Dr. Moon, Baptist Mission Worker, Will Speak Here

Teaches Native Preachers At Congo Evangelical Training Institution in Africa.

Dr. S. E. Moon, an exponent of the new movement in missionary work, will be in La Grande Sunday and will address the congregation of the Baptist church at 7:30 Sunday evening on his work. Dr. Moon does not go into the jungles of the Belgian Congo, where he is stationed, to preach directly to the natives, but instead educates a group of native preachers, who after their period of receiving enlightenment, administer to the native people.

Dr. Moon is actively connected with the Congo Evangelical Training institution, which furnished industrial and academic work for native preachers and teachers, and also has classes for the wives and children. The institution is situated at Kim-pese.

Dr. Moon has been in the Belgian Congo for many years and is now on one year's furlough, and at present is making a tour of Idaho, Oregon and California in the interests of missionary work.

Sunday at the Baptist church will be a family day with a junior sermon in the morning by the pastor and special music by the choir.

The young people will meet at 6:30, and because of Dr. Moon's visit, the evening service will be at 7:30 instead of 5 o'clock. The topic for discussion at the young people's meeting will be "What Jesus Teaches About Faithfulness." Bible school meets at 9:45.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church

Fourth and O

Archdeacon S. W. Crensey, of Pendleton, will conduct the morning prayer service at 11 o'clock at the Episcopal church next Sunday and will preach the sermon, appropriate to the first Sunday in Lent.

Sunday school will be held at 9:45 and a cordial welcome is extended to all by local members of the church.

Zion English Lutheran Church

M Avenue near Fourth

The subject of the sermon at the 11 o'clock service is "Now Is the Day of Salvation." This is a part of the program of evangelism to be carried on during Lent, for the purpose of helping those who are trying to meet life's problems in the spirit of Christ. Everyone is welcome. The choir will sing an anthem, "Amen, and Did My Saviour Bleed," accompanied by Miss Helen Jensen, pianist.

"Courage" is the theme of the Sunday school for the month of February. Next Sunday we will think of "Courage to do what is right," for that was a characteristic of Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday is celebrated this week. There are classes for children of all ages, and any are welcome. The hour is 9:45, sharp.

Fred Matthes Jr. leads the Luther league meeting Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, at which the topic, "What Jesus Teaches About Faithfulness," will be discussed. All young people will be cordially received at these devotional meetings.

The sermon on Thursday evening, Feb. 18, will be "A Sick Man's Religion." Come to this helpful mid-week service.

Presbyterian Church

Washington and Sixth Streets

Edgar Guest said, "I go to church because I want my children to go to church. I want them to know something more of this life than business, sport, and selfish amusement. I know only one institution that will teach them that they are divine." Why not accept the invitation and come to church next Sunday and bring the children? Rev. J. George Walz asks Mrs. Harley Richardson, organist, will play the prelude, "Celeste" by Friml. The church quartet will sing the anthem, "Like as a Father" by West, and the male quartet will sing the offertory number, "J. George Walz, minister, will bring the morning message, using for his theme "Personal Work For Souls," first in a series of Lenten sermons. At 7:30 in the evening the sermon will deal with "Personality and Democracy."

One will find delightful fellowship and helpful study in the Book of Books, if he attends the class of his age and choice in the Sunday Bible school, which meets at 9:45 a. m. At 3:00 p. m. the children meet in their Junior Christian Endeavor, and at 6:15 the two groups of young people meet in Christian Endeavor.

Central Church of Christ

Seventh and Pennsylvania

"Men of Courage" will be the topic of the sermon Sunday morning at the Central Church of Christ, given by Paul De F. Mortimore, pastor. The life of Lincoln will be used as an example of courageous righteousness. There will be an anthem by the choir at this service which comes at 11 o'clock. The communion will also be observed at this hour.

