PRIEST'S ARMY OF JOBLESS ARRIVES IN WASHINGTON

Weary from their long trek to the nation's capital, where they hoped congress would hear their pleas for work, thousands of the invading army of jobless were quartered, as shown above, in vacant buildings. They were led by Father James R. Cox, of Pittsburgh.

Man, Who Played Prank On Chief Executive, Retires

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Jan. 22 (AP)—Capt. W. G. Lee will retire March 1 with 41 years experience as a sea-faring man and the memory of a prank played on a president of the United States.

He is a steamboat captain of the Savannah district and says he once made fish bite for Grover Cleveland. He was port captain for the Indian River Steamboat company in Florida when Mr. Cleveland went there for a three-day fishing trip.

Captain Lee feared the fish would not bite when the presidential pole was cast, so he stationed several negroes with a good supply of large bluefish under the dock.

"The negroes would drag Mr. Cleveland's line under the dock," he recalled, "and attach a large fish to it." The distinguished visitor was elated over his catches and the reputation of Florida's fishing ground was saved.

Going Up!

If you are finding the path that you are traveling is uphill, then you may know you are progressing. This is the way a famous industrialist is able to tell whether or not he is advancing in his chosen field.

Schilling

is the only coffee roaster in America who specializes in making fine coffee exclusively.

That's the only way fine things are ever made.

Wings of the morning!

Could Still Hear, However

Then there was the case of the show that was so bad that, after about ten minutes, a man came out and asked the lady in the box office if she could change his seat to one behind a pillar.—Dublin Opinion.

It's the pride of the menu!

FOR COOKING!

FOR TABLE USE!

That's why it's called C and H MENU "Berry," of course! And does it deserve its name! Well, Pacific Coast women who've used this fine-grained granulated think so.

In the first place, C and H MENU "Berry" is snowy white—really white, and lovely just to look at. In the second place, it's pure cane sugar (and these days fastidious women will use only pure cane sugar for both table use and cooking).

And then, most important of all, because of its fine, fine grains C and H MENU "Berry" is the ideal granulated sugar for every menu use. You'll marvel at the way it dissolves when you serve it, how it creams when you cook it, how it blends and melts itself into snowy smoothness.

Oh, the texture of cake made with MENU "Berry" (even Angel Food)! Oh, the smoothness of sauces made with it (MENU "Berry" creams marvelously)! Oh, the fluffiness of meringues, the velvety smoothness of icings, the satiny smoothness of candies made with C and H MENU "Berry"!

But be sure—be absolutely sure to buy your sugar in a white bag labeled C and H MENU "Berry" (2 lb., 5 lb., 10 lb. and 25 lb. sizes) or in the new pouring-protective package, if you want to be certain of getting this quick-dissolving granulated—and no other.

Brown Sugar, Confectioners Powdered, Dessert Sugar, Crystal Tablets, and Cubes—in fact, all the C and H MENU Sugars (as the name implies) offer endless opportunities for varying the menu.

This is the new C and H MENU Sugar carton with the clever pouring and protective device. 2 lb. and 5 lb. sizes wrapped in waxed paper to prevent caking.
