Mrs. W. G. Sawyer Hostess to Club Monday Afternoon

Mrs. W. G. Sawyer was hostess for the Monday Bridge club yesterday afternoon, with luncheon at one o'clock at the Sacajawea Inn, and bridge during the afternoon at Mrs. Sawyer's apartment. The luncheon table was arranged for twelve, and had a centerpiece of pink carnations and tapers of a matching color.

Florentine Art Discussed by Club

Florentine art was the delightful theme on which the program was based yesterday afternoon when the Art Research club met at the home of Mrs. H. H. Cleaver. Those participating in the program were Mrs. H. G. Smith, Mrs. Fred H. Kiddie, Mrs. H. A. Zurbriek, Mrs. Walter Pierce and Mrs. Cleaver.

Bridge Club In Enjoyable Party

With members invited to form three tables of bridge, Mrs. Alvah Crowley entertained the Wakelita Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home. Prizes were received by Mrs. Chester Koyle, first, and Mrs. Donald Cole, second.

Royal Neighbors Install Officers

Mrs. Velma Vedder was installed as oracle of the Royal Neighbors of America at impressive ceremonies conducted by Mrs. Mamie Johnson, installing officer, and Mrs. Pearl Wagner, ceremonial marshal, last night at the Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Alta Winburn was installed as past oracle; Mrs. Berta Guertner, vice oracle; Mrs. Bertha White, recorder; Mrs. Mabel Thompson, secretary.

Mrs. Clyde Seitz Leads Discussion

Mrs. Clyde Seitz discussed metal and lacquer work as a part of Japanese art at the meeting of the Art Ramblers club when Mrs. George Birnie entertained yesterday afternoon at her home. She gave an interesting description of the preparation of lacquer, bronze work and its place in the art of Japan, the country chosen for special study by the group during the year.

Literature Club Meets on Monday

Contemporary French writers and their works furnished the background for an interesting talk which Miss Mildred Hawksworth presented at the meeting of the Neighborhood Literature club last night at the La Grande hotel. Anatole France, who died about 1925, is still beloved in France because of his descriptions, Miss Hawksworth stated, but his place has been partly filled by Paul Valery, who

Mrs. Wright Will Present Program

Mrs. J. K. Wright will present a program on "Oregon Poets" at the meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. A. T. Hill, with Dr. Margaret Ingle as joint hostess, will entertain the members at a one o'clock luncheon at her home.

Division C Meets With Miss Johnson

Miss Annetta Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Mabel Allen and Miss Dorothy Higgins, entertained Division C of the Loyal Sisters Aid of the Christian church last night at her home. A noodle supper and a musical, for the benefit of the public, will be held at the church on Jan. 20, and Mrs. Allen is in charge, according to plans made last night. It was also decided to present a play later in the spring, the play and cast to be chosen later.

About 25 were present and enjoyed the skit in which a group of the members depicted an old-fashioned school room. The cast included Mrs. Fred Yeaker, Mrs. Della Huffman, who also acted as director, Mrs. Paul De F. Mortimore, Mrs. Clem Wallace, Mrs. O. W. Helvey, Miss Lois Conley and Miss Edna Turner.

Feb. 8 is the date of the next meeting.

Amendments Made To P. T. A. By-Laws

Several important amendments were made to the by-laws of the La Grande City Council of Parent Teacher associations yesterday afternoon at the La Grande hotel gold room. Mrs. H. C. Patten presided at the 4 o'clock meeting in the absence of Mrs. Frederick Gehring, president. The former is vice president.

Problems of the organization along with routine business completed the afternoon's business meeting. A publicity conference will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. D. Towler, and present will be the presidents of the organizations in the various schools, publicity chairmen, and chairmen of the publicity record book committees.

D. of U. V. Plans Washington Events

Plans for celebrating important occasions in the life of George Washington during the coming year were started at the meeting of the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, last night at the Moose hall, but no definite arrangements were made. Mrs. Marietta Yeck, president, announces. Regular business was transacted.

Gleaner Girls Studying Book

"We Must March" a book describing Whitman's setting of the Oregon country, has been chosen as the new literary project of the Gleaner Girls, and the members started to read it last night when they met at the home of Mrs. Walter Bean. The class of the M. I. A. of the L. D. S. church holds a social meeting every Monday evening to read some book as a part of the literary program of the church.

Camp Fire Girls Are Planning Hike

If the weather is agreeable the members of the Gatusal Camp Fire are planning a hike for the last meeting in January, according to arrangements made yesterday afternoon when they met at the home of Mrs. Raymond O. Williams, their guardian, at 4 o'clock. A skit to be presented at the next meeting was also planned.

Quilting Party Is Planned by Group

An all-day quilting party with a potluck lunch at noon will be enjoyed by the Riverside Ladies Aid tomorrow at the Lane chapel. The event will start about 9 o'clock and the day will be spent making quilts for relief work.

Girls Make Plans For Candy Sale

The Netopew Camp Fire Girls met at the Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 3:45 and made plans to have a candy sale next Saturday. They also practiced songs.

Hosts at Meeting of the Moose Club on Saturday

The club present were Martha Jane Clark, Marie Bruce, Estelle Lyle, Margorie Rogers and the temporary guardian, Miss Elizabeth Hesse.
