RESEARCH REVEALS ALL-BRAN RICH IN HEALTH-ELEMENTS

Helps Correct Constipation with "Bulk" and Vitamin B; Also Has Iron

Recent scientific research shows that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains two things needed to overcome temporary and recurring constipation. It has "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract.

These two important food-elements promote regular habits, and help do away with the headaches, loss of appetite and energy, so often the result of constipation.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is mild in action—much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable.

Isn't this pleasant "cereal way" far more healthful than using pills and drugs—so often habit-forming? Just eat two tablespoonsful of Kellogg's daily—enough for most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Besides, ALL-BRAN brings your body twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

Equally tasty as a cereal with milk or cream, or used in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Constitutionality Of Bond Ordinance Questioned by Suit

PORTLAND, Feb. 5 (AP)—The constitutionality of an ordinance authorizing the city of Salem to issue bonds for the purchase of its water system or for the building of a new municipal system, was questioned in a suit filed in federal district court here by the Oregon-Washington water service company. The city of Salem is defendant.

Voters of Salem in a special election Dec. 15 approved the ordinance authorizing the city to issue up to $2,500,000 in bonds for the water system. The Oregon-Washington water service company operates the plant now serving the city. In its complaint, the company says the system has an assessed valuation of $480,000 on which more than $3000 is paid in taxes. Following adoption of the ordinance, the complaint said, engineers valued the property at $950,000 which, it is declared is not

Retail Hardware Men Elect Heads

PORTLAND, Feb. 5 (AP)—Officers of the Oregon Retail Hardware Dealers' association were unanimously re-elected at the final business session of the annual three-day convention here Thursday.

They are George E. Allen, Salem, president; G. R. McNair, Bandon, vice president, and E. E. Lucas, Spokane, secretary-treasurer.

Four new directors were elected and four held over for another term. The new directors are Guy Bennett, Vancouver, Wash.; Roland Hubbard, Medford; J. W. Kerns, Klamath Falls, and C. J. Brucher, Pilot Rock.

The convention attracted 98 delegates from Oregon and Southern Washington. The association unanimously opposed any form of general sales tax on the ground such a measure would place a tax upon the poor man's necessities of life and that it imposed a relatively higher tax upon the poor man with a family than upon the wealthy.

Twelve Airplanes Destroyed by Fire

CHICAGO, Feb. 5 (AP)—Twelve airplanes were destroyed today in a fire that leveled a $75,000 hangar of the Continental Airways, Inc., at the municipal airport. Officials estimated the damage at $175,000.

A series of gasoline explosions that occurred as the flames reached the tanks of the planes made it difficult for firemen to get near the blazing structure but an adjoining hangar of the American Airways, seriously threatened for a time, was saved.

Continental Airways operates a passenger line between Chicago and Washington, D. C., by way of Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Two of the burned planes, valued at $64,000, were used on this run. The others were privately owned and stored in the hangar.

the fact that many of the children from nearby ranches are unable to get here in their cars. J. W. Lay, who carries the mail over the Lions Hill-Catherine Creek rural route, is now making the trip homeback and even then is forced to walk part of the way. HEAVY DRIFTS IN MOUNTAINS

JOSEPH, Ore., Feb. 5 (Special)—County Watermaster Glenn Jacobs accompanied by Carl Pawcett and Alton Bornstedt hiked into Aneroid lake last weekend to ascertain the amount of moisture at that point, says the Herald.

The three men went by auto as far as the Methodist camp ground at the head of Wallawa lake and from there they went on webs to the lake. The trip required most of three days, the party leaving Friday and returning Sunday. The snow was very loose on top and made walking even with the aid of snowshoes very difficult necessitating seven hours of hard traveling to make the hike.

The measurement of the snow was made on Saturday afternoon when a total of 80.4 inches of snow was on the ground. This compares favorably with last year when but 52 inches was reported at the same time. The water content was also much higher there being 23.3 inches of water as against 13 for last year. According to Mr. Jacobs he ascer-

WARMER WEATHER PREDICTED

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 5 (AP)—It was generally "fair and warmer" in Oregon today with only the extreme Eastern Oregon section yet unable to shake off winter's grip.

The Willamette valley, Columbia river gorge, Southern Oregon and coast sections experienced increasing temperatures, and at many points last night was the first night in a week in which the temperature did not drop below the freezing point.

A prediction of rain in the west and possible snow in the east part of the state was made by the weather bureau here today. In many parts of the state the heavy accumulation of snow was beginning to thaw.

Four men walked across the Columbia river on ice Thursday at the Dalles. They were L. W. Curtis, Gard Fulton, Jack Smith and George Smith. The ice that covered the river from bank to bank at Grand

NEW SNOW AT KLAMATH

KLAMATH FALLS, Feb. 5 (AP)—Three inches of snow fell here Thursday and the storm continued today. Heavy snow was reported from outlying districts. Lake O' the Woods, a summer resort, has 33 inches on the level, and has received three feet of new snow in the past thirty hours. Three cabins have caved in, the caretaker reported.

Eighteen inches of snow fell on the Sun mountain section of The Dalles-California highway between here and Bend between 4 a. m. and 8 a. m. Thursday, and 14 inches fell there during the night. It was still snowing there this morning.

Heavy snowfalls have encouraged farmers and stockmen. The ground remains unfrozen so the moisture will soak in. It is expected that lakes and streams which dried up during past dry years will have water in them again this year. Good sheep and cattle range is assured.
