GEORGIA ARRIVES FOR TROJAN GAME

Southern California Favored to Defeat Strong Southern Eleven.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11 (AP)—There is much talk hereabouts of another football triumph for the University of Southern California Trojans when the run afoul Georgia's strong eleven at the Olympic stadium on the morrow.

All this because the Bulldogs must spot their western opponents a lot of tonnage and reserve strength almost without end. Which revives the moot question of superiority between speed and brawn.

Needless to say, the pro-Trojan predictions do not include comments by partisans of the south, not to mention Georgia's coach, Harry Mehre, who smilingly conceded Southern California the game, on arrival.

Red Menace to Start

Georgia has four good guards, subbed in pairs, who may disrupt Southern California's fierce stabs at the line. The Red Menace, Red Maddox and Red Leathers, will start at the guard positions, with Tige Bennett and Jim Patterson the other pair.

As for the Trojans smashing the line, Mehre is also dubious. He says, for example, that Vernon (Castfish) Smith, who was supposed to have been made to look rather bad at times against Tulane in Georgia's lone defeat, really wasn't to blame for the Green Wave sweeping over his position.

"Smith cut down the interference all right," said Mehre, "but my backs missed their tackles."

Trojans May Pass

There is more than a small chance that Coach Howard Jones' team will have to blossom forth with a passing attack of consequence if the invaders are to taste of defeat.

That Southern California will enjoy its full strength Saturday became known last night after Gordon Clark, the last of those injured against Washington, appeared in the final hard practice.

Salaries of Ball Players Reduced

CHICAGO, Dec. 11 (AP)—Due to decreased attendance and business conditions, baseball players' salaries will be reduced next season, club owners of American and National leagues, in joint session decided yesterday.

Club owners of both leagues also agreed to cut the player limit from 25 to 23, thus effecting a saving to the two leagues of about $100,000 in salaries. The action will cause the casting admit of 32 players who have been warming the benches in major league parks.

The deciding vote in the issue was cast by Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball.

Reggie McNamee, six-day bicycle riding star, is 44 years old. He is still going strong.

Army and Navy Game Tomorrow To End Season

By Herbert W. Barker

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (AP)—The east's long football season comes to an end tomorrow with the 32nd clash between Army and Navy.

The two service academies meet, not as regular season rivals, but in an extra added feature on the common ground of charity. For the second time in as many years the receipts will go to the fund for the unemployed.

Pre-game estimates indicated a crowd of 80,000 in the Yankee stadium and receipts in excess of $400,000.

Although the athletic "break" between the two schools is just as wide now as it was in December, 1927, when the Army declined to adopt the three-year eligibility rule at the Navy's demand, the fact remains that they are natural rivals meeting in a game which both are primed to win.

Army's record is by far the more impressive, but most experts figure the Cadets "pointed" for the Notre Dame game which they won, 12-0, and perhaps have lost that fine edge that made them look so impressive against the Ramblers.

Navy, on the other hand, has advanced slowly toward the peak of condition. The Tars gave ample warning of trouble for the Army when they upset Penn last week, 6-0, on a long pass from Lou Kirn to Joe Tschirgi.

Weather prospects were for rain tonight, making it almost certain that the game would be played on the slippy field. It is more than likely the result probably will turn on a "break" in favor of either.

Army this season has beaten Ohio Northern, Knox, Michigan State, Louisiana State, Ursinus, Colorado college and Notre Dame, tied Yale and been beaten by Harvard and Pittsburgh. Navy has won from Whittan and Mary Delaware, Worcester, Princeton and Penn, tied West Virginia Wesleyan and lost to Notre Dame, Maryland, Southern Methodist and Ohio State.

Maneuvers of the corps of cadets and regiment of midshipmen will precede the game, which is to start at 1:10 p. m. (E. S. T.) Details of the contest will be broadcast by two radio chains.

Cougars' Coach Picks U. S. C. To Defeat Tulane

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11 (AP)—Coach Orin (Babe) Hollingbery of Washington State, whose Cougars lost to Tulane a week ago, thinks the University of Southern California should beat the Green Wave in the annual Rose Tournament game at Pasadena New Year's day.

