GRANGE HALL (Special) — The John Knauft family has moved from the old Grout place to the north end of La Grande, where the children, Rhoda and John, will attend the Greenwood school.

Blue Mt. grange was well represented at the lecturers' school on Monday night at both the banquet and the program, which followed, all the officers except two were in attendance. Many of the grangers attended all of the sessions held during the two-day meet.

Mrs. Bert Grout will be the next hostess to the Countrywomen's club at her home, Feb. 12.

Mrs. L. F. Wright, member of Blue Mt. grange, who is Pomona home economics chairman, had charge of the banquet given Monday night for grangers, and she had this to say of her co-workers: "I cannot fully express my deep appreciation of the way the women of the granges responded to my call for help. The weather was extremely bad, the roads were full of drifted snow, but they came and brought their share of the provisions. There are seven granges in the county and everyone had representatives there, including Medical Springs and Wolf Creek, the two granges located where it is harder to get out when snow is piled everywhere. This generous response is an indication that we, in Union county, have the ideal grange spirit which Mr. Farmer, national grange lecturer advocated."

Thermometers registered varying degrees Wednesday morning in this locality. At homes near the Blue Mt. grange hall, the temperature ranged from five to seven degrees below zero.

Mrs. B. G. Cusick, of North Powder, who came to La Grande to attend the lecturers school, spent Wednesday with the Blue Mt. grange. Mrs. Cusick is the lecturer of Wolf Creek grange. E. V. Keizer was also a guest that day.

KANSAS AGGIE MOUND ACE GETS TRIAL WITH ROBINS
MANHATTAN, Kan. (P)—Elden Aver, pitcher, who played at Kansas State college, will be a candidate for a pitching job with the Brooklyn Robins as a protegee of Coach Casey Stengel following his graduation in June.

Auker, who captains the K-Aggie basketball team and was a powerful halfback in football, lost only one of the games he pitched in Big Six competition the last two seasons.

He shut out all the other teams in the circuit and when he's not on the pitcher's mound he plays first base.

PIGEON SHIPING O. K.

SANTA MONICA, Cal. (P)—A slaughter of pigeons goes on at municipal pier here every morning since permission to shoot them was given. The birds are considered a nuisance, and they make good pot pie.

The farther inland trout are taken, the darker the fish.

NEW PILOTS IN AA CIRCUIT NEW YORK (P)—Three new managers are slated to make their appearance in the International Amateur Athletic Union circuit this season. Tom Daily, who caught for Richmond in the Eastern league last year, will manage Toronto, while Hans Lobert, manager of the Bridgeport club in the same league last season, will be in charge at Jersey City. Buffalo still is in the market for a manager.

PARIS (P)—Approximately 2000 new playing fields for soccer, outdoor basketball and other sports will be built throughout rural France during the year. The project has been made possible by a "national equipment scheme," designed to give work to unemployed. The department of physical education is devoting a share of its appropriations to the work.
