, Swedish pilot who went searching for Amundsen after the wreck of the Italia.

"The trip will be made some time this summer and we plan to fly to China and Japan, and that is all we ourselves are sure of so far," said Lindbergh.

JAPAN EXCITED NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—Japan is all excited over the prospective visit of Rin-Do-Ba-Gu. Such say returned Americans. In the nearest the average native can come to pronouncing Lindbergh. The Japanese language lacks "L." Consonant combinations are difficult.

KELVINATOR Demonstration Tues. and Wed., June 9 and 10 In Charge of Mrs. Jessie Scranton (formerly of La Grande) During the past three years Mrs. Scranton has conducted demonstrations for most of the nationally known Electric Refrigerator manufacturers in many of the best known furniture and electric stores in the Pacific Northwest, and we feel we are particularly fortunate in being able to secure her services for this occasion. Come and let her show you what the convenience of Electric Refrigeration means to every housewife — the preparation of frozen delicacies, salads, desserts etc. — how to make ice cream to serve eight to ten persons in the short space of eight minutes. These are but a few of the interesting features of this demonstration. Be sure and come, everything is free, every minute of this demonstration will be interesting.

Business Firms Change Hands In Wallowa, Oregon

By Mrs. C. A. Hunter (Observer Correspondent) WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—Two local business firms changed hands in Wallowa this week. Lawton McCarty, who has been a salesman for a motor company of Enterprise, has purchased a service station here from C. W. Allen. The Community Meat market of Enterprise took over the J. P. Gillispie Sanitary market and the S. V. Cray meat market of Wallowa. The two shops were consolidated and the new business will be carried on under the name of Community market in the Gillispie building. Mr. Cray will continue as manager of the new firm and plans to move his family from Enterprise in the near future. Mr. Gillispie who has been in business here for the last eight years will devote his time to his dairy ranch two miles west of town on Diamond Prairie.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bloomquist and family of Spokane, arrived in Wallowa Wednesday for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bull.

A miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. George Dale at her home Thursday afternoon honoring Miss Edith Shell who is to be married in Portland June 15. Four tables of bridge were played during the afternoon and a number of guests spent the time sewing and visiting. Mrs. Russell Wade of Enterprise was an out-of-town guest. Miss Shell received many beautiful and useful gifts as well as many good wishes from her friends. High score at cards was made by Mrs. Hugh Daugherty. A lovely lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Rogers and Mrs. L. P. Allen.

C. A. Thompson, Wallowa High school teacher, returned this week bringing home a bride. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were married May 28 at Fullman, Wash. They will spend six weeks in Corvallis where Mr. Thompson is to attend summer school and upon their return will live on the Ed Anderson property in Wallowa.

Miss Ruth Hayes left Monday for Portland to attend the meeting of the grand chapter of the Order of Eastern Star as a delegate from Jessie chapter of Wallowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Furst returned Wednesday from Portland where Mr. Furst underwent an operation for appendicitis a month ago. He has resumed his work at the forestry office here.

C. W. Mumford and son, Clarence, motored over from Pendleton Monday and spent two days visiting friends and relatives here. On their return they were accompanied by Miss Margaret Peterson, who will spend a week with the Mumford family in Pendleton.

Frick's bakery, which closed nine months ago when Ottmar Frick, proprietor, went to Germany for an extended visit, will reopen about July 1.

EASTERN OREGON WILL SALUTE ITS FUTURE FARMERS

(Continued from Page One) competition. A modest list of premiums for four groups of projects, including those dealing with dairy, beef, swine and sheep comprise the list of exhibits, with a more extensive list of prizes for the best all-around projects of the show appended in order that students will be encouraged to ward diversity in their livestock project work.

Vocational contests dealing with various skills taught in the Smith-Hughes schools are featured in the stock show for the benefit of the boys attending. These include rope work, leather work, blacksmithing, sheep shearing, feed selection, farm carpentry, and weight estimation, all essential factors in the varied crafts of a modern farm. The shering contest is an innovation this year, accompanied by a display of fleeces, for which special premiums will be awarded.

Horseman contests are again scheduled for the "Future Farmers" in which the boys saddle and ride a stock horse at the direction of a skilled judge, drive a four-horse team, and examine horses for unsoundness and blemishes peculiar to equines. Individual trophy cups are given for each contest.

A stock judging contest with teams representing each of the six chapters of the F. F. A. will be the leading event as in past years. A splendid trophy is awarded by the stock show in this competition and is eagerly contested for. Union High school won the cup awarded last year. The contestants place classes of four animals each, selected from the dairy, beef, swine, sheep and horse exhibits of the show. The Union contest is one of the few still featuring horses in judging contest competition.

Entertainment for the 100 or more boys expected to participate in the F. F. A. program at the stock show will include a big "party" with dancing and games on the first evening, a "pop-wow", or stunt program around the campfire at the F. F. A. headquarters in North Union near the stock show grounds, and a final big all-Eastern Oregon meeting to be held at the Union Hotel on the last evening of the show, when prizes will be awarded and achievements of the year summarized by their leaders and friends. It is anticipated that Carl Whitmore, Joseph sheep breeder; Albert Meibohm, Halfway; and other leading breeders and ranchmen will be in attendance on this evening. Many of these men and numerous business firms are contributing to the success of the F. F. A. program by giving purchased ewes, pigs, and other specials for the added interest of the boys.

Schools which will be represented at Union include Halfway, Imbler, Ontario, Wallowa, Enterprise, and Union.

POTENTIAL INTERNATIONALS It may not be long before Arizona and possibly New Mexico join Texas and California in contributing to the fold of international polo stars.

Eric Pedler broke through the ancient barriers last year to become a member of the American "Big Four" and strike a firm blow for California as well as the U. S. A. His companion, Elmer Doewecke, has assumed top-ranking status in recent seasons.

Texas sent H. W. (Rube) Williams and Cecil Smith into the thick of high-goal play last summer and they probably will be on hand again. Smith is regarded by no less an authority than Louis Stoddard, president of the U. S. Polo association, as the best No. 2 in the country, now that Tommy Hitchcock has moved to the backfield.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor) Prize fighters are fragile fellows and W. L. (Young) Stribling has been beset by his share of ailments calculated to affect his performances in the ring.

It is good news, therefore, to learn from the ballyhoo mailed from Geauga Lake, Ohio, that the southern contender for world's heavyweight championship honors has recovered fully from an injured hand, strained ligaments in his left shoulder and neuritis in his right shoulder.

Moreover, Stribling has promised "Pa" he will stay away from airplanes speedboats and motorcycles until after he has fought Max Schmeling at Cleveland July 3.

Young Stribling probably will need his full health and strength to whip Schmeling over the 16-round route. The distance favors the German, if there is enough of it left after the early rounds for him to catch up with the fast-stepping Georgian.