"If the Trojans play their usual brand of football,"

And in the next breath the coach whose team lost to Alabama 24 to 0 in the annual intercollegiate classic last year, is willing to tell each and all that he thinks Tulane has the best squad that ever came out of the south.

"Tulane has a well balanced squad," says Hollingbery, "with a versatile and strong offense, a good defense and powerful reserves."

"They are a cocky team, however. Somehow those southerners have the idea that football was born, raised and will die below the Mason and Dixon line. They'll be coming out here confident of knocking over the Trojans."

"Talk about Dalrymple, but don't overlook the other end, Haynes. He played a better game against us than Dalrymple, although the latter was handicapped by injuries. The whole line is big and exceptionally alert. The whole team is exceptionally fast."

"Zimmerman is the big noise in the backfield. He can run, pass or punt equally well. Tulane plays a spectacular brand of football that will make the western fans vote it the most colorful southern team that ever played in the Rose Bowl."

LEWIS BEATS CANTONWINE IN FIFTH ROUND

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 11 (AP)—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, Los Angeles, defeated Howard Cantonwine, in the fifth round of a wrestling match here last night when the Iowan was unable to continue the bout after a series of headlocks and a body slam had given Lewis the first fall of the match in the fourth.

Cantonwine, groggy, came out for the fifth, succumbed to a headlock and was thrown to the mat, laying there for the count.

The referee awarded the fall and match to Lewis. Lewis weighed 238 pounds; Cantonwine 228.

Charles Manno, California, 213, and Jack Forsgren, 209, Vancouver, wrestled to a draw in the three-round opener, each taking a fall.

JACK DEMPSEY IN GOOD SHAPE, GIBBONS SAYS

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 11 (AP)—Tommy Gibbons, retired St. Paul boxer, thinks Jack Dempsey today looks nearer the condition he was in when the local man fought him at Shelby, Mont., eight years ago, than at any time since.

Gibbons expressed that opinion after watching Dempsey, former world's heavyweight champion, work out here in preparation for an exhibition boxing program tonight.

"I was pleased and surprised to find Dempsey down to fighting trim," said Gibbons, who lost a 15-round decision to Jack at Shelby and who was the only opponent to escape a knockout by Dempsey from the time he won the title from Jess Willard until he lost it to Gene Tunney.

Dempsey tonight is scheduled to box one round each with Angus McDonald, Winnipeg, and Jack Roper, Chicago, and two rounds with Art Lasky, Minneapolis.

Greenleaf Keeps Top Position In Billiard Tourney

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11 (AP)—Ralph Greenleaf, of New York, still held undisputed possession of first place in the standings and Robert Lindblom, of Seattle, west coast champion, had climbed out of the cellar as the world's pocket billiard championship tournament passed the half way point today.

Greenleaf won his toughest match last night in setting back Bennie Allen, of Kansas City. Greenleaf unfurled an unfinished run of 57 in the tenth inning to win 125 to 104. Until that point he had trailed most of the way.

Lindblom, who had moved along losing consistently, defeated Onofrio Lauri, an early favorite, 125 to 82 in 25 innings. Al Miller, of Racine, Wis., dropped the first night game to Marcel Camp and slipped down into the lowest position.

Johnny Layton, a former champion won the other game of the day by overcoming George Kelly, Philadelphia, 125 to 85.

CLUB CHAMPIONS' AMATEUR ATTRACTS COLLEGE GOLFER

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—Isaac Lincoln Merrill has registered for the National Championship of Club Champions, leading amateur classic of the Florida winter season here Feb. 1 to 6.

Merrill will represent the Megunticook Golf club of Camden, Me., in competition for the Walter J. Travis memorial trophy.

He was the first collegiate golfer to file his entry blank. He is a student at the University of York in Canada. Dan J. Jr. of Balling college and Stanley J. Harte, New York university, are other college men expected.

Johnny Farrell is in charge of details of the tournament.

