Senators Gain On Mackmen In Thursday Games

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr. (Associated Press Sport Writer)

As long as the Washington Senators continue to play the kind of baseball they have been displaying for the past month or so, Philadelphia's Athletics are not going to make a runaway of the American league pennant race. The A's have compiled a remarkable record so far, running up 35 victories to 12 defeats. But the Senators have remained right on their heels.

Washington's average today was .600, no mean mark in any league, and the Senators were only 3 1/2 games behind after six straight victories. The only fly in the Senator ointment seems to be the refusal of the Athletics to lose a few more games for the team that has been hitting at a terrific clip, fielding up with the best and getting probably the best pitching in the league. Nine Washington pitchers went the route in succession before Jones failed to last on Wednesday.

Senators Tounce Cleveland

The senator clipped a full game from Philadelphia last Tuesday by touncing Cleveland 12 to 5. They piled up 15 hits in effective bunches. The only drawback was a slight injury to Joe Judge, star young shortstop, which may keep him out a day or two.

The A's took their worst beating since early in the season from the St. Louis Browns and their rookie pitcher, Wallace Hebert, the 19 year old moundman, making his first major league start. Hebert pitched to seven hits to win 8 to 2. The third straight day of bad weather stopped the games at New York and Boston.

The margin the St. Louis Cardinals hold over their National league rivals, Chicago and New York, was clipped to 3 1/2 games yesterday as Sox's Seals beat the Cardinals 5 to 4. The Sox gave Boston a 3 to 0 victory. The two teams tied for second place turned in a victory apiece.

Bob Smith gave the Cubs some highly effective mound work and Chicago beat Philadelphia 4 to 2 despite Chuck Klein's 15th homer of the season. The Giants had to go eleven innings to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates but came through with a three run rally at the bottom of the 11th to win 8 to 6. Bob O'Parrell, Giant catcher, drove in the final run with the 1000th hit of his major league career. Cincinnati and Brooklyn exchanged an 11 inning battle, the Reds winning 3 to 1. Siles Johnson, stonky young Cincinnati hurler, got the better of Dazey Vance and Jack Quinn on the mound.

Scientists Will Meet June 15 In Pasadena, Cal.

By F. H. Colton (Associated Press Science Writer)

PARADISE, Cal. (AP)—Scientists who explore the depths of the sea will be hosts to the American Association for the Advancement of Science at its summer meeting here June 15 to 20.

Hundreds of scientists from all over the United States will attend the session, to be held principally on the campus of the California Institute of Technology, a leading center of research in many branches of science.

Nearby is the Mount Wilson observatory with its 100-inch telescope, largest in the world, with which astronomers are studying universes so distant that light requires millions of years to reach the earth.

Connected with the institute is the marine station at Coronado del Mar, where oceanographers are studying sea creatures relatively as tiny as the distant nebulae are huge.

Nature of the mysterious cosmic rays which were investigated by Prof. Auguste Piccard and his colleagues on ascent, is being sought by Dr. Robert A. Millikan, head of the Norman Bridge Laboratory of Physics of the institute.

Behavior of powerful electric charges is tested in the institute's high-potential research laboratory in cooperation with the Southern California Edison company.

Research in aviation is carried on in the Daniel Guggenheim aeronautics laboratory, one of the largest in the world, and habits of earthquakes are under investigation in the seismological research laboratory operated in cooperation with the Carnegie Institution of Washington.

Chemistry and its practical uses are studied in the institute's Gates Chemical laboratory and research building. Applied Chemistry. Other research facilities of the institute include the laboratory of steam engineering and engineering research, the laboratory of applied physics, the William B. Kerckhoff laboratories of the biological sciences, and a farm for work in plant genetics at Arcadia, Cal.

Summer School Programs Prove Very Interesting

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)

COVE, Ore. (Special)—The evening programs at the Episcopal summer school are as always most interesting. Bishop W. P. Remington gives an address each evening on "The Christian Attitude Toward International Problems." This address is followed by a song service with Rev. J. M. G. Tennyson as leader. Then follows an hour of "stunts." Monday evening Miss Helen Payne of Ontario, gave a wonderful exhibition as colorist. Her stunts and poses were reported to have been marvelous. Sydney Bloom, of The Dalles, contributed several harmonica solos to the program. Mary Gordon, of Hood River, presented a very pretty fancy dance. These were the high lights of the evening. Tuesday evening the girls in St. Elizabeth's presented two playlets, "Scene in a Training Camp" and "The Old Man at the Mill," the latter by Alma Marie Doolittle. Then followed a trial of Rev. J. Henry Thomas, dean of women, of Klamath Falls, on a charge of "Conjuring and Conspiring and Plotting." Lawyer for the prosecution, Charles Evans Hughes (Rev. Dinty Moore) and for the defense, Clarence Darrow (Rev. John Richardson) with Judge Jos. S. Ewing presiding. The prisoner was found guilty and sentenced, the penalty being "to appear in public attire in habiliments of the fair sex. The sentence was later commuted.

