

LOCAL BRIEFS

Returns—

Miss Jean White, who spent the holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. White, in Portland, returned yesterday morning to La Grande. Miss White is a teacher in the La Grande high school in the English department.

Visits With Friends—

Miss Carolyn Baumann returned yesterday to La Grande after spending the latter part of the Christmas holidays visiting friends in Portland. Miss Baumann is the daughter of Mrs. C. L. Baumann, and a teacher in the language department of the La Grande high school.

To Eugene—

Among the students returning to the University of Oregon is Edwin Kirby, who has been here for the past two weeks visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Kirby. He left yesterday to resume his work in the pre-medicine department.

O. S. C. Student—

Robert Ramsey, a student at the Oregon State college, left yesterday for Corvallis, after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Robinson. He is a pledge to Delta Tau Delta fraternity at the state college.

Returns—

George Anderson Jr., in his fourth year at the University of Oregon where he is a student in the law school, returned yesterday to Eugene for the winter term of school. He spent the past two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson Sr.

To U. of I.—

Among the students returning to the University of Idaho is Jay Kendrick, who has just finished a vacation spent at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Kendrick. Jay is a student in business administration.

Returns From Boise—

Mrs. Bertha Hayes has arrived in La Grande and resumed her teaching at the La Grande high school after a vacation spent with relatives in Boise, Ida.

To Salt Lake City—

Miss Ethel Harnden has returned to Salt Lake City, Utah, to complete the year in nurses training at a large hospital. Miss Harnden is a graduate of the La Grande high school, and has relatives and friends in La Grande with whom she visited during her vacation.

To U. of Utah—

Grant Stringham, who is attending the University of Utah, left yesterday for Salt Lake City to resume his studies. He has been in La Grande for the past two weeks visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stringham. He is a freshman in the university.

Returns to U. of O.—

After being a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Daniels, during the Christmas holidays, Norman Daniels left yesterday for Eugene where he is a student at the University of Oregon and a pledge in Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Returns—

Mrs. Ellen Stoddard has returned from Salt Lake City where she visited her sons, Howard and Robert, and other relatives. Robert is attending Stanford university, in Palo Alto, Cal., and spent his vacation in Salt Lake City.

Return—

Mrs. G. A. McIntyre and daughter, James, returned Thursday from Portland where they spent the Christmas holidays.

From Baker—

Among the holiday visitors from Baker were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Metcalf and daughter, Allayne. Miss Mae Neiderer and Lyman Kenner, who spent Christmas with Miss Neiderer's and Mrs. Metcalf's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Neiderer.

Back From South—

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stephenson spent the holidays visiting Mrs. Stephenson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Millap, in Sacramento, Cal. They left La Grande on Dec. 22 and returned yesterday.

Returns—

Miss Catherine Sartain has been a visitor in Eugene for the past two weeks with friends and relatives, and returned to La Grande this morning. Miss Sartain is a member of the teaching staff in the English department of the La Grande high school and has directed many successful plays since coming to the city.

To Resume Duties—

After a two weeks vacation spent with relatives and friends in Eugene, Miss Mary Druley has returned to La Grande where she is a teacher in the La Grande high school. Miss Druley is a member of the science staff.

To Eugene—

Worth Epling has been a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Epling, since the University of Oregon closed for the Christmas holidays. He returned to Eugene yesterday to resume his studies. He is a member of the freshman class and is pledged to Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Fred Nowland, who is prominent in track activities at the University of Oregon where he is a freshman and who is pledged to Phi Delta Theta fraternity, has been spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Nowland. He left yesterday for Eugene where he will begin intensive training for the winter track season. Mr. Nowland was one of the leading track stars among the Oregon high school students last year.

Vacation Here—

Miss Ruth Rode, Robert Rode and Miss Bernice Jones, of Union, have been spending the holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rode, in La Grande.

From Union—

Among the holiday visitors in La Grande were Russell Rode and Kenneth South, of Union, who spent a few days visiting the grandparents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rode. Mrs. Rode, also of Union, spent New Year's day here with Mr. and Mrs. Rode.

Returns—

Miss Jennie Peterson has returned to La Grande to resume her duties as musical director at the Eastern Oregon Normal school, after spending the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claus Peterson, and other relatives in Moscow, Ida. She was joined in Walla Walla by her sister, Alice Peterson, who is a member of the faculty of the Whitman conservatory of music, and who has been presented in musical circles in La Grande in the past.

To Eugene—

Miss Alice Cook, who has been at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Cook, during the holidays, has returned to Eugene to resume her work at the University of Oregon. Miss Cook is a member of Delta Zeta sorority, and also of Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary journalistic organization for women, and is prominent in campus newspaper work.