HOUSEWIFE IN AUSTRALIA BREAKS BICYCLE RECORD

MELBOURNE (AP)—Mrs. Ethel Carter, 27, mother of two children, has broken the world's record for women cyclists. She pedaled 100 miles in 5 hours, 20 minutes, 52 2-5 seconds.

"I had plenty of energy to spare," she said and after a cup of tea and a sandwich went home to her housework.

Freak Accident Break Wrist Of Leading Golfer

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11 (AP)—With one of the ranking favorites, Horton Smith, of Missouri, on the sidelines with a fractured wrist bone and other topnotchers in the role of spectators due to disastrous qualifying rounds, the $7500 national match play open golf championship got under way here today.

Medalist at 143 strokes, the dashing, 24-year-old Smith paced a huge field to come in under the wire at the close of the 36-hole qualifying trials yesterday. A few hours later he was the victim of a freak accident. With his friend and fellow professional, Joe Kirkwood, of Chicago, Smith returned to the Lake Merced country club as a dinner guest.

Kirkwood, driving the automobile, backed into a parking space. Smith put out his arm and his wrist was jammed between the car and a post. X-ray photographs revealed a fracture of the radius bone. Dr. Bert Frohman said Smith would be out of play for several months.

GIVEN FIVE-YEAR TERM

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 11 (AP)—L. W. Matthews, 47, former Portland attorney, was sentenced to five years in state prison when he pleaded guilty to two indictments charging him with obtaining money under false pretences.

The district attorney's office said Matthews obtained about $150,000 over a period of ten years by false representation in real estate deals.

SCHUBLE TO QUIT "FARMING"

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Heinie Schuble, who played third base for Beaumont in the Texas league last season, will have to "go up" next year. The property of Detroit, he has now been "farmed" for four years, the legal limit.

British Greens Haze

In Britain, the greens are, to American eyes, enormous. On at least one of the famous "double greens" at St. Andrews—the fifth and 13th holes are in the same surface—one may be a couple of hundred feet from the object-pin, and be putting. But nature is allowed to take its course there, and on other British courses, and the surfaces are slow and retentive of approach shots only in wet weather.

In dry weather, the unaccustomed visitor from our shores feels that his feet are likely to fly out from under him, as on ice. And the direction from which his approach is played is extremely important.

Accurate and intelligent driving is requisite, when greens are fast and dry; for if you must carry a yawning bunker after a straying drive, you are indeed left with a problem.

As Mr. Jones points out, it is contradictory to design a fine and closely-bunkered green and then nullify the hazards by keeping the surface soft and ultra-retentive.

MARKS TO GET MEIER'S PAY

SALEM, Dec. 11 (AP)—Gov. Julius L. Meier will endorse his warrant salary for the month of December and turn it over to Willard L. Marks, serving as governor during Meier's absence, it was announced by Miss Beatrice Walton, secretary to the governor.

This procedure will not necessitate double payment for December to the chief executive and will eliminate need for legislative action.

all over Notre Dame's running machinery in the Yankee Stadium.

"You will all be gloomy in another five years at that rate," remarked Gil Doble to a gathering of fellow coaches, after things like this had been under discussion.

LATE BLOOMING ROSES

On the same day that a lot of All-America selections were being hawked around the newspaper premises, a number of young gentles in football uniform decided to run wild, including Ray Stecker of the Army, Bob Lassiter of Yale and the Carolina Lassiters, and Ernie Caddell of Stanford.

We searched the All-Americans carefully without finding anything more than an honorable mention for any of these boys.

Perhaps the best solution of this national problem would be to pick a certain date and then select another on the basis of post-season returns, up to and including New Year's Day.

BUCKNELL'S BROADSIDE

Bucknell isn't ready to concede Pittsburgh or any other outfit a major share of the assorted eastern football honors without an argument.

The Bisons, although tied three times, wound up their campaign as the only undefeated outfit in these parts and they are ready to defend the distinction, right down to the last yard.

