"Nature contains the elements, in color and form, of all pictures, as the keyboard contains the notes of all music. With this quotation, Mrs. L. L. Douglas began her report on Whistler's "Theory of Painting" at the meeting of the Delphian society Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Sacajawea Inn.

MRS. CARAWAY IS ELECTED TO TAKE SEAT IN SENATE

ged otherwise to prevent an election. They also probably turned in more votes than the men, election officials said.

Mrs. Caraway will serve until March, 1933. Her friends expect she will then retire from politics, which she entered after the death of her husband.

Mrs. Caraway was born on a Tennessee farm and is the mother of three boys.

"I was afraid Grandfather would be Shocked.."

"HE'S rather a bossy old darling, and I didn't know how he'd like the idea of my smoking.

"The first time I lit a Chesterfield in front of him, he sniffed like an old war-horse... and I braced myself for trouble. But all he said was, 'That's good tobacco, Chickabiddy.'

"But I still think that if he hadn't been so impressed by the quality of Chesterfield, the old dear might have been less agreeable. Human nature is like that!

"Grandfather raised tobacco in his younger days, so he knows what's what. I don't, of course—but I do know that Chesterfields are milder. It's wonderful to be able to smoke whenever you want, with no fear you'll smoke too many.

"And it doesn't take a tobacco expert to prove that Chesterfield tobaccos are better. They taste better... that's proof enough. Never too sweet. No matter when I smoke them... or how many I smoke... they always taste exactly right.

"They must be absolutely pure... even to the paper which doesn't taste at all. In fact... as the ads say... 'They Satisfy!'"

CHESTERFIELD'S RADIO PROGRAM
Nat Shilkret's Orchestra and Alex Gray, well-known soloist, will entertain you over the Columbia Coast-to-Coast Network every night except Sunday, at 10:30 E. S. T.

MILDER... PURE... THEY TASTE BETTER... They Satisfy

Paris Dons 'Sunday Night Frocks'; They're 'Informal,' And Smart Too

(Associated Press Fashion Editor)

PARIS (AP)—A new "Sunday night frock"—a cross between formal afternoon and evening gowns—is playing a telling role in the wardrobes of smart Paris women.

The new designs, which follow the demand for smart evening costumes minus the low décolletage of formal gowns, are worn at many a fashionable affair after 9 o'clock on both weekday and Sunday nights.

Simpler versions of the design even appear in the late afternoon hours at bridge and cocktail parties.

Their bodies are soft and dressy while their skirts fit closely to the hips and swirl about the ankles in soft folds.

Sleeves, voluminous in cut and richly embroidered, in textiles or beads, are invariably part of the complete design, for even the frocks fashioned without sleeves are accompanied by one of the little waist-length jackets so popular for evening wear this winter.

One of the smartest of these frocks has a skirt of soft dull black crepe incrustated on a white bodice of the same material. Its drooping bishop sleeves, which have black lower sections, are richly embroidered in white angora wool and silver thread.

Another frock of black crepe is designed with a simple sleeveless bodice over which is worn a short jacket with full sleeves embroidered in shimmering tube beads of three shades of blue.

A black and red changeable taffeta frock with elbow sleeves and a high neckline tying in a big perky bow at the back and a smoke grey chiffon studded with steel beads are other smart contributions to the Sunday night mode.

The frocks are generally worn with slippers matching their color.