The Bible school meeting at 9:45 a. m. is continuing to attract large numbers, the pastor says, and more than 250 were present last Sunday morning. During the month of January the average was 216, a gain of 60 over January of 1931. There are classes for every age and a hearty welcome awaits all who come. Miss Dorothy Smuts is superintendent of the church school.

The work of renovation of the auditorium is now completed, and those who attend the services Sunday will be pleased with the fresh, clean appearance of the walls and woodwork, Rev. Mortimore feels. All of the labor has been donated in this work. The pastor's study is also receiving complete renovation, and a private office has been added. The young people's organizations recently gave a social to raise money for the improvement.

The Sunday evening services are emphasized at the Church of Christ. A musical program has been built up which attracts many to the services, and the pastor says he believes that the preaching of sermons upon vital, evangelistic themes also appeals to many. The orchestra is growing in popularity and ability, and will be heard in three numbers Sunday evening. A splendid choir assists in the song service, which features congregational singing. The evening sermon topic will be "The Man Who Got All That Was Coming to Him." All who will attend these services are assured of a hearty welcome.

Methodist Church South

Fir Street and U Avenue

Sunday school at 9:45 will open the day's services at the Methodist church, South, on Sunday. The morning service will follow at 11 o'clock, and in the evening the Epworth league will meet at 6 o'clock. Bible study will be held simultaneously in the basement, and preaching will be enjoyed at 7 o'clock.

First Methodist Church

Fourth and Spring

"An Old Inquiry for Today," is the interesting topic on which Rev. W. H. Hertzog has based the sermon which he will present before the congregation of the First Methodist church on Sunday morning. He is using the text, "Why hast thou dealt thus with us?" The service will be held at 11 o'clock and the chorus choir will sing the anthem, "Father, O Hear Us," by Palmer. The incidental solos and duet will be sung by Mrs. Sherwood Williams and Mrs. Thomas McGuire.

"The Earth Is the Lord's" will be sung by Sherwood Williams, tenor. At the evening service the male quartet from the young men's class will sing the special number. The church Sunday school will meet at 9:45 under the direction of M. L. Whitney, at which time a good program, well prepared teachers, and a cordial welcome are assured, the pastor adds.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

First Street at Washington

"Soul" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Feb. 14. The Golden Text will be "The Lord is good unto them that wait for him. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord" (Lam. 3:25, 26).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon will be the following from the Bible: "Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding" (Prov. 9:6). The lesson-sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Metaphysics resolves things into thoughts, and exchanges the objects of sense for the ideas of soul. These ideas are perfectly real and tangible to spiritual consciousness, and they have this advantage over the objects and thoughts of material sense—they are good and eternal" (p. 268).

Sunday school is held 9:45 o'clock; Wednesday evening services, 8 o'clock. Reading room, West Jacobson Bldg., open daily except Sundays and holidays. Services at church edifice, corner First and Washington streets, 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Church of the Nazarene

Y Avenue and Birch

The closing services in the evangelistic campaign at the Church of the Nazarene will be held Sunday evening at 7:30, when Rev. Richard Taylor will preach, and new members will be received. Special music has been arranged.

Sunday school will be held at 9:45, and morning worship will follow at 11 o'clock, at which the pastor will speak on "Our Stewardship," and the ordinance of communion will be observed. Mrs. Taylor will sing.

The young people's service will be held at 6:30, at which time Mrs. Taylor will speak.

The midweek prayer service will be at 7:30 Wednesday evening at the church.

Emmanuel Apostolic Assembly

1606 Jefferson Avenue

Meetings at the Emmanuel Apostolic assembly will be: Sunday school at 10 o'clock; morning service at 11 o'clock with a message by the pastor; the young people's meeting at 6:30; and at 7:45 the evangelistic service, to which all are invited, will be held.

Meetings during the week are: Tuesday, regular preaching service; Wednesday, prayer meeting; and Friday, evening preaching service. The services are held at 7:45, and at 8 o'clock Saturday evening a street meeting will be held, with the pastor, Rev. R. S. Sweeten, in charge.

