

LOCAL BRIEFS

Returns—
Norman Jesse has returned from Portland, where he passed the examination given by the government to qualify for the position of flying cadet. Mr. Jesse has now passed the examination given by the University of Oregon and that given by the government and is awaiting a commission to enter training. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Jesse.

Half-Year License—
Half-year licenses for automobiles may be secured at the office of the sheriff on and after Dec. 21, according to Deputy Sheriff Carl Ebert.

Story Hour—
A Christmas story hour will be held at the library tomorrow morning.

ing in the children's room. Miss Gertrude Wagener, children's librarian, will tell "The Gift of Love" and "How the Christmas Tree First Got Its Lights," two stories, and the children will furnish the remainder of the program. Miss Wagener states that all children who know pieces will be invited to recite them at that time.

To Colfax—
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Skeen will spend the Christmas holidays in Colfax, Wash., where they will visit Mrs. Skeen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rosenkrantz. They plan to leave Tuesday. Mr. Skeen is a member of the faculty of the Eastern Oregon Normal school.

Returns—
Mrs. R. P. Murphy and daughter, Betty Lou, returned today from Kansas City, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Griffith. While there she attended the funeral services for her brother, Chester Griffith.

Has Operation—
Jack Salisbury underwent an operation at the Grande Ronde hospital on Dec. 12, and although he is still confined at the hospital, he is reported to be improving.

No Contagious Diseases—
No contagious diseases have been reported within the city at present, according to an announcement made by the city health physician today.

Spend Christmas at Home—
Florence Vedder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Vedder, will spend the Christmas vacation with her parents in La Grande. She is expected to arrive next week. Miss Vedder, who has many friends in La Grande, having lived here for a number of years, is employed in Portland.

Lutheran Church—

At the regular Sunday morning worship service, at 11:00 o'clock, the pastor at the Lutheran church will preach upon the theme, "The Surpassing Peace of God." Andrew Loney Jr., will play a trumpet solo as an offering. The choir will sing a Christmas anthem, "Glory Be to God in the Highest," accompanied at the piano by Miss Helen Jensen. The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 in the church annex. Miss Marion Gehring will read the Scripture lesson for the morning, a part of the story of the Nativity of Jesus. Those who have parts in the Christmas programs will rehearse their parts at this service. The children of the Sunday school will present their offerings of food at this service, in order to make up a basket for the Christmas dinner of some needy family. The Luther League will not have its regular devotional meeting on Sunday evening, because of the Christmas program.

Recovered—
Ralph Barlow, who underwent a mastoid operation at the Grande Ronde hospital recently, yesterday was sufficiently recovered to return to his home at Elgin. Ralph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Barlow, prominent greenhouse owners, of Elgin, who are widely known in this vicinity.

Fair Condition—
The condition of Amos "Spud" Helms was reported as fair this morning. He had a slightly restless night last night but was feeling better today. A fourth blood transfusion is expected to be given him tomorrow.

Late Return—
When Ed Grulis, 40, and Donald Grulis, 16, failed to return home yesterday afternoon from Fox Hill, where they went in search of Christmas trees, Mrs. Grulis became alarmed and notified officers. Sheriff Jesse Brehears started a search for the men late last night, but the two returned home between midnight and 1 o'clock none the worse for a night on the hill.

Rail Official Here—
F. N. Finch, general superintendent of the O.-W. with headquarters in Portland, was a visitor in La Grande yesterday and today, coming here on official business.

Two Young Men Fined—
Two young La Grande men, Ellis Watkins and Vernon Patten, were fined $25 and costs in justice court at 1 o'clock this afternoon by Judge L. Denham. Watkins paid his fine and Patten paid $7 and officers returned him to the custody of the sheriff to serve out the remainder of his fine at the rate of $2 a day unless it is paid. Traffic Officer Horstman, acting on a license number given him by two men who saw two young fellows taking gas from a car, apprehended the two and secured a statement from each. The officer said both admitted stealing gas since about the first of June. He stated that officers are being instructed to enforce this law to the limit and that offenders will be strictly prosecuted.

Christmas Party—
The children of the Episcopal church school will enjoy a Christmas party at the Honan hall tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. John Camp is the leader and Mrs. G. N. Tarkington will tell a Christmas story.

From Stanford—
Claire Perkins, who is attending Stanford university at Palo Alto, Cal., this winter, is expected to arrive in La Grande on Sunday to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Perkins. Mr. Perkins is a sophomore in the California school.

From U. of O.—
Fred Nowland, ex-track star of La Grande High school, will leave his cinder-path activities at the University of Oregon for a few days to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nowland. Mr. Nowland is a freshman at the state university, and a member of Phi Delta Theta. He is expected to arrive home this afternoon.

From Pendleton—
Mrs. Claudia Benson, A. C. Funk, Brice Bombay, H. E. McKee and E. B. Aldrich, all of Pendleton, were visitors in La Grande yesterday. Mrs. Benson is the 3-A association representative in Pendleton and part of her duties is to inform travelers as to the conditions of the roads throughout Eastern Oregon.

Detained By Storm—
Yesterday's windstorm was in keeping with the thimble of commerce slogan, "Spend one day more in Oregon," and the gale and also icy highways forced many travelers to stay in this city overnight. Among those who were detained by the storm were G. P. Utter, of Portland; John Watkins, of Portland; and J. J. Rainey, of Amarillo, Texas. They were registered at local hotels.

Christmas Party—
The Eagles lodge last night made plans for a Christmas tree and program to be an event of Wednesday evening, at a meeting held at 7:30 at the hall. Louis Evans was appointed chairman, while the auxiliary members will plan the program. The families of the lodge members are invited. Initiation was also held last night.

Flying Dutchman Here—
Johnny Kitzmiller, the famous "Flying Dutchman" of the University of Oregon, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Badgro, all of New York City, stopped in La Grande last night and left early this morning for Portland, where they will visit. Kitzmiller has been playing professional football with the New York Giants this year, and Badgro is also prominent in professional football circles. Kitzmiller graduated from the University of Oregon last spring and has been in New York since that time.

To Seattle—
Rev. and Mrs. L. Carlsen plan to leave Monday morning for Seattle where they will spend the Christmas holidays with their parents. They are to return home for New Year's. Mr. Carlsen is pastor of the Gospel Mission.