Leaves—

After spending the past two weeks visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Larson, Miss Anita Knotts has returned to the University of Oregon where she is a student and affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority. Miss Knotts has many friends in La Grande, having spent the past two Christmas vacations here.

Returns—

Miss Melba Hanks has been a Portland visitor for the past few days, but returned yesterday to La Grande to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hanks, before returning to Walla Walla, where she is a teacher.

Visits Here—

John Hoffman, who is employed in Portland, returned to La Grande last Thursday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Mary Hoffman, and other relatives.

To Study—

Dr. A. M. Moore, local dentist, left last night for Portland. He will return in about 10 days.

Attend Funeral—

Among the members of the state police department who attended funeral services for Amos Helms in La Grande on Saturday, were Charles P. Pray, of Salem, superintendent of the entire system; Captain H. Lee Roe, of Baker; Lieut. Walter Lansing, of Salem; Sergeant C. L. Lile, of Arlington; Sergeant Warren Yancy, of Baker; Pvt. Frank McMahon, of Arlington; Pvt. T. R. Bloom, of Baker; Sergeant S. C. Linville, of La Grande; Pvt. L. L. Pittenger and Sergeant Earl B. Houston, of Pendleton; Pvt. E. M. Anderson, Milton; Pvt. Walter S. Walker, of Ontario; and Pvt. Evan Hart, of John Day.

Attends O. S. T. A.—

Miss Kate Houk, director of training at the J. H. Ackerman training school, has returned from Portland, where she was one of the speakers at the meeting of the Oregon State Teachers association. She also visited in Tacoma with friends and relatives on Christmas day.

From Portland—

After spending the vacation with relatives in Portland, Miss Alta Lillie returned to La Grande on Thursday. Miss Lillie is a teacher at the La Grande high school.

For Medical Treatment—

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Burleigh and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burleigh, of Enterprise, were in La Grande Friday evening and Mrs. G. A. Burleigh received medical treatment. They have returned to their home. The latter Mr. Burleigh is former district attorney of Walla Walla county.

At E. O. N.—

Miss Dorothy Steimle, of Portland, has come to La Grande to fill the position of secretary to President H. E. Inlow, at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. The position was left vacant by the resignation of Miss Wilda Barker, who has left to fill a position in California.

Back From Portland—

After visiting friends in Portland, Miss Helen Moor, dean of women at the Normal school, returned during the weekend to La Grande. Miss Moor was ill during the early part of the vacation, but was able to leave for Portland after Christmas.

Returns—

After visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lawrence, in Bellingham, Wash., and appearing on the program at the meeting of the Oregon State Teachers association in Portland, Miss Arta Lawrence returned during the weekend to resume her activities as primary supervisor at the J. H. Ackerman training school.

To Seattle—

Mrs. Josephine E. Wright spent the vacation as a guest at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wright, in La Grande. She left last week for Seattle, her home.

Return—

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Dow and son, Bobby, returned from a visit to California Saturday. While there they visited their son, John Heugan, in San Francisco, and with Mrs. Dow's relatives in Sacramento. Their tour included several large California points. Mr. and Mrs. Dow report that the weather was cloudy during their stay and that rain fell every day.

From Enterprise—

Miss Eunice Fisher, of Enterprise, spent Friday in La Grande visiting friends.

Emory Jones Dead—

Word has been received here that Emory Jones, 61, of Tacoma, died last Wednesday. He was a resident of Island City during much of his early life, coming to Oregon from Michigan in 1872, crossing the plains in a prairie schooner at the age of two years with his parents. He went to Portland in 1902. Many valley people will remember him as "Deak" Jones.

Return Home—

Circuit Judge and Mrs. J. W. Knowles, who have been spending the holidays away from La Grande, returned yesterday morning from Portland. Mrs. Knowles went to Sacramento some time ago to visit their daughter, Mrs. E. G. Brown, and the judge joined the family there for Christmas. They then went to Portland and visited their son, Everett, for New Year's day.

Fire Meeting—

The January meeting of the La Grande fire department will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

To California—

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller and children left La Grande this morning by automobile to return to their home in Oakland, Cal. They have been visiting Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Coolidge, during the holidays. Mrs. Miller was formerly Lorna Coolidge.

Returns to Seattle—

After two weeks spent in visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nussbaum, Wayne Nussbaum left last night for Seattle where he is a freshman at the University of Washington.

Returns—

Miss Mildred Hawksworth returned this morning to her duties as librarian at the Eastern Oregon Normal school, after spending the holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Hawksworth, in Bozeman, Mont.

From Nebraska—

Miss Freda Kennedy traveled a long distance to enjoy Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Kennedy, in Lincoln, Nebr. She returned this morning to La Grande where she is a critic teacher at the Eastern Oregon Normal school.

