Whirl of Social Activity Features Arrival of 1932

A whirl of activity introduced 1932. Thursday evening, although the streets of the city were rather quiet, dances and parties, lasting until a late hour, formed the leading entertainment, with the B. of L. F. and E. sponsoring a "watch night" ball at the ball room of the Sacajawea Inn. Among the Thursday evening hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Worrel, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoppel and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mackey, all of whom entertained at interesting evening parties.

Entertain Thursday At Court Whist

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Morgan were hosts at a delightful party Thursday evening at their home. Court whist was played, with Mrs. Arnold Gralapp and Jack Ferris receiving the prizes for high score. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blokland were awarded consolation.

A two-course luncheon was served late in the evening by the hostesses. Guests to form three tables for whist were present, and they were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ferris, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blokland, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gralapp and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Padlock.

Scotts Entertain New Year's Eve

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott were among the hosts on New Year's eve, entertaining at an informal party preceding the New Year's dance. Twelve guests were invited for the evening to play bridge. Those attending were Dr. and Mrs. James J. D. Hain, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hettick, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barnwell, Miss Fonda Hanks, Miss Eva Riggs, Harold Boone and Elwood Hiatt.

Mrs. Leal Russell Entertains Club

Mrs. Leal Russell entertained members and guests of her bridge club at her home on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Holiday decorations were used about the rooms. Mrs. Doyle Zimmerman received the prize for high score. Mrs. George McDonald was fourth, and Mrs. Paul Moyers was high scorer among the guests. Refreshments were served at a late hour in the afternoon. Mrs. Robert Scott will be hostess to the group on Jan. 14.

Three D Club In Watch Night Party

Twelve members and guests of the Three D club were invited to a watch night party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mackey on Thursday evening. Pinochle was played during the evening, with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Douhan receiving the prize for high score. Holiday decorations were used about the rooms. At a late hour refreshments were served by the hostesses. Guests of the club for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sullivan, of Eugene; Mrs. J. N. Duncan, of Salem; and D. Abussard, of Albany. Yesterday the Three D club members spent the day at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Noyes on the Grande Ronde river and enjoyed a delicious dinner. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Douhan will be the next hosts on Jan. 14.

Mrs. Green Hostess At Bridge Party

At an afternoon party, Mrs. Clarence Green entertained the Poppy club Thursday at 2 o'clock at her home. Eight members were invited for bridge, and Mrs. Charles Graham received the high score. Mrs. C. L. Thompson scored low and received the consolation prize. A red and green motif was carried out in the decorations about the rooms and in the refreshments which were served at the close of the affair by the hostess. Mrs. Thompson will entertain on Jan. 14.

Mrs. Zweifel Is Thursday Hostess

At a one o'clock luncheon at the Sacajawea Inn, Mrs. Nate Zweifel entertained the Jolly Bridge club Thursday afternoon. The luncheon table was attractively decorated with a centerpiece of red carnations and freesia. Bridge was played after luncheon with Mrs. Everett Keown receiving the high prize, and Mrs. Henry Hess, second. A luncheon at the Sacajawea Inn will be enjoyed by the members of the club in two weeks, with Mrs. Lester Bramwell as hostess.

Diversity Club Is Entertained

The home of Mrs. Claude Puckett was the scene of a meeting of the Diversity club, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Puckett was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Fred Rees. Bridge was played during the afternoon, with 15 members and one guest, Mrs. Otis Huff, forming four tables. Mrs. Weldon Vedder was the high scorer of the afternoon and Mrs. F. Prouty received the consolation. Mrs. Puckett and Mrs. Rees served refreshments after bridge. Mrs. Vedder will be the next hostess in two weeks, and will be assisted by Mrs. Eaul Wirth.

Watch Night Party At Hoppel Home

A watch night party was enjoyed by the Triangle Bridge club Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoppel. Twelve members celebrated the coming of the new year.

Bridge was played during the evening and Mrs. Wesley McDonald and Donald Gally received the prizes for high scores. The hostess served a two-course luncheon at midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Webb will entertain the group on Jan. 14 at 8 o'clock.

Dinner Party At The McNees Home

Two events were the occasion for a delightful dinner party at which Mr. and Mrs. Roy McNees entertained yesterday evening at 6 o'clock at their home. They celebrated New Year's day and Mr. McNees's birthday anniversary. A turkey dinner was served with places arranged for 12. Pinochle was played during the evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. George McNees, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heasty, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hutehens, Miss Lulu McNees, Miss Mary Struthers, Marshal Heasty, L. L. Graul.

T. and C. Members Are Entertained

Sixteen members of the T and C club gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Speckhart Thursday evening to usher in the new year. Pinochle was played and Mrs. Gilbert Hunter and L. E. Standley received the prizes. At a late hour in the evening Mrs. Speckhart served refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dobbins were guests for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson will entertain for pinochle on Jan. 13 at their home.

Fifty Fifty Club Greets New Year

The Fifty-Fifty club members entertained their husbands and other guests at an interesting watch night party Thursday at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Worrel. Eight tables were formed for pinochle, and Mrs. Jessie Laird and Miss Clara Shepherd received the prizes for high score. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hale were low scorers. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Case, Mr. and Mrs. Elde Snyder, of La Grande, and Mrs. Clara Citek, of Medford, who is a guest at the home of her brother, Earl Roberts.