Four-year-old Verna Towle had a very thrilling experience when she was in Portland just before Memorial day. It has been learned here. Verna was born on Friday the 13th and it is believed she is the only child of the 13th to go long on a jinx but in this instance it must have brought luck. Verna went with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Towle, and her sister, Rose, and her brother, Clifford, to Portland some time in the week before Memorial day. Friday, May 29 they went down in the heart of the downtown district after parking their car. They walked two blocks to the market on Fourth street. In the midst of their shopping the parents missed Verna and in a panic of fear they searched for her. After some time spent hunting they decided to notify the police and in the meantime Mrs. Towle returned to the car to deposit her parcels. Clifford, Verna quietly sitting there. She said she "couldn't find papa and she couldn't find mama" and she did find the car so she waited. Two blocks across two intersections in a crowded city street is a pretty long walk for a little four-year-old all alone.

HOLLYWOOD WINS SERIES 2 TO 1

Portland Fails to Cut Down Stars Lead; Jacobs Allows One Weak Hit.

By the Associated Press

Teams in the Pacific Coast league wound up a split three-game series yesterday with no team yet able to displace the Hollywood Stars from the apparently permanent hold they have on first place.

Hollywood spoiled any hopes the second place Portland Beavers might have had of cutting down the Stars' lead yesterday by taking a 6 to 1 game. Turner, Hollywood pitcher, held the Beavers to four hits while

Seals Blank Indians

The San Francisco Seals ended the series with a flourish as they tounced Seattle's Indians 9 to 0. If a dinky pop fly, which dropped to the ground between three fielders, had been caught, Homer Jacobs, veteran Seal pitcher, would have been credited with a no-hit, no-run game. As it was the hit failed to materialize into a run. The Seals gathered their nine runs in the fourth and fifth innings.

After a long series of losing the Oakland Aorns broke into the win column by shutting out the Los Angeles Angels 2 to 0. Monte Pearson, Oakland pitcher, fanned nine Angel batters and allowed but two hits. The Aorns made both their scores in the third inning, one of them coming from a homer by Fuzzy Huff, outfielder.

Sacramento downed the Mission Reds 10 to 3 in a loosely played game. Haggard fielding by the Missions aided the Senators in piling up the score while Flynn, Senator pitcher, kept the opponents in check.

Portland Meets Missions

Teams will change opponents and begin a four-game series tonight. Portland playing the Missions at San Francisco, the Seals opening Oakland at Emeryville, Seattle and Hollywood playing in Los Angeles, and Sacramento and Los Angeles meeting at Sacramento.

Yesterday's results:

R.	H.	E.
Portland	1	4	0
Hollywood	6	18	1
San Francisco	9	16	0
Seattle	0	1	2
San Francisco	0	16	0

Missions	3	8	3
Sacramento	10	11	3

Reed Discusses Stabilization Effort of Board

MANHATTAN, Kas., June 12 (AP)—Stanley Reed, general manager of the federal farm board, said yesterday agricultural producers should look beyond government purchases of surplus for a solution of marketing problems.

Mr. Reed was on the program for a discussion of the financial structure of cooperatives before the American Institute of Cooperation in session here.

Government purchases "may be helpful in emergencies, but they are not the final answer to the difficulties," he said.

He held that stabilization provisions of the agricultural marketing act, while important, "have received attention from the public entirely out of proportion to their relationship to the cooperative movement."

The farm board, he said, is essential there be harmony between the cooperatives and the board in working out a system of marketing "that will carry back to the producer the greatest financial benefit from his crops."

"Every effort of the board," he said, "has been expatriated which can function, separately and apart from board assistance, but which are worthy, if they so desire, of receiving aid from the large fund dedicated by our country to this purpose."

Forest Service Employs 30 Men Building Fences

NORTH POWDER, Ore., June 12.—The forest service is building several miles of fence on the Whitman forest as a part of its unemployment relief program. Forest officials announced today. Approximately 30 men are engaged in this work.

The fences are being built as follows: Two miles on North Powder cattle and horse range at the head of Lacker creek on the east bank of the river; three-quarters of a mile on the North Burnt river cattle and horse range; two and three-quarters miles on the South Burnt river range; one-half mile on the Pine valley range; one mile on the forest boundary crossing Indian creek south of Elgin, and two miles on Lacker creek on the east bank of the river.

The wire for the fences was purchased by the forest service with money from the federal unemployment relief fund. Permits on the North Powder and Big creek ranges are paying for the cost of constructing the fences in those sections through the use of grazing fees. Construction costs for the other projects are met by use of the forest service unemployment relief fund. All projects must be completed by July 1, the end of the fiscal year.

Why They Serve

OUR employees who devote their time and energies to serving the public with electric service will generally be found to be animated by something that transcends the mere matter of advancement and reward.

It is oftentimes called "the spirit of service"—the spirit that encourages these men and women to uphold the tradition that its service never go out, winter or summer, good times or bad times, day or night.

To keep alive that tradition has meant the performance of tasks in the face of unusual discomforts and discouragements, even "above and beyond the call of duty."

Ford Establishing Experimental Farm

DETROIT, June 12 (AP)—The Detroit News says that Henry Ford has acquired a large group of farms in Lenawee county in southeastern Michigan preparatory to turning the property into a vast experimental farm.

The newspaper says Mr. Ford is personally supervising the work of developing the farm. He is quoted as saying that "farming ought to be run more like industry" and that "the farmer ought to work more closely with the manufacturer. The two ought to use nearly the same methods and ought to help each other."