Back from Boise—

Mrs. W. W. Nussbaum returned on Thursday from Boise, Ida., where she spent several days visiting her sister, Mrs. C. O. Nelson, who is confined in the hospital there, and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Houghton.

Return—

After spending a few days in Portland visiting friends and relatives, Mrs. C. S. Moore and two sons have returned to La Grande.

To Portland—

Dolph Siegrist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Siegrist, who spent the holidays with his parents, left last night for Portland where he is studying dentistry at the North Pacific Dental college. He is a former student at the University of Oregon.

To Medical School—

Gifford Seitz, who is studying medicine at the University of Oregon medical school in Portland, returned to the Western Oregon city last night after spending the vacation visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Seitz, in La Grande.

To Dental School—

Benjamin Oesterling, who is a student at the North Pacific dental college in Portland, returned to his studies last night after spending the past few days as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Oesterling.

To Willamette—

Miss Helene Price, who teaches music at Willamette university, left last night for Salem to resume her duties, after having visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Price during the holidays. Miss Price teaches piano and she is also studying music, having received a two-year scholarship in that subject at Willamette university.

License—

Robert Boyer, of La Grande, and Laura Lloyd, of Cove, obtained a marriage license at the office of the county clerk on Saturday afternoon.

Married—

A marriage license was issued on Saturday afternoon to Billy A. Fisher, of Seattle, and Clara L. Shepherd, of La Grande, by County Clerk Kenneth McCormick.

In Seattle—

Mrs. Frances Plank is in Seattle where she was called several days ago by the illness of her niece, who makes her home there. She will remain for an indefinite visit.

Literature Group—

Miss Kate Houk will be hostess to the literature group of the American Association of University Women at her apartment at the Sacajawea Inn, Wednesday evening at 7:30. Mrs. Fred E. Kiddie, chairman, will announce the program later.

To Return—

Mrs. E. F. McPadden and son, Bruce, are expected to arrive in La Grande tomorrow from Spokane where they have been guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. McPadden, for the past two weeks. They were accompanied to the Washington city by Mr. McPadden, who returned to La Grande after Christmas.

At E. O. N.—

Dwight Mahoney, who is attending the Eastern Oregon Normal school, spent the Christmas vacation visiting in Pendleton with his brother, Wallace. Both formerly lived in La Grande and have many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mahoney are the parents of a new daughter, with whom Dwight also visited.

In Stalling Officer—

Charles Wicklander, of La Grande, state deputy of the grange, will go to Pendleton on Friday evening to act as installing officer at the installation of officers in the White Eagle grange.

To California—

Misses Anne and Jane Stange left last night for Los Angeles, where they are spending the winter, the former studying at the Otis Art school, and the latter at the University of Southern California. They have been spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. August J. Stange.

Return—

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sken have returned to La Grande after spending the past two weeks in Colfax, Wash., as the guests of Mrs. Sken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rosenkranz. Mr. Sken is a member of the faculty of the Eastern Oregon Normal school. They returned on Saturday.

Back from Portland—

Mrs. C. M. Humphrey returned this morning from Portland where she spent New Year's visiting her daughter, Mrs. Catherine Bethers.

To U. of O.—

After spending the holidays as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert Carey, Miss Hester Hopkins has returned to Eugene, where she is a student at the University of Oregon and a member of Phi Beta Phi sorority.

Ill—

Carl Johnson, who came home from Washington State college at Pullman, to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, is confined to his home by illness and will not be able to return to his studies for a few days.

Broken Leg—

Mrs. C. W. Thompson, of La Grande who has been at Hot Lake for the past 10 days, suffering from a broken leg, returned to her home last night and is able to receive her friends. Mrs. Thompson's injury was caused by a fall.

To Speak—

H. E. Inlow, president of the Eastern Oregon Normal school, will go to Baker on Wednesday to deliver the principal address at a joint meeting of the Baker county chamber of commerce, Lions club and the Kiwanis club. His address will be along the lines of economics, social conditions and resolutions for the new year. President Inlow has appeared on several programs in Baker in former years and an enthusiastic reception is anticipated, according to reports from the Baker organizations.

Return—

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Quinn spent the Christmas holidays in Western Oregon, dividing their time between Portland and Toledo, where their parents live. They returned during the weekend and Mr. Quinn, athletic coach at the Normal school, is preparing for a successful basketball season.

Returns to Woodburn—

Miss Hope Inlow returned to Woodburn last night after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Inlow, in La Grande. Before arriving in La Grande she spent a few days visiting friends in Portland. Miss Inlow is a teacher in the union high school at Woodburn and is at the head of the English department.

Return Home—

After spending the past few days in La Grande as guests of their aunt, Mrs. E. M. Hickox, Misses Evelyn and Jane Robinson have returned to Western Oregon. They are attending high school in Portland.