The Gospel Mission

201 North Fir

The Gospel Mission is looking forward to the coming of Evangelist W. W. Clark, of California, who has been holding a successful revival meeting in Freewater, Ore., through the month of January. He begins evangelistic services on Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the mission. Mr. Clark has been holding a number of meetings in Washington with success.

Rev. L. Carlsen, local pastor, states in regard to the meetings, "We feel that it is time that all orthodox Christians should stand shoulder to shoulder to pray for one another, to fight the common enemy, sin."

The public is invited and special music will be furnished nightly, with the entire congregation taking part. Sunday services at the church include Sunday school at 9:45; morning service at 11 o'clock; and the young people's service at 6:45. The evening service of evangelism will be held at 7:30, and in this service the pastor will continue and finish his message of last Sunday night, "Sin, Sickness and Death."

Portland To Ask Payment of Bonus

PORTLAND, Feb. 11 (AP)—The city of Portland has agreed to appeal to congress to provide for payment of the full adjusted compensation allowance to veterans of the World War.

Mayor George L. Baker, after a hearing Wednesday when about 300 veterans visited the council chambers, was authorized by the city council to prepare the statement and wire it to Washington.

A report compiled by the council shows there are about 32,000 veterans in Oregon, of whom 17,000 are in Portland. It was estimated about $5,000,000 of new money would be brought into the Portland area if full payment of the bonus is made by the government.

RETURNS TO EUROPE

CHERBOURG, France, Feb. 11 (AP)—Mrs. Edgar Wallace, wife of the noted British author of mystery tales, left the liner Majestic in the English channel last night to return to London after she learned of her husband's death in California.

She landed here in a storm-tossed tender which was damaged in making the contact with the steamer Majestic on which she was sailing for the United States. A raging gale was blowing.

He Could Be Seen

The trial hinged on whether the witness could recognize the defendant at a certain distance. So the state's attorney began to test his eyesight. "For instance," he said, "let us take a herd of asses in the field. How far off do you say you could distinguish an ass?" "Oh, about as far off as you are from me," answered the witness.

Sermonette

Edited by Harriet R. MacDonald

This month of February that gave to our country its two greatest presidents, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, might be a suitable time for quoting their statements regarding the value of the Bible. In addition to these, the opinions of some other outstanding presidents of the United States are given.

"Forever, O Lord, Thy word is settled in heaven."—Psalm 119:89.

George Washington

Above all, the pure and benign light of Revelation has had a meliorating influence on mankind, and increased the blessings of society.

Abraham Lincoln

I am profitably engaged in reading the Bible. Take all of this book upon reason that you can and the balance by faith, and you will live and die a better man.

Andrew Jackson

It (the Bible) is the rock on which our republic rests.

Ulysses S. Grant

Hold fast to the Bible as the sheet anchor of your liberties; write its precepts on your hearts and practice them in your lives. To the influence of this book we are indebted for the progress made, and to this we must look as our guide in the future.

Theodore Roosevelt

Almost every man who has by his life work added to the sum of human achievement of which the race is proud, of which our people are proud, almost every such man has based his life work largely upon the teachings of the Bible.

Woodrow Wilson

A man has deprived himself of the best there is in the world who has deprived himself of this (a knowledge of the Bible).

LUMBER MARKET

SEATTLE, Feb. 12 (AP)—Current new business reported today by 217 lumber mills of the state for the week ending Feb. 6 was 38.5 per cent over production, but totaled 12,000,000 feet less than the footage received the previous week.

The week was the 15th successive one with orders in excess of production, a situation due to the extremely low production since late in October, lumbermen pointed out.

A total of 324 mills reported operations for the week at 19.2 per cent of capacity, compared with 23.1 per cent for the previous week and 98.3 per cent for the same week last year.

WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say of the wool market tomorrow:

"A moderate business with demand chiefly for the finer wools is reported in the wool market this week. Prices kept generally steady throughout the list."