For example, writes Arthur L. Brandon from Lewisburg, the home of the Bisons: "Bucknell played five major eastern foes, Pittsburgh four, Pitt's eastern opponents were the Army, Carnegie Tech, West Virginia and Penn State. Among them they won but three games against eastern teams and one of these victories was by the weak West Virginia team over a still weaker Penn State eleven."

In a "Mythical League," Pitt's eastern opponents are grouped in the last sixth in the standings. In the same "Mythical League," Bucknell's opponents are grouped as follows: Fordham and Temple, in the first two-fifths, Georgetown, Villanova and W. & J. in the next two-fifths. Thus, all Bucknell opponents, so far as their 1931 ratings are concerned, rank higher than the four opponents Pitt found little trouble in beating."

MIKE MORAN PICKS ALL-STAR ELEVEN IN THE NORTHWEST

PORTLAND, Dec. 11 (AP)—Mike Moran, widely known football referee, who annually selects his all-star Pacific Northwest conference team, picked three men from the Willamette squad and two each from Whitman, College of Puget Sound, College of Idaho and Pacific in this year's first team.

First Team

Second Team

FRAT'S ENTER ATHLETICS

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Sigma Alpha Epsilon heads the list in the intramural procession at the University of Florida. With four of the 13 sports for the season completed, S. A. E. is in first place with 406 points. Phi Delta Theta is second with 400 and A. T. O. is third with 368.

Northwestern Grid Team To Lose Great Linemen for 1932 Campaign

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Unless strength at tackle and guard plays a bigger part in football success than even the most observing grid fan realizes, Northwestern should be up near the top of the Big Ten again in 1932.

Coach Dick Hanley will lose by graduation eight varsity players off what is recognized as one of Northwestern's greatest teams, but half of that octet consists of two giant tackles and two high-ranking guards.

Three of the others are backs who have not been absolutely essential to the Wildcats' success this season, and the eighth is an end, of which there are plenty.

But replacing Jack Riley, all-conference tackle, and Dan Marvill, All-American in the same role, and Jimmy Evans and Paul Engobretsen, three-season guards, just can't be done, Purple adherents fear.

Al Moore and Will Lewis have been valuable as fill-in backs during their senior season, and Bob Russell was mighty useful in the closing games, but with Pug Reintner and the great sophomore quartet of Olson, Porter, Mesman and Sullivan available, Wildcats can expect the backfield to take care of itself.

Senior Ralph Elyar will leave the end situation in the capable hands of Dick Fencil, junior, and four promising sopho, Manske, Jens, Hall, and Koebade. At center, Pat MacDonald, this year's first stringer, will return.

George Dillely, who alternated with Engobretsen, will be back to hold down one of the guard jobs. But for those tackle jobs and the other guard post, it's apparently up to the current freshman class to furnish the replacements.

If the class of '32 can do that task as brilliantly as the present sophomores supplied backfield power for this year's team, Purple supporters will be inclined to admit there is a Santa Claus!

Four freshmen who likely will figure in the rush to grab these responsible positions are Tangora of Washington, D. C., Zaver of Adams, Mich., and Fundus of Detroit, all husky tackles, and Al Kawal of Cicero, Ill., a guard and brother of Eddie Kaval, who starred as a center at Illinois a few years ago.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor)

Hunk Anderson of Notre Dame, asked to pick the best linemen his team faced all season, named Quast of Pittsburgh, Riley of Northwestern and Baker of Southern California.

But Hunk hastened to add that Army's line was the toughest the Ramblers tried to break through all year. Price and Summerfelt were particularly troublesome for Notre Dame.

The Cadet announcer in the press box of the Yankee Stadium pretty well epitomized the situation, in the fourth quarter, when he barked: "Schwartz, tackled by the Army line."

The soldier players showed no respect whatever for the famous All-America halfback from Bay St. Louis, down in Mississippi.

DOPE DOES TAILSPIN

Any way you figure it out, it has been a dizzy gridiron season.

Columbia walloped Dartmouth and Cornell whipped Columbia, but Dartmouth evened it up by a two-touchdown victory over Cornell.

Notre Dame sneared Pittsburgh, which gave the Army a racing, but the result was that Army climbed