Visit Mother—

Estel and Warren Wright, accompanied by the daughter of the latter, Miss Vera Lee, visited over the holidays with their mother, Mrs. Lee Wright, in La Grande. They have now returned to Salt Lake City, their home. Both are former La Grande residents.

To Whitman—

Russell Nelson returned last night to Whitman college, in Walla Walla, after spending the past two weeks at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson. He is a freshman at Whitman college and pledged to Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

To Attend College—

Miss Miriam Hanna will be among the student body at Whitman college again next term, after spending the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hanna. She has left for Whitman to resume her studies, where she is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega, social sorority.

Returns—

Miss Agnes Palmer, who is a member of the English teaching staff at the La Grande high school, arrived yesterday morning in La Grande after spending the vacation with her parents in Portland. Miss Palmer was in the Western Oregon city about two weeks.

Mr. Charlton Returns—

Dale Charlton left last night to return to Oregon State college at Corvallis where he is a member of the freshman class. He has been visiting relatives and friends during the holidays.

At Charlton Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Belvail, of Pendleton, stopped in La Grande for the weekend, en route from Boise—where they have been visiting their daughter—to their home. While in La Grande they visited from Friday until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Charlton. Mrs. Charlton's daughter, Miss Mildred Davis, returned to Pendleton with them and will stay about a week.

House Guest—

Miss Margaret Meyers has as her house guest, Miss Elizabeth Olds, of Portland, who formerly spent a year in La Grande. Miss Olds arrived on New Year's eve and plans to remain for about two weeks, visiting at the P. L. Meyers home.

American Legion—

Members of the American Legion are urged to attend a regular meeting on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Sacajawea Inn. Regular business will be transacted.

Annual Dinner—

The children of Mrs. John Peterson Sr., of Union, held their annual New Year's dinner yesterday at the home of their mother. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jacobs, of Elgin; Mrs. Bertha Hoyle, of Union; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hanks and family, of La Grande; Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson Jr., and daughter, Velma; Mr. and Mrs. William Heugan and daughter, Mrs. Jacobs. Mrs. Hoyle, Mrs. Hanks and Mr. Peterson are Mrs. Peterson's children, and Mrs. Heugan is her granddaughter.

To Enterprise—

Mrs. Harve M. Bay, Lawrence Bay and their house guest, Miss Genevieve Smith, of Tillamook, spent New Year's in Enterprise where they visited Mr. Bay, Miss Smith left today for Eugene, where she is a student at the University of Oregon.

To Attend E. O. N.—

Among the students at the Eastern Oregon Normal school, who have come to La Grande from Enterprise, are Grant Rinehart, Miss Lucille Rinehart and Miss Ione Jordan. Miss Jordan formerly attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Clyde Knout Improving—

Clyde Knout, of Spokane, who was seriously injured here in December when he was hit by a truck driven by K. G. Bentley, is showing steady improvement. His physician says that it will take five or six months for him to recover completely from the accident.

Red Cross Class—

The first meeting of the Red Cross class in first aid will be held tonight at 7 o'clock at the La Grande hotel, it was announced Saturday.

First Showing Of Movie in Northwest Here On Tuesday

A picture, that opened in New York last Saturday, will have its Northwest premier in the Liberty theatre in La Grande. It was announced today by Jack Wright, manager.

The movie, a technicolor talkie entitled "Manhattan Parade," features Smith and Dale and Winnie Lightner, and is a musical comedy, reminiscent in some ways of the "Goldiggers of Broadway." It is a Warner Brothers production.

The premier here places La Grande at the top of the Northwest circuit for at least three days—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

BURNETT'S JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

Women's High Grade Shoes

Priced for quick disposal to make room for our Spring stocks.

100 Pairs Women's

Pumps, Straps and Oxfords

Broken sizes. Wonderful shoe values if in your size.

$2.98

Our Regular New Stock

Pumps, Straps and Oxfords

Values to $8.50 $5.85

In this lot you will find the season's smartest styles and colors in the famous Johansen, Walkover, Foot Friend and Brown-bilt makes — Take advantage of these big reductions.

BURNETT SHOE CO.

Many Bargains Listed on Ward Ad Page

New Year

NOW ...
LAST DAY!!

JOE E. BROWN in
"LOCAL BOY MAKES GOOD"
with DOROTHY LEE

LIBERTY DIRECTION SENIOR & JUNIOR MERCY CLUBS

PLEASE CALL
MAIN 83
For Laff Schedule

Ha! Ha!
Biggest LAFF SHOW
on Earth!
And What a Show!

LAFF WEEK

STARTING TUESDAY
... For 3 Days
Northwest
PREMIER Showing of

MANHATTAN PARADE

with Winnie Lightner
Smith and Dale
Chas. Butterworth
Dickey Moore
Bobby Watson

ALL ...

COLOR

Girls ...
Gags ...
Sights ...