"The first wools out of Arizona have come to Boston in sales at about 45 cents clear basis landed Boston for good French combing fine and fine medium clips.

"The manufacturing position is without material change. Dress goods are still moving fairly well but men's early lines are rather quiet.

"The foreign markets are all firm. Japan and England are the heaviest buyers in the primary markets.

"Mohair continues dull. Prices are without material change, kid hair being in occasional demand at steady rates."

The Bulletin also publishes the following quotations: scoured basis: Oregon: Fine and f. m. staple 54-56; fine and f. m. Fr. combing 60-53; fine and f. m. clothing 45-47; valley No. 1 48-50.

Mohair: Oregon: 20-21. Domestic graded first combing 32-35; good carding 20-28.

In Washington

By Herbert Plummer

WASHINGTON—A rather frail, unobtrusive man, who four years ago created somewhat of a sensation in Washington by "speaking his mind" and then quietly going into retirement, is back in the limelight today.

He is Edward P. Costigan, newly-elected senator from Colorado, and co-author with "Young Bob" La Follette of the bill to provide federal funds for the unemployed.

In March of 1928, Costigan quit the tariff commission after a period of service extending exactly 11 years—the last of the original appointees to that body made by Woodrow Wilson.

In a letter bristling with personalities, he struck out at President Coolidge and three of his fellow-commissioners. He accused them of having wrecked the usefulness of the commission in insisting on retention of high rates.

A CHANGED COSTIGAN

It was a different Costigan who rose the other day in the senate to make his first important speech—a plea that the federal government come to the aid of the distressed by providing public funds.

Nothing of the nervousness which a freshman senator so often displays at his debut was seen in Costigan.

What few times he has spoken on the senate floor before, his voice has been almost inaudible.

"Young Bob" probably had this in mind at the beginning of the Costigan speech, for he left his desk on the Republican side and came over to sit directly in front of him. So did Cutting of New Mexico and Norris of Nebraska—who have ideas much like those of Costigan.

However, they soon found it was unnecessary. When Costigan got under way, he could be heard easily anywhere in the chamber.

TAKES RANK AS SPEAKER

Actually, in many minds, the Colorado senator put himself in the rank of the most capable speakers in the senate by that speech.

His apparent sincerity and conviction, with now and then ringing denunciation of opponents of the bill he sponsored, was effective.

And Costigan is capable in denunciation on and off the floor of the senate. A crane's continuous squawking in the Washington zoo, adjacent to his apartment, so irked the senator that he forced its removal to the other side of Rock Creek park.

Origin of Cosmic Rays

Cosmic rays are thought to come to the earth from stellar space, because of the fact that they appear to be coming to the earth equally from all directions, and because they appear to be more intense at higher altitudes.

YOU'LL NEVER GET ANY SAD SURPRISES IN HILLS BROS COFFEE

Some coffees are satisfactory week after week. Then a pound gives you a sad surprise. The flavor is different from what you have had. The coffee was probably roasted in bulk, and was underdone or overdone.

Naturally, batches of several hundred pounds make it difficult to always roast every berry alike. And every variation in roast results in flavor-variation.

Instead of roasting in bulk, Hills Bros. use their patented Controlled Roasting process. The coffee flows evenly, continuously through the roasters . . . a little at a time.

Because of Hills Bros' patented Controlled Roasting process, the exquisite flavor never varies . . .

Roasted evenly, continuously, "a little at a time," instead of in bulk

As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow . . . a little at a time . . . so the uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by Controlled Roasting—the patented process that roasts evenly, continuously . . . "a little at a time."

Small amounts, automatically controlled, assure an ideal roast for every single berry.

Hills Bros. Coffee is packed in vacuum cans, and can't go stale. The vacuum process of packing coffee is the only method that fully preserves coffee freshness—the air is removed from the can and kept out. It was originated by Hills Bros. over thirty years ago. There is no magic about a vacuum can—it will not make poor coffee good, but it will keep good coffee fresh.

Order Hills Bros. Coffee by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.
