Pays $5—E. C. Shellworth was found guilty Saturday of operating an automobile without legal license. He pleaded not guilty to the charge and was tried before Judge L. Denham in the court of the justice of the peace. He was fined $5 and the fine was paid.

Marriage—A marriage license was obtained Friday afternoon at the office of the county clerk by Arthur J. Butler and Ruby Pearson, both of North Powder.

Sale Not Confirmed—The sale of the Blue Mountain Lumber company to Howard Stoddard was not confirmed by Judge J. W. Knowles Saturday, following a hearing held in the circuit court. Objections to the confirmation were raised and prominent attorneys from Union and Baker counties were in the city to submit arguments.

Recovering—Mrs. H. M. Buck, who underwent an operation in Portland about two weeks ago, is recovering and expects to return to her home here in about three weeks.

Boy Scout Head—W. L. Hayward, of Spokane, associate regional executive of the Boy Scouts, will be in this city tomorrow and will be honored at a meeting to be held at noon at the La Grande hotel. All local people who are interested in Boy Scout work are invited to attend and confer with the visitor.

Ever-Ready Class—One of the most interesting parties of the Christmas season was given last Friday night in the social parlor of the Ever-Ready class of the Christian Bible school. About 50 young people enjoyed the activities of the evening. The room was beautifully decorated with Christmas greens and red streamers. A short business meeting was held in the early part of the evening at which D. Smutz, who was chairman of this organization, presided. This group is composed of young people above the high school group and comprises a large section of the younger group of the church. Games were played during the evening under the leadership of Mr. Smutz and Mrs. M. M. Arant. A number of new members were introduced to the group and a pleasant social evening was enjoyed by all. A gaily decorated Christmas tree contained favors for each one present and refreshments were served at a late hour. Miss Thelma Strain was chairman of the decorating committee. Miss Anita Johnson is teacher of the class.

Leave For Portland—Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ritchey plan to leave Wednesday for Portland where they will be guests of their daughters, Mrs. Raymond Hall and Miss Etta Belle Kitchey, for a few days.